Chapter 2226

Omi looked up and saw that in the nine heavens above the sky, white clouds were everywhere, and next to them, suspended and floating in the air was an island like a triangular cone, the view was truly beautiful.

"Wow, it's beautiful."

"Haha, that's the Immortal World, but what you're seeing at the moment is just the tip of the iceberg." The Dean said affably.

Omi really kicked his ass, a few months ago when he was detained that mouth really wanted to beat him violently, now he? seemed to have forgotten, but he actually smiled so kindly at Omi. In the future, if there is a chance, Omi will do the same.

Soon, the dean took Omi with him and landed on a certain suspended island.

"This is our home." Dean said.

"Oh, it's so big, the whole suspended island?"

"You're overthinking it, with my current abilities, I can't own the entire Hanging Island, and someone who can own the entire Hanging Island is at least a high-ranking Immortal."

"Then what level are you at now?"

"Beginning Immortals."

"That's not bad." Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

"It's nice, so you kid picked up a bargain."

"Oh, yeah."

"Come on, we're home."

Saying that, walking to the northwest side of this hanging island, what suddenly came into view was a huge door with the four words Ding's Immortal Mansion written on the top of it.

"This is your home ah, it looks quite imposing."

"It's your home too, this hanging island, called Spring Emperor Island, there are a total of eight families, eight families, occupying the eight directions of the hanging island, our Ding Clan is in the northwest direction."

"Oh, another eight families occupying an island, these eight families, it can't be that our Ding Clan is the weakest, according to what I thought was my experience, when I'm new to a certain place, no matter if it's a family or a clan, it's usually the weakest."

Dean gave Omi a glance, "You're really right, the eight families of Spring Empire Island, our Ding Clan Immortal House, is not the strongest, and certainly not the weakest."

"Do the other families have middle-ranked Immortals?"

"That's not true, the strongest members of the eight families are all just first stage Immortals, but we all have different positions in the Immortal Court, so naturally there are higher and lower status. You don't need to know this yet, it's still too far away from you anyway."

Omi asked, "The Immortal Court is?"

"The Immortal Court doesn't even know, you're too lonely. The Immortal Court is the place that manages the three realms, and the Emperors of the Immortal Court are the strongest people who have become Immortal Emperors within the three realms today."

"Within the three realms, there's only one who became an Immortal Emperor?"

"Yes, there is only one within the management of the three realms."

"Then according to you, there are others that are not within the management of the three realms?"

"There are, but I don't know how many there are, and it's definitely not that many anyway, one hand, two at most, can count."

"Oh."

Said the man, entering the Ding's Immortal Palace.

"See Immortal Chief."

"See Immortal Chief."

Once inside the Immortal Mansion, many servant chaps paid their respects. The servant boys here were actually all Heavenly Immortals, Dao Immortals level.

If I wasn't wrong, these Heavenly Immortals and Dao Immortals, they were all recruited from the Earth Immortal Realm. They probably have their own families in the Earth Immortal Realm as well.

The dean said, "Ah Fu, go and call everyone to the lobby, have everyone prepare for the meeting, and say, Ding Lan's fiancé is here."

"Ah, Immortal Head, is he Miss Ding Lan's fiancé?"

"Right."

"Wow, that's a good-looking guy, I'll be right there to inform."

&nbsp;

; When Omi came to the lobby, the dean said, "Let's wait here, first time here, let everyone get to know you."

"Oh."

Soon, thousands of people came to the lobby, all of them looked at Omi.

Omi didn't expect the dean's family to have so many people.

However, it wasn't a lot, almost all the families in the spirit world were billions, that was a lot.

"Master, he's Omi."

"Mm."

"Dad, he's little sister's fiancé ah, hahaha, he's quite handsome." A man laughed and sized up Omi.

Omi already knew that Ding Lan was the youngest daughter of the dean.

"Wow, little sister's fiancé is so handsome." Another woman came and looked at Omi and giggled.

Soon, the number of people coming was almost over, and the dean said, "Everyone, I called my elder sister here today to introduce Ding Lan's fiancé to you all. Although some of you may have heard about it, there must be many others who don't know about it, let me introduce him, his name is Omi, he is originally a genius of Immortal Academy, not only did he become a Celestial Immortal at a young age, but he also practiced Star Shift to the second level, moreover, he is also in love with Ding Lan, that's why I decided to ignore Omi's humble origins and support him and Lan'er to get married."

"Pah-pah." Everyone immediately cheered and applauded.

But Omi scoffed at the idea of a love match, even though he was obviously forced into it.

"By the way, why didn't Lan'er come?" The Dean swept a glance around and didn't see T'Lan.

"Little sister might be embarrassed that she didn't dare come."

"Oh, no harm done. Here, who will help take Omi down and introduce him one by one so that he can quickly integrate into our Ding family."

"I'll do it." A woman busily said.

"Lilac, you then."

The woman called Lilac, busily walked up to Omi and smiled, "Little brother-in-law, let's go, I'll help you introduce them one by one."

"Thank you, sister."

"You're welcome."

A few minutes later, thousands of people, finally getting to know each of them one by one, Omi was also dizzy, so many people, hundreds of them were Ting Lan's brothers and sisters, there were sixty or seventy more, the dean's wife, the rest, the dean's grandchildren, xuan grandsons and granddaughters and so on.

Omi didn't expect that the dean had married so many wives, it seems that Omi now has less than ten women, compared to the dean is really a big deal ah, Omi thought that he has been a windfall, but as a result, compared to most people, he is considered pure love.

Of course, Omi doesn't have that strength yet, the dean definitely won't let Omi marry someone else, he can only have Ding Lan.

This was something Omi had anticipated, and it didn't matter to Omi, when his strength surpassed the dean in the future, or when Omi set up his own business, he wouldn't have to be constrained, he could marry as many as he wanted.

After thousands of people were introduced, Omi also received many meeting gifts, among them, several of Ding Lan's big brothers and sisters, the meeting gifts were all very generous, almost all of them were billions of years of various immortal crystals.

"Alright, it's fine everyone can disperse."

Only then did the crowd gradually disperse, leaving only Omi and the dean in the lobby.

The dean shouted, "Ah Fu, you take Omi down to rest."

"Okay, Xian Chang, but, where do you arrange for him to stay, guest room?"

"No need, just take him to Dinlan's secret chamber."

"Ah, is that good?" That housekeeper was a little surprised, he had directly let Omi live in Miss Ding Lan's secret chamber before he was even officially married ah.

"Hmph, it's not like it's some yellow flower girl, what's wrong with it." The dean snorted, listening to his tone, it seemed that he was still annoyed about that incident back then, and the dean must not have been very fond of Ding Lan, otherwise, he wouldn't have disposed of her to Omi so hastily.
