Ding Lan's eyes went white and she snorted, "Look at you being so proud, a mere Star Shift Great Law is also talking, do you know that Grandfather Tang Huan was also unable to refine the Star Shift Great Law, what he admired the most in his life was, someone who could practice the Star Shift Great Law."

"Ah, how is that possible, the dean is so strong that he can't practice it?" Omi was full of doubt.

"Nonsense, how can it be so easy to refine, the Star Shifting Law isn't something that powerful people can refine, if they can't, even immortals can't practice it."

"So."

"If not, how is it possible that the entire Immortal Academy has ever been refined by less than ten people."

"Alright."

After that, Omi returned to the Air Tearing Department.

The Air Tearing Department had completely changed, before there were still some people who chose those tutor training courses, but now, everyone had come to Omi's Tang training.

It could be said that all the students of the Empty Tear Department had come to Tang's guidance to spend.

The other instructors were very depressed and could only curse Long Tuqiu for being incompetent, but if Long Tuqiu hadn't been defeated by Omi, he wouldn't have harmed all the instructors and lost a dime of business.

The next day, Fatty said, "Brother, is there anyone who wants to see you?" Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Who?"

"You'll see when you see him."

"Let him in."

A short while later, a man walked in, and Omi wondered who it was, but it was Shi Haoxiang.

"Big brother." Shi Haoxiang lowered his head and called out, before Shi Haoxiang said this, Omi was arrogant and cocky, even he couldn't look past him, then Shi Haoxiang walked away.

Omi said, "Don't call me big brother."

"Big Brother Tang, I was wrong, I shouldn't have doubted you before."

“Shit good incense, you’ve chosen to leave me, so don’t appear in front of me again, okay?”

“Big brother, I’m sorry, I was really wrong.”

Shi Haoxiang regretted now, if he had known that Omi was so powerful, he shouldn’t have suspected Omi like that in the first place, let alone left Tang’s.

“Get lost.”

Omi summoned all his younger brothers, “Everyone, it’s time to start a chain of Tang training stores in the Department of Spells.”

Bai Hanyan said, “Big brother, we’re starting a chain in the Department of Spells, and although we have a reputation, we simply don’t have anyone to guide us ah. We succeeded in the Air Tearing Department because your comprehension of the Air Tearing Technique is high, but there are numerous spells in the Department of Spells, you can’t possibly refine them all and be more refined than those instructors, right?”

Omi said, “That’s not an advantage, but we don’t have a disadvantage either. You guys go to the Department of Spells first, open up the training shop, and at the same time recruit geniuses from the Department of Spells at a high price, invite them to come to our Tang as instructors, and we’ll split it 50/50 with them. I think that with my reputation for refining the Star Shift Technique, there should be people willing to befriend me.”

“Good.”

Omi’s training shop opened smoothly to the spell department.

Just as Omi had expected, many people who worshipped Omi immediately came to spend money at Omi’s guidance shop, which had only just opened, and business was gradually getting on track.

Let’s leave these aside for now.

One day, a strong man came to see Omi.

“You must be Omi.”

“Exactly, and you are?”

“Oh, I’m the dean’s assistant, my name is Anmisi, and I heard that you practiced the Star Shifting Technique and defeated the Dao Immortal with your Heavenly Immortal realm.”

“What?

Time?”

“Do you have time tomorrow at noon?”

"Sure, anytime you're free."

"That's a deal then, I'll pick you up tomorrow at noon."

"Thank you."

After that Anmisi left, Omi was about to tell Tang Huan the happy news, but another strong man came, and this strong man's strength was also beyond Dao Immortal.

"Hello, you must be Omi."

"Erm, who are you again?" Omi's eyebrows furrowed, how come two people came looking for him one after another.

"I am the Chief Disciple of the Heavenly Monta General Sitting down, my name is Meng Bai, I heard that you have practiced the Star Shifting Technique, our Monta General admires you so much that he wants to invite you to the Heavenly Realm and have a drink with our Monta General, I wonder if you are willing to give our Monta General this face?"

"The heavenly realm? General Monta?"

"Yes, the matter about you practicing the Star Shift Great Law will naturally spread to the Heavenly Realm as well, the Immortal Academy is the place with the most geniuses within the three realms (Mortal Realm, Spirit Realm, and Earth Immortal Realm), and our General Monta has always wanted to recruit some true geniuses to become his disciples, you were able to be favored by our General Monta, don't miss this opportunity."

Omi understood, not expecting that he would be favored by some general in the sky after refining the Star Shifting Great Law.

It was just that Omi had to make a choice now, whether to choose the Dean or some Monta General.

"Can I think about it?"

"Of course, it's your freedom after all, but I can tell you with certainty that there's no mistaking the choice of General Monta."

"I'll think about it."

"I'll come back to you tomorrow, and I hope you'll give me an accurate answer."

"Good."

Omi headed to Tang Huanna.

"Husband, you're here, why do you look so thoughtful?"

"Huanhuan, I'm really a bit confused right now, aren't I, but Grandfather sent someone to invite me, but what I didn't expect was that a man who calls himself General Monta of the Heavenly Realm, also came to see me and said that General Monta was interested in recruiting me as his protégé."

"General Monta? I don't know him, so why don't you go ask my mother, who knows more about this man."

“Good.”

Quickly, they found Tang Huan her mother-in-law.

Upon meeting her, Ding Lan asked, “Omi, has Huanhuan her grandfather found you yet?”

“Back to my aunt, who came to see me and asked me to visit his house tomorrow. By the way, there’s also a man who calls himself one of General Monta’s men who has come to see me.”

Tang Huan her mother was a bit surprised, “It’s actually spread to the sky, hehe, Tang boy, it looks like you’re going to soar to the top.”

“Why do you say that?”

“Our Immortal Academy is the place with the most geniuses, but nevertheless, if it were anyone else, it wouldn’t be so easy to reach the heavens in one step, you have to be very prominent to be noticed by the people in the heavens, and that’s the ultimate goal of the vast majority of geniuses who enter the Immortal Academy, and you, you have the chance to reach the heavens so soon.”

“Auntie, I would like to ask, who is this General Monta? I know that I can’t choose both the Dean and General Monta, right.”

“Right, so you have to make the choice, and in all fairness, from my point of view, I certainly hope you choose my father. However, that General Monta isn’t bad, he’s also an immortal, and if you become his protégé, your future prospects are boundless.”

“Then what if I choose the Dean?”

“It’s certainly not bad that my father is the head of the Immortal Academy and in charge of it,” Ting Lan said, but there was a bit of a guilty tone in her voice.

Omi thought to himself, although Omi didn’t know General Monta, it looked like General Monta would have a bit more of a future than following the dean, and it felt like General Monta was more powerful in the sky.
