2119

omi worried, "I don't know if the Gao family will come to dig the graves, before Mei Seed all said that they will dig up even if they are buried."

Xing Luo said, "Don't worry, they won't dare."

"Why?"

"Tzu-Chen, do you know why all immortals are buried here when they die? This is because, buried here, this place is very thick with Yin spirits, if someone dared to come here to dig a grave, it would definitely cause the anger of all the Yin spirits here, with so many Yin spirits buried here, if it causes the anger of so many Yin spirits, then it's basically impossible to get out alive. Therefore, no one would dare to come and dig a grave, unless they are strong enough to counteract all the Yin Spirits here, for example, Heavenly Immortals or above, but after they are strong enough to do so, they probably wouldn't be interested in digging a grave long ago."

omi quickly buried the Green King, and at the same time, engraved words on the tombstone, describing his master's achievements and fame in this life, and if someone came in the next thousand years, they would be able to know who was buried in this grave.

When it was finished, omi said to Tian Xiang and Xing Luo, "You guys go first, I want to put the Gao Jian's things, in front of Master's tombstone."

"So speechless."

Tianxiang and Xing Luo left first.

omi strung up the high sword thing with bamboo sticks and stuck it in front of the tombstone.

See, it was definitely going to be alive and angry.

"Master, then I'll leave first, you can rest in peace here." omi bowed one last time, then turned around and walked away. One second to remember to read the book

As omi walked, he also looked at the graves of the others.

What Heaven's Ultimate Master, the Upper Fellows War God, the Cloud Fairy, a whole bunch of them, each of them had introduced their masters as awesome on their tombstones. Of course, this was understandable, just like omi's tombstone on Master Green King's tombstone, which also had words like what was the most outstanding Immortal Master of Upper Fei Yan Continent inscribed on it.

Just then, omi suddenly saw a peculiar tomb.

"Hey, why is that tomb without any introduction on the tombstone?"

omi was a little confused, of all the immortal graves here, which one didn't look like a bull's-eye sleeping here, only this one immortal grave had an empty tombstone.

omi curiously went up to the tomb and found that this tomb had been buried here for hundreds of millions of years.

Out of respect for his predecessor, omi bowed three times to this tomb and said, "Senior, I hope you won't be offended if you take the liberty of interrupting."

After paying his respects, omi prepared to turn around and leave.

At this moment, a voice came from the tomb behind him, "Stop."

"Ah." omi turned back in a frightened panic, and when he did, a large face was right in front of omi's eyes, almost pressed against his face.

"Ah." omi was frightened and backed away.

Only after taking a few steps back did omi see the face of that unknown person or ghost, it was a very old man, his face was so old that it looked like tree bark, not only his face, his whole body's skin looked like tree bark, extremely terrifying.

"Senior, you are."

"That's right, I'm the owner of this nameless tombstone."

"Ah, Senior, are you a human or a ghost?" omi asked in a panic.

"My grave is here, do you think I'm a human or a ghost."

"Ah, senior, don't scare me, senior didn't mean to offend, senior just saw that your tombstone didn't have any written introduction on it and came to disturb you out of curiosity."

"Hmph, since you're here, then go in and accompany me."

"Go."

Which."

"Into my grave with me, of course." That pale thing, tugging on omi's head, whirled like the wind and crashed into the tombstone.

omi's figure instantly disappeared in front of the tomb, as if he had never been here before.

At this moment, not far away, Tianxiang and Xing Luo shouted, "omi, omi, Zhou Mi, the Prime Minister."

omi clearly heard their shouts, but omi couldn't see or touch them, it was pitch black in front of him, and what's more, omi couldn't even feel his own body.

omi panicked and shouted, "Xing Luo, Tian Xiang, I'm here, I'm here."

However, they couldn't hear the same and were still looking around for omi.

"Kid, don't waste your energy, they can't hear you."

“Senior, where am I?”

“You’re in my grave.”

“I’m really dead?”

“That’s not true.”

“Ah, I’m not dead, so why can’t I feel my body exist?”

“That’s because you are in my tombstone, my tombstone, a place like a spatial ring where you can cultivate and not feel the interference of time in the slightest. My tombstone is a spatial monument, I have been cultivating here for a billion years, and now, I will soon perish.” The voice in omi’s ear said.

“Senior, you mean, you’re still alive.”

“Yes, a billion years ago, I didn’t want to be disturbed, so I pretended to be dead, and since then, I’ve been cultivating here, but unfortunately, this spatial stele is not destined for me, and instead of being able to cultivate successfully, I’m deeply trapped in it.”

“Senior, junior doesn’t understand what you mean.”

“My soul, was adsorbed by this spatial stele, back then I didn’t listen to the advice, and those who are not fated with the spatial stele, their souls may be adsorbed by the spatial stele, and they will never be able to leave the spatial stele a hundred meters away.”

“Then, Senior, what about me?”

“Before dying, I’m just pulling a cushion, I don’t know if you have a fate with the space tablet, if not, you speak of taking over and being imprisoned here forever.”

“Senior, you’re so poisonous.”

“Alright, just kidding with you, kid, on my tombstone, actually, there are many words, no different from other tombstones, but you can’t see the words on the tombstone, which means, you are fated with this spatial stele. Also, you can save me out, but unfortunately, my life span is already over, so there’s no point in even if you save me out, I’m about to actually sleep here for the rest of my life.” The old man was sorrowful, trapped all his life, finally waiting for someone who could save him, but, he was already at the end of his lifespan and was about to die.

“Oh, so.” omi was speechless.

“Kid, maybe it’s God’s will, just, before I die, let me give you a great gift.”

“What great gift?”

“Bang.” omi felt a slap on his back, and then, a powerful immortal power surged wildly into omi’s body, this feeling was like taking many immortal pills.

omi immediately began to spit out his Immortal Qi, and his Immortal Qi value was rising rapidly.

Unfortunately, it didn’t last long.

“Kid, I’m leaving, after I die, you can take my tombstone with you or without it, after all, this spatial monument is useless except for the fact that it is not interfered by outside time during cultivation, instead, it will easily harm more people like me.
