

King of kings

Chapter 2056

Wang Zhibin turned around and walked away.

However, Wang felt that with every step he took, his body was becoming heavier and heavier.

Finally, when he reached the fifth step, Wang ZhiBin could no longer control it.

"Poof." A mouthful of blood sprayed dozens of meters away, like a fountain in a certain square.

"Ah." some of the spectators who were close to him were sprayed with blood and were depressed.

Wang ZhiBin wanted to die at the moment, he wanted to be strong enough to vomit blood when he got to a place where no one was around, but he didn't expect that Omi's move had such a strong aftermath that he couldn't control it after only five steps.

After spewing blood, Wang Zhi-bin's legs went limp and he no longer had the strength to walk.

The audience was shocked.

Omi said, "Wang Zhi-bin, you don't have a stomachache at all, otherwise how can you explain this mouthful of blood you just vomited?"

Wang Zhi-bin had nothing to say at the moment, having lost so thoroughly, it was no longer convincing to argue that his stomach hurt.

"Zhou Mi, you." Wang ZhiBin's face twisted as he looked at Omi. The first website m.kanshu8.net

"Hmph, Wang Zhi-bin, if you are still a man, keep your promise, if not, go ahead, I, Zhou, will never force you, goodbye." After saying that, Omi directly flew away, regardless of whether he slapped himself or not.

However, all the spectators were staring at Wang ZhiBin, Wang ZhiBin really wanted to kill Omi right now, Omi had already put his words down here in public, everyone was looking at him, if he didn't slap, he wasn't a man.

"Ahhhh." Wang Zhi Bian shouted, shouting, "Zhou Mi, you wait for me." After shouting, Wang ZhiBin raised his slap with a drum and slapped himself ten times.

After slapping, Wang Zhi-bin looked at Omi's departing back, his eyes red, and this humiliation, he vowed not to stop until he doubled back on the other day.

Unfortunately, Omi did not return.

For a while, the audience was discussing, looking at Omi's back, countless girls showed their adoring eyes.

Some girls were even filled with nymphomania as they said, "How great it would be if it was my man."

"Zhou Mi, you're my man god."

There were all kinds of girls.

Star Luo, who was still there, laughed wordlessly when he saw the girls who were flirting with Omi. However, it was also true that Star Luo was quite impressed with Omi, and that Omi was stronger than Star Luo had expected. Of course, Xing Luo didn't think much of that aspect, in her mind, Omi was a role like her senior brother.

In the crowd, Gu Ronba was uncomfortable seeing Omi more powerful than she had expected.

Omi returned to Master This Summer's residence.

"Back."

"Well, there was a bit of a delay."

"Just now in the ring, you did well." Master Imaha said with a smile.

"Uh, you saw that too?"

"Right."

"Oh, so how come you're back before me."

"Is that odd."

"Hehe, not strange."

"Zhou Mi, it seems I was right to take you as my disciple, being able to refine pills as well as fight, there aren't many geniuses of this level in the world, if you show off a bit more at the Immortal Pill Conference, your Zhou Mi's peerless name will definitely spread all over the Upper Fey Yan Continent." Master Today Xia said.

Omi said, "I'm afraid that may not be the case, unless, I can defeat the top ten mid Human Immortals."

Master Today Xia asked, "Then, can you defeat the top ten?"

Omi said, "It's a piece of cake."

Master This Summer was startled, not expecting that Omi would be so self Letter.

"Since you were able to completely amaze everyone in terms of your strength, I thought that your fame would be even greater in the Upper Fellows, so since it's a piece of cake, why not go ahead and challenge it? It starts with the tenth place in the mid Human Immortal rankings. As far as I know, the top ten of the mid Human Immortal ranking list has not changed for over 3,000 years."

"In other words, the current top ten people in the mid Human Immortal ranking list are all veteran powerhouses who have dominated the list for more than 3,000 years."

"Right, if you do succeed in your challenge and defeat one of them, you'll shake the entire continent."

Omi's heart secretly moved, indeed, a ranking that hadn't changed for more than three thousand years on the Hegemony List would indeed be shocked if Omi killed one of them.

Currently, Omi's fame was only spread among some small townspeople and a few noble sons and daughters, and there was no one in the true genius circle of the Upper Fellows Continent who knew about Omi.

"Let me think." Omi said.

"Of course, there's no rush, after all, challenging someone else, they have the right to kill you, and an unsuccessful challenge means death."

That night, one of Star Luo's girls came to invite Omi.

"Mr. Zhou, Star Luo is inviting you to a night banquet."

"Good, I'll take a shower and go."

"Okay."

Omi took a bath, changed into clean clothes, and immediately went forward to Xing Luo's place, after all, the same residence was not far away.

In a gazebo, Xing Luo had prepared a banquet and was waiting for Omi to come.

"Miss Xing Luo."

"Omi, you've finally come, I'll starve to death if you don't come."

"Haha, Miss Xing Luo is really joking, how could a fairy be hungry."

"Please sit down, just call me by my name from now on, there's no need to be so polite."

"The proper courtesy is still required." Omi refused, because Omi knew that even some strong Earth Immortals had to respectfully call her Miss Xing Luo, if Omi directly called her by her name, even if Xing Luo didn't care, but what if the other people in the Xing Clan heard? Maybe teach Don Omi some lessons.

"Suit yourself. Your performance today has surpassed my expectations, Omi, I now finally understand how extraordinary it is that you were able to go from being a mortal as weak as an ant in the first rank to becoming an Immortal. Perhaps, your extraordinariness has even surpassed me."

"Miss Xing Luo is too polite, I'm nowhere near as good as you say I am."

"Omi, what the Devil King's predecessor taught you, but the Silence Art?"

"Right." Omi nodded.

Miss Starlot said, "When did you pass this on?"

"Uh, it was passed on to me right after I arrived in the Immortal Realm."

"In other words, he passed it on to you when you were only in the early stages of Human Immortality."

"Yes."

"Then you learned it?"

"Of course, now that I've finished practicing all the spells on the first layer, I'll have Senior Demon King, teach me the second layer some other day."

What Omi didn't notice was that Star Luo's face was changing several times at the moment.

"Right, Miss Star Luo, you should have learned this spell as well, you must have practiced all of them to the second level or higher." Omi asked.

Startled for a moment, Star Luo said with some difficulty, "Truth be told, I've only just finished practicing the first level."

"Ah, how could that be, you're in the pre-Mortal Immortal stage, and you're that old."

Star Luo was said by Omi, who was a bit unable to see anyone.

Star Luo smiled bitterly, "That's why I deeply understand how extraordinary it is for you to be able to go from being a mortal, to becoming an immortal."
