After Tang Huan's mother left, the bit about omi and Tang Huan was left unsaid.

"Is everyone else okay now?"

"Don't worry, they're all fine, except that they're all still in Upper Feyama."

"It's just a pity that I can't bring them to the Academy of Immortality."

"It doesn't have to be to the Academy of Immortality, I'm going to open a training shop now, once I earn immortal coins, I'll go back to them, I want them to become strong above the Upper Fellows."

"You're not going to teach them the one you're talking about, are you?" Tang Huan was busy asking.

"Of course, it's a pity you left too early, or I would have passed it on to you, but you're already good enough, and now you're all Earth Immortals."

Tang Huan asked, "Have any of them reached Earth Immortal?"

omi smiled, "A million years ago, Mu Qianji had become a Mortal Immortal, and the rest, at worst, were all mid Human Immortals."

"A million years ago, I was still a Human Immortal."

"How were you able to become an Earth Immortal so quickly?" omi asked. First URL m . kanshu8.net

"It's all thanks to my mother's efforts to help me, and the endless resources of immortal pills, as you know, my grandfather in my previous life was the president of the Immortal Academy, and although he didn't like me, he wasn't stingy with me, so I've eaten at least a few million immortal pills in the past million years."

"I go, so many."

"Yeah, and then my mother went so far as to expend her own mana to help me absorb them, so that's why I'm here today. Unfortunately, I've still only become an Earth Immortal. If it were you, I'm afraid you'd have become a Dao Immortal, just like my mother."

"Your mother is a Dao Immortal."

"Yes, late Dao Immortal."

"By the way, where is your former father?"

"From what my mother said, dead, my father, in his previous life, wasn't a big man, just a small man with no status or family background, and my mother was the daughter of the Dean of the Immortal Academy, so they were not destined to be blessed."

"I see, no wonder you said that your grandfather doesn't like you."

"But I think it's fine, Grandfather is gradually accepting me, than in the beginning."

"So I'm also relieved."

Tang Huan said with some hesitation, "But I'm a little worried, my grandfather is a very powerful man, and his gradual acceptance of me now is not a good thing."

"How is it not a good thing."

"Back then, my grandfather would have stopped my mother and my father, so how do you know he wouldn't have stopped you and me?"

omi smiled, "Seems to make some sense." omi also doesn't have a family background now."

"Don't worry about that yet, I, omi, am in no way comparable to your former father. I'm going to go to the Immortal Pill Department and assess if I can become an Immortal Pill Tutor."

Tang Huan said, "I don't think I should go as a mentor."

"Why?"

"omi, you don't know that you have to sign a contract to be a mentor, starting at ten million years, and that mentors aren't paid well, so you might as well go ahead and run your training course. Besides, I can reveal a piece of information to you."

"What information."

"My grandfather isn't against the training and mentoring that is prevalent in the academy right now, rather he is a great admirer of it, he thinks it will make the Immortal Academy better, and my grandfather is also interested in those who are doing great with the training courses. Tzu-Chen, I'd rather you do the training course, being a mentor is already backward, moreover, I can also speculate that in the future, the Immortal Academy will probably be reformed by the training course, mentoring classes, mentors may no longer exist. Because of the things learned in the training course .

Far more than you learn in class."

"Really? According to you, I'm still going to be assessed as a tutor and going the backward route."

"Yes. My grandfather appreciates those courses that make a lot of money, he thinks it's a sign of strength."

"Good, then I'm not going to be any kind of Immortal Tutor, I'll just concentrate on my training course, hahaha. By the way, Huanhuan, do you know who was the first to do the training course?"

"I don't know, but I heard that it seems like a genius from the Air Tear Department was the first to do it, and I heard that he made five or six hundred Xian coins in one day, and after that, more and more people imitated it."

omi said with a proud look on his face, "It's impossible to guess, a clever initiative like this, of course I was the first one to do it, your husband."

"Ah." Tang Huan shouted, seemingly surprised.

"What? Don't believe me."

"This, is it really you?"

"Of course it's true."

"I also heard a lot of students talking before, about the first person who invented the training course, everyone said that person must be very smart, even I admired him, but I didn't expect that it was you."

"Hahaha, yeah, back then I originally wanted to open a training course too, even opened it to the end, to become a training school, but, I was a bit timid back then, afraid that it would be too much of an attraction, I wasn't strong enough, so then I went to the Immortal Pill Department, stayed at the Immortal Pill Master for a million years, and accidentally, I became a seventh-grade Immortal Pill Master."

"Seventh-ranked Immortal Pill Master? Oh right, you just said assessment to be a tutor, I didn't even think this way, but you're a seventh level Immortal Master."

"Haha, unfortunately, it's hard to advance any further, the School of Immortality has found any chance."

"Husband, you're powerful enough now, there aren't many seventh-grade Immortal Masters in the entire Earth Immortal World."

"Oh, yeah."

"Yeah, you're a seventh-grade Immortal Pill Master, if you leave the Academy of Immortals in the future, you won't be a bad mix, there are a lot of powers that want you."

"We'll talk about these later. Huanhuan, don't stay in the spell department from now on, since you met me, follow me in the future."

"But, I don't know my mother her."

"It's fine, it's all in the same place anyway, it's fine for me to come see you often, but if you follow me, there are definitely more benefits, for example, I can guide you in the spells you practice, although I don't know what spells you're practicing now, but I believe I can surpass you if I just learn them casually."

"Mhmm, my husband is the best man in the world."

"Hehe, is he the best man, there's no need for you to say that." omi's eyes were ambiguous with a wink.

"Nasty." Tang Huan angrily.

omi was in a very good mood at the moment.

However, while omi and Tang Huan were entwined, the spell department was turning up a storm.

Nong Yao, who was ranked fifth in the late Upper Immortal stage, was beaten by one of the Air Tearing Department and didn't even have the chance to let out a single fart.

This incident quickly spread in the Spell Department.

Moreover, that Nong Yao, who was defeated by omi, was very unhappy inside, and he went so far as to encourage someone more powerful than him to challenge omi, that person, called Ole, was the late Upper Immortal, ranked third in the Spell Department. This Ole, although he was only ranked in the top two than Nong Yao, but his strength could definitely spike Nong Yao.

In order to get some dignity back for himself, Nong Yao went to encourage Ou Le, if Ou Le won, then he could give omi a little bit of credit, if Ou Le lost, then Nong Yao losing to omi wouldn't be so humiliating, because those who were more powerful than him had lost
