White Witch said, "He's right, Servant Zhou, it's better to go back and cultivate your relationship first."

"Mmhmm." Zhou Tie nodded his head in succession.

"Then we'll leave first." Zhou Tie said.

White Witch was busy saying, "Servant Zhou, remember, the sky can't be leaked, once it's leaked, it won't work."

"I know." Zhou Tie nodded.

Omi was confused, what did they just talk about in the house? Also the sky cannot be revealed.

Omi walked out of the house, and his stepmother was waiting outside, looking very lost, because Zhou Mi had recovered her past life memories, and didn't accept her at all, didn't recognize her as his stepmother.

When Omi saw the look on her face, he was very intolerant inside.

Omi immediately walked up to her and called out, "Mother."

"Ah, what did you call me?"

"I, just." Omi smiled, "Mother, I'm sorry, although that was only my past life, and originally had nothing to do with my current life, but I already know the memories of two lifetimes, and my past life, I was very ashamed of you, making me very self-conscious. In this life, I will not treat you that way again, and I will honor you as my mother. Pay my respects to your mother." Omi bowed slightly. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Ooooooh." The former post-mother cried in tears.

Omi sighed inside, caught in the two worlds of love, it was very tangled inside, Omi was afraid that too much entanglement with his past life would make him forget who he was in this life, but some things were so deep in his inner memory.

"Mi-er." The Empress hugged Omi tightly.

Omi said, "Mistress Mother, my name is Omi in this life."

Zhou Tie said, "Mi'er, it's better to call back Zhou Mi."

"You can call me Zhou Mi, but I'm still Omi, my past life is in the past after all."

"Alright, let's go home then."

"Mm." Omi and Mr. and Mrs. Zhou Tie returned to the Zhou residence.

"Mi'er, from now on, you and your friends in this life will live in the house."

Omi said, "Lord Father, let's talk about this, my friends and they may not be willing, I'll discuss this with them."

Omi didn't immediately agree because, before Mu Qianji said, keep some distance from them, in case Omi went down the path of no return in the future, then it wouldn't involve his relatives.

That night, the Zhou residence held a very grand celebration, of course, today's celebration was only the residence's, and another day, Zhou Tie would also invite a full court of civil and military officials, to celebrate.

After tonight, the story about Zhou Tie finding the reincarnation of his former son would probably be spread all over the city. Those who heard about it would definitely be shocked, feeling that Zhou Tie hadn't even been dead for long, so how come the reincarnation had come.

That night, at the place where Omi lived, this place was also his house in his previous life, and it had been kept even after his death in his previous life.

"Omi, congratulations."

"I should say Young Master Zhou Mi la."

Omi glared at me, "Don't mess with me, I can't help it."

"From now on, you can be Zhou Mi, we won't follow you."

"If you don't follow me, then where to?"

"Don't worry, we'll be living around here too, just not in direct contact with that."

"I haven't decided if I'm going to promise Senior Demon King," Omi said.

Mu Qianji remained silent.

Omi hugged Mu Qianji to his waist and walked from the attic to the room.

This night, Omi's heart was complicated.

However, since he was here, why think so much about it.

The next day.

Almost the entire Yunluo Immortal City had heard that Zhou Mi had reincarnated back again, and even the Emperor of the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom had been told by a servant early in the morning.

"Uh, that dude has reincarnated back again, huh, what a ghastly spirit." The emperor laughed after hearing this, a jovial smile in his tone.

In the imperial palace's harem, a beautiful princess with both beauty and wisdom frowned after hearing the maid's report, "This scum has come back again, heh, my Yunluo Immortal Kingdom is really unlucky, all of them are dead and have reincarnated back, alas, I don't know how many young girls will suffer again."

Similarly, in the mansions of many great officials in Yunluo Immortal City, some of the young masters laughed when they learned of this, "This turtle grandson, he has appeared again, haha, there will be another person who can be abused."

This bastard, even if he reincarnates and comes back, so what, it probably won't be long before he dies again, hahaha."

"Hurry up and write a letter to the Upper Fellows Island and tell the person who trampled on Zhou Mi in the first place to come back and trample on his lifeblood again."

"Hahaha." At some inn restaurants, there was laughter.

Omi had been at home for the past few days and did not go out.

On this day, the Nine Daoist Demons appeared again.

"Omi, it's been more than three days, how's the consideration? Want to take a chance with me? If it succeeds, you and I are both human beings in the future."

"And if it doesn't work, I could be ruined."

"So it's up to you, but I have full confidence in you. And after all, I failed once, so I have experience and know how to avoid some of the dangers."

"Well, I've decided to take your path."

"Hahaha, that's right, then, I can teach you the first level of the Immortal Machine Spitting Method's recipe."

"Why the first layer?"

"There are only three layers in total of the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, to be precise, I only know the first three layers, you can only use the first layer at your current stage, when you reach above Earth Immortal, I will teach you the second layer."

"Alright." Omi said in his heart, if he died at that time, wouldn't that be the end of the game.

The Nine Dao Demon King quickly passed on the first layer of the recipe to Omi.

"Omi, cultivate well, with the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, the immortal level that others are so far away from, you are no longer distant, you can feel the accumulated immortal machines in your body every day, every time you accumulate to the extreme, you can go up to break a level."

"Thank you, I will definitely not disappoint your expectations, right, so am I going to keep a low profile now."

"Omi, you may have misunderstood me, I didn't say for you to hide yourself, in this world, there are also those who are truly geniuses, or those who truly have immortal destiny. Some people with true immortal destiny, their cultivation isn't slower than mine, what you need to do now is to disguise yourself as a super genius, just don't let anyone know that you are growing because of the Immortal Machine Spitting Method."

“Understood.” Omi was relieved inside, otherwise it wouldn’t be easy to figure out.

The Nine Dao Demon King asked, “Do you know why I’m so confident in you?”

“Why?”

“Because, you are a genius yourself, even if you don’t have the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, you can still reach a good level with your talent. Now that you’ve learned my Immortal Machine Spitting Method again, you’ll be even more of a genius, which I can’t compare to you, I wouldn’t be able to become a Dao Immortal without the Immortal Machine Spitting Method.”

“Ah, you’re not a genius, you can become a Dao Immortal so quickly, so wouldn’t I?”

“Yes, you’ll definitely be faster than me. Omi, your background is now innocent, in the Spirit World, I guess everyone knows you’re a genius, and now that you’ve come to the Immortal World, it’s only logical that you continue to be a genius. I, on the other hand, was originally an ordinary person, and then one day I suddenly exploded, which attracted attention, while you, won’t, because you were a genius to begin with.”
