omi arrived at the Sun and Moon Divine Sword Upper Immortal Pre-Class.

As soon as omi entered this valley, he suddenly saw that there were several flags in the valley, dozens of flags to be precise, flags that had 'Boshi Guidance', 'Divine Guidance', and 'Supreme Divine Sword Training Class' written on them!', 'Honten Sun and Moon Divine Sword Guidance Office.'

There were dozens of flags with all sorts of words written on them.

These flags, at a glance, were investment advertisements.

"Holy crap, what's the situation?What happened to the course I wanted to start a million years ago, and now it's everywhere?"omi broke out in a cold sweat.

He hadn't been back here in a million years, it seemed like a lot had changed here, and Don omi had the feeling that these people were using his creativity.

omi casually flew under a flag called the Bose Guidance Flag, next to this flag, there was a cave.

omi walked into this cave.

"Hello, do you need guidance?"A man in the cave asked at once.

omi's brow furrowed deeply and asked, "What does Bose guide mean?Did you run this Bosse guide?"

"This student, I am not the owner of Boshi Guidance, and I work for Boshi Guidance." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Yah, and the boss, looks like it's not just one person, it's a group of people."

"Oh, this student is not a long time closed, don't even understand the current situation of the Air Torn Department.Truth be told, we, Boshi Guidance, were the first to open a service shop, we have the most professional and best guidance team.Moreover, we, Boshi Guidance, have branches in all the classes of the Air Tearing Department, the four major Air Tearing disciplines.Our Boshi Guidance is already an old shop with close to a million years of history, so you can feel free to seek our guidance."

omi was depressed, this was clearly his idea, but now it was being opened as a million year old shop.

However, one couldn't blame others, after all, omi had gone to the Xian Dan Department back then.

omi asked, "How do you charge for it?"

"Don't worry about that, our fees are definitely the fairest, and we only need one fairy coin to instruct once."

Just at this moment, a man walked in from outside.

"Hello, I'm at the twelfth level of the Sun and Moon Divine Sword, and I've come across a very big confusion, I'd like to seek your guidance."

"Okay, okay."

Thus, the person who had just spoken to omi immediately went to guide someone else.

omi just stood around and looked at it.

"You tell me what you're confused about."

"Okay."

About ten minutes later, the guidance was finished.

"Thanks, I've got it."

"You're welcome, feel free to come back to me for guidance next time if you have any questions."

"Good, sure."

After that customer left, that instructor looked at omi again and smiled, "See, it's that simple, the immortal coins you spent were worth it, classmate, do you still have any doubts now, a piece of immortal coins to instruct once."

omi snorted, "You think, the guidance you just gave to that person was really good, unfortunately, as I look at me, the guidance you just gave to that person has a big mistake in it, and, if you are not careful, it will make that person take a lot of detours when practicing the next layer."

"Hmph, speaking as if you know it all, if you're not here to instruct, please get out of here immediately."

omi turned around and walked away.

/> omi walked into another cave, called the 'Supreme Divine Sword Training Course'.

"Hello, do you need to attend the Sun and Moon Divine Sword Training Course?"

"What's the charge?"

"Don't worry about that, our Supreme Training Course has also been running for over 600,000 years, it's an old name, and the owner of our Supreme Training Course is one of the strongest instructors in the Air Tear Department, so our quality is very much guaranteed."

"Mentor, you mean? This supreme training course of yours is run by the instructors of the Air Tear Department?"

"Of course ah, moreover, our supreme training course is jointly run by four instructors, these four instructors are the Sun and Moon Divine Sword, Shura Divine Saber, Heaven and Earth Divine Hammer, and the Shooting Sun Divine Arrow four Air Tearing Technique instructors, each instructor is responsible for one Air Tearing Technique training job each. Of course, the immortal coins earned are also shared equally among the four mentors."

"And you are?"

"Oh, of course I'm the guy they hired, okay, do you want to take a course? It's only ten Xian coins for one period of one year, which means that you only need ten Xian coins for one year of training, which is much more cost-effective than some instructions that are one Xian coin at a time."

omi laughed, his business idea was really played out.

omi still wanted to continue earning immortal coins, but the result was good, the competition was so great that there wasn't even any competition anymore.

"Classmate, are you going to sign up or not?"

"No sign up."

omi walked out of the cave, and suddenly, omi saw an acquaintance on the opposite side of the hill.

"Bai Hanyan?"

Bai Hanyan was a beautiful woman that omi had met when he first arrived here a million years ago, and later confessed to omi, but omi refused.

"Bai Hanyan." omi flew up.

"Ah, Tang, omi?" Bai Hanyan was shocked to see omi.

"Haha, you still remember me."

"omi, where have you been for the past million years."

"Oh, I went to the Department of Immortal Pill, where I accidentally became a seventh-grade Immortal Pill Master, and only returned to the Air Tearing Department today, but I was shocked to find so many training courses when I came back. I was hoping for another three days of training."

Bai Hanyan said unjustly, "They all imitated you, but after you left, sometime after you left, word spread about how you made thousands of Immortal Coins in three days of instruction. After that, many people discovered the business opportunity and started imitating you. However, the competition was very fierce, and the first ones started to be opened by some of the more powerful genius students, and later, the instructors of the Air Tearing Department also became jealous and opened training and guidance as well. Today, there are at least twenty to thirty training guides, and most of the owners are mentors."

"Damn, these mentors are too shameless, they wouldn't come once in the past for thousands of years, and came out when they saw that there were immortal coins earned."

"Yeah, now the mentors come all the time, pulling popularity for the training and guidance they've opened themselves. omi, I really feel bad for you, this would have been the first thing you came up with."

"Oh, I can't help it, who rules that others can't imitate me. By the way, Bai Hanyan, I see that you're in the middle Upper Immortal stage now, why are you still in this class in the early Upper Immortal stage?"

"Me." Bai Hanyan said apologetically, "Truth be told, I'm currently an employee of the 'Divine Guidance' in this place. I'm working for the Divine Guidance, and I can earn one fairy coin for ten years."

“Ah.”

Just a moment ago, Bai Hanyan was beating up on omi, and the next moment she actually said that she was also working for one of the training shops.
