Chapter 2216

"Omi, you're here." Ding Lan saw Omi and busily stood up.

Omi had now learned of Ding Lan's past and knew more about her, in fact, Tang Huan's mother, wasn't much older, I heard that she was less than twenty million years old, which was much younger than Qing Shidu. Theoretically, within 100 million years old, she was considered the same age.

It was just a pity, because she had given birth to a child more than ten million years ago, making it seem as if she was now a generation older than Omi.

Ding Lan busily introduced, "Omi, this is my father, Ding Cang Qiong. Father, this is Omi."

A half old man looked at Omi and smiled, "You must be Omi."

"Exactly, junior Omi, pay your respects to senior dean."

"You're welcome, please sit down."

"Thank you." Omi generously sat down.

Ding Lan smiled, "Then you guys chat, I'll leave first."

Only Omi and two others remained in the living room.

"Omi, what a young man, so young to become a Celestial Immortal, and moreover, he has even practiced the Star Shifting Method." First URL m.kanshu8.net

"Oh, Dean is overly flattered."

"I've heard that you've practiced your star shift technique to the second level?"

"Yes."

"Not bad, training to the second level at such a young age, those few people in the history of the Immortal Academy couldn't do it either."

"Oh, where where."

"By the way, General Monta's people invited you to heaven, why didn't you go?" Dean asked.

"I prefer to be with Dean."

"Hahaha, Tantzin, I like you."

"Dean's kidding, I don't like men."

"Hahahaha." Dean burst out laughing.

Dean said, "Honestly, Omi, I may indeed be inferior compared to General Monta, if you follow General Monta, your future will be better, I already couldn't eat lunch today, but I didn't expect that you. Oh, surprisingly you trust me so much, I can't treat you badly. If you don't mind, could you become my son-in-law at my door?"

Omi busily said, "Of course I'm willing."

"Well then, it's already a bit difficult for my daughter to pick a better man anyway, and she still has to come to the door, so it's better to find a genius and just get on with it."

Omi's eyebrows furrowed, "Wait, Dean, you're mistaken, I'm talking about Tang Huan."

"Tang Huan? Who is Tang Huan? I'm talking about my daughter Ding Lan. First, my daughter is eight million years older than you. Second, my daughter was once seduced and fell in love with a man in the Immortal Academy. But don't worry, although many people say my daughter is a broken shoe, I assure you that she is still pure and innocent. You're from the Earth Immortal Realm anyway, and I don't think anyone would refuse when you go to heaven as a doorkeeper. Alright, it's these three points above, if you agree, I'll pledge my daughter Ding Lan to you."

Omi was busy shaking his head in fear, "No, senior dean, you've got it wrong, the reason why I agreed just now before I said anything is because I thought it was Tang Huan."

"Who is Tang Huan?"

Omi thought of Tang Huan's other name and busily said, "Right, Ding Huan."

"Er, Ding Huan?" The dean's eyebrows jumped twice, looking at Omi with some suspicion, wondering if Omi knew anything.

The Dean said, "Ding Huan is the orphaned daughter of my late son, few people in Immortal Academy know about her relationship with me, how do you know about her?"

"Dean, to tell you the truth, Ding Huan and I, we're already in love, otherwise, why would I reject General Monta, it's because of Ding Huan."

"So ah, but." The dean seemed a bit reluctant.

"But what?"

"I think, you and my daughter, it's still more suitable ah."

Omi wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and said, "Dean, what are you saying."

"Omi, I'm serious, a daughter is always closer than a granddaughter."

"But I just like Ding Huan."

"Omi, let's discuss this matter later, let's eat first."

"Alright."

Halfway through the meal, Ding Cang Vault left the banquet, allowing Omi to eat first.

Ding Cangdome came to a room.

"Father, what are you doing here?" Tang Huan's mother was busy asking, "Where is Omi? Leaving so soon?"

"Lan'er, what do you think if Dad promised you to Omi?"

"What?" Ding Lanton jumped up.

The dean thought that her daughter was disgusted, and was busy saying, "Lan'er, you should also know that although we claim to the outside world that you are still ice-clear, but outsiders don't seem to be buying it, I think, with this reputation you have now, I'm afraid it's impossible to find a door in heaven. Now this Omi, I feel good, he has a lot of potential in the future, I think, he's perfect for you, so let's just make an engagement. Pick a day to get married." After saying that, the dean seemed as if he had made up his mind, rather than coming to discuss with his daughter, he was making his own mind up.

"Father." Ting Lan chased after him.

"What else? What I've decided won't be changed, and if I hadn't been too lenient with you back then, I wouldn't have given you the chance to do such shameless things."

"Father, never, never," Ting Lan said anxiously.

"Why not, what the people in heaven say is not wrong, you have indeed broken a pair of shoes, nowadays it is rare to have a good genius, marry, I am afraid of missing Omi, there is no better one."

Ding Lan said, "Dad, do you know that Omi and my former daughter, Ding Huan, are a pair."

"I know, Omi just said it during the banquet."

"Then you still betrothed him to me."

"I have my own thoughts about that."

"Father, please, don't." Ding Lan said with a busy shake of her head.

Ding Cang Gong snorted, "Although I have declared to the world that Ding Huan is the legacy daughter of my deceased son, but, after all, he is an outsider, don't talk to me about past lives, if past lives are even counted, wouldn't all the three realms be filled with relatives everywhere?"

"Father, why do you say that, didn't you say that you've accepted Ding Huan?"

"Yes, accepted, how else could I give her so many resources to cultivate her, but no matter how much I accept it, it can't be compared to my own daughter. Omi, this genius, I'm very optimistic, I want to betroth him to my own daughter, there are good things, of course I think of my own daughter first."

"Father, what makes you think that way, what good things and bad things."

"Lan'er ah, in the history of the Immortal Academy, those who once practiced the Star Shifting Technique, nowadays, no matter which one, they are already not small figures in the sky ah. This Omi, however, is even stronger than those who once were, and his future will only be better, not worse ah. You're already a broken shoe, and it's really hard to find a better one if you miss this one."
