At this moment, Gu Ruumba and Gao Qiong, who were below, saw how strange Omi's expression was, and suddenly, Gao Qiong sneered, "Silly like this, I guess the grade is only in single digits."

Yun Zi and Yun Meng both looked at Omi worriedly.

Omi's gaze was incredibly bright and walked back to Yun Zi.

Gu Ruangba laughed, "Haha, Zhou Mi, did you do poorly in the test, look at your face, it can't be really single digits, at this level, you still have the nerve to say that you are versatile, and you still dare to compare Gao Qiong, hahaha."

"Hahaha." Gao Qiong laughed loudly as well.

Omi shouted, "Shut up, how do you know that your eyes see me in single digits."

"Since it's not single digits, why are you looking so ugly, have the guts to show me your report card."

Without saying a word, Omi held up the results to Gao Qiong and Gu Wunba.

The two of them took a look.

"Total score: 500; current ranking: first."

"Ah." Suddenly, Gao Qiong and Gu Zhuanba were dumbfounded, dumbfounded at the words on the report card, and Omi didn't react even though he took the report card back. The first website

Yun Zi was busy snatching over to take a look.

"Ah." Yun Zi was also dumbfounded.

Yun Meng also leaned over to take a look and sucked in a breath of cold air.

Omi exhaled deeply, which revealed a trace of a smile.

Omi inwardly said, "Damn, what a shock to me, the one who scored a perfect score is me, crap."

It could be seen that Omi was very excited inside.

Of course, outside of the few of them out at the moment, everyone else still didn't know who that person with a perfect score was.

Master Tian Xiang also received her report card very quickly.

Her report card read, "Total score 423, current ranking: first."

This time, Tian Xiang was also considered to have overperformed, exceeding 420 points, keeping her first place for many years in a row, she should have been very excited, but Tian Xiang couldn't be happy at the moment because there was another genius who was even more powerful than her, not just powerful, but completely crushing.

Although, Tian Xiang was a second level Xiantian, that person who scored a perfect score was a first level Xiantian, the test papers were different, but they all reflected their talent, so no matter how many levels of Xiantian you were, the score was directly proportional to your talent.

An hour later, the results were all handed out.

Everyone knew their scores.

However, after receiving the report cards, everyone didn't leave because, it hadn't been announced who the person with the perfect score was yet.

"Senior, now that the report cards have been handed out as well, it's time to announce the person who got the perfect score, right?" One man yelled.

"Yeah, announce it, who got the perfect score."

"Come on, announce it."

"Announce it."

Suddenly, everyone on the scene shouted.

At this moment, on Omi's side, Gao Qiong's face was incomparably embarrassed, Gu Ruumba was still stupid, and right now Omi hadn't said a word yet, she felt her face burning with pain.

Omi originally wanted to say something to Gao Qiong and Gu 唚 ba, but thought, why bother with such people small people.

Omi eventually just snorted and didn't even look at them.

Kuvunba was suffering inside, and this look in Omi's eyes showed the kind of disdain Omi had for her.

Gao Qiong said with a hard scalp, "That, Brother Zhou, I'm really sorry just now, I."

Omi didn't even listen and exchanged words with Yun Zi, not knowing what to say.

Gao Qiong saw that he was directly ignored and was depressed inside

, wanted to be angry, but, couldn't get it out.

Gu Ronba said, "Zhou Mi, I'm sorry, I'm blind, will you forgive me."

Omi, of course, didn't bother.

Gu Enba said, "Zhou Mi, I'm really sorry."

Omi was impatient, "Alright, don't bother me, do what you have to do, apologize to me for what."

Gao Qiong said, “哼巴, let’s go, he’s right, we should do what we need to do, he scored a perfect score, what does it have to do with us, we’re not asking him for alchemy, what’s there to drag about. Let’s go, let’s get a room.” Gao Qiong raised his nose, deliberately saying the word get a room rather loudly, as if he deliberately let Omi hear it, did he think that Omi would be jealous that he could soon get a room with a beautiful woman?

However, Kuvunba was clearly not in the mood, and shrugged off Gao Qiong’s hand and said, “Who wants a room with you, get out.”

“Ah, 哼巴, what do you mean?” Gao Qiong was startled and felt ashamed to have her hand thrown away.

Kuvunba said, “Gao Qiong, don’t talk nonsense and insult my reputation, who would room with you, get out.”

“哼巴, you.”

“Get out, if you don’t I’ll kick you in the balls.”

“Ah, you.” Gao Qiong was so angry that Kuvunba turned his back on him.

At that moment, there was a shout, “Please come up here for those who got full marks.”

The person who shouted was the Xian Dan master who was grading the papers.

Everyone had just yelled at the person who got a perfect score, so the Xian Dan master who was grading the scrolls shouted Omi.

The scene immediately quieted down, and everyone was filled with anticipation. Looking to the left and right to see where the person who had scored a perfect score was.

Right now, so was Master Tianxiang.

Omi hesitated, and the person took the report card and slowly walked out of the crowd.

Suddenly, many people saw Omi.

Omi walked up the steps of the Great Hall of Immortals and faced the crowd.

After seeing Omi, the discussion roared again.

“Oh my god, the one who scored a perfect score on the exam, it’s him?” At this moment, Tian Xiang in the crowd was completely dumbfounded, she never expected that it would be Omi.

The Xian Dan master who was grading the test papers said, “Friend, show your report card to everyone.”

Omi nodded and held the report card up high for everyone to see.

Everyone saw the heart-stopping red characters and all of them marveled and admired it.

“Tsk, it really is him.”

“Wow, my idol.”

“This really is a divine talent.”

For a moment, countless people looked at Omi in adoration.

On the far side of the crowd, on a certain rooftop, Xing Luo sighed, “Omi, Omi, you really are too perverted, full marks, tsk tsk, even Tian Xiang has to be willing to bow to him.”

Star Luo’s admiration for Omi could no longer be described with words, Omi was even more powerful than her in the Silence Technique, and now Immortal Pill, and his talent was even more awesome than Tianxiang.

“Alright, everyone, you’ve seen the divine talent who scored a perfect score on the exam, almost scatter, after that, I’ll post his paper so that you can witness it with your own eyes, those who are not convinced, done. Disperse.”

Only then did the crowd gradually disperse.

Omi also walked down the steps, and immediately many people gathered around to show their admiration and respect for Omi, among them, many third level Immortal Pillars.

Not far away, Tianxiang originally wanted to go up and say a few words, but with so many people surrounding her, she couldn’t go up, so she could only leave first with a sigh and go back to report this matter to her master.

Presumably, her master would personally accept a disciple.
