

King of kings

2239

One month later, all three thousand recruits came to report for duty.

Among these three thousand recruits, there were 500 Daoist Immortals and 2500 Heavenly Immortals. Celestial Immortal was the minimum standard.

Omi was a middle Heaven Immortal, the lowest level of Heavenly Recruits.

The three thousand recruits were divided into ten squads, each with fifty Dao Immortals and 250 Celestial Immortals. Omi was assigned to the eighth squad, fully known as: the eighth squad of the Twenty-Nine Corps of the Immortal Court.

At a certain training ground, all three hundred members of the eighth squad stood in a row in unison.

Although this was the Celestial Realm, there was also military training and standing postures just the same, but, in a different way.

"Stand straight." At that moment, an order was given, and everyone stood straight, standing straight here was perhaps equivalent to 'standing straight'.

Then, a strong Golden Immortal strutted in armor.

Walking in front of the three hundred recruits, he majestically swept a glance at everyone and said, "Fellow recruits, my name is Ming Cheng, I am the captain of your 29th Legion, 8th Squad, from now on, you are all my soldiers, I hope that you will listen to my command well, whoever dares to neglect his duty and disobey the command, beheaded." This beheading, the sound directly broke through the air, as if a sharp sword pierced into everyone's ears.

"Ah." The vast majority of the three hundred recruits at the scene suddenly screamed, their ears filling with blood, but there were a few who didn't, respectively the most powerful dozens of Dao Immortals.

This captain was clearly giving the new recruits a lesson, the captain swept a satisfied glance at the crowd, just then, he suddenly noticed that one Heavenly Immortal was actually not bleeding, you know, there were only a few dozen Dao Immortals on the scene who were not bleeding, the rest of them were bleeding, not to mention the Heavenly Immortal level. One second to remember to read the book

"You're not even bleeding, what do you call it?" The captain looked to Omi.

Omi said, "Back to the captain, my name is Omi."

"Omi, you're a Heavenly Immortal, why didn't you bleed just now?"

Omi said, "I don't know."

"Yoho, how dare you sell me short, let me ask you, what kind of spell are you practicing? Or, what air-tearing technique?"

"Back to the captain, the spell I'm practicing is, the Star Shifting Great Law."

"Yoho, Star Shifting Great Law, looks like a bit of a seedling, how many levels have you cultivated?"

"The second layer."

"It's only the second level, it's only just begun, but with your age and realm, it's not bad to cultivate to the second level. By the way, is there anyone else on the scene who is also practicing the Star Shift Technique?"

At that moment, a man on the scene shouted, "Back to the captain, I'm also a cultivator of the Star Shift Law?"

Omi looked at the man and said in his heart, "Isn't the Star Shift Law difficult to practice? Why are there two of the same squad practicing the Star Shift Technique?" In fact, Omi overlooked one thing, the so-called difficult, was the Academy of Immortals, in terms of the Earth Immortal Realm, in the Heavenly Realm, the offspring of those heavenly gods were naturally much more powerful.

The captain yowled, "Isn't this the young son of the Shen family? Your father, Shen Yan, I had a drink with him a few hundred thousand years ago, how is he now."

"My father is fine."

"Well, how many levels are you at in your Star Shift Technique?"

"Back to the captain, my Star Shift Great Law is now at the 6th level of cultivation."

"Good, with your pre-Dao Immortal realm, it's very rare for you to cultivate the Star Shift Great Law to the 6th level. That who just now, Omi is Bar, you can learn from others. By the way, what family are you from?"

Omi was a little surprised, that guy, he actually cultivated to the sixth level, it seems that this guy is by no means from the Earth Immortal Realm up here, because the Academy of Immortals in the Earth Immortal Realm only has three levels at most.

"Back to the captain, I come from the Ding Immortal Realm, my father-in-law is Ding Cang Dome, the president of the Academy of Immortals."

"Er, Ding Cang Dome? Are you not the door-to-door son-in-law that Ding Cang Dao found tens of thousands of years ago?"

"Exactly."

The captain smiled with seemingly deep meaning, and Omi understood that Ding Lan's reputation in the Heavenly Realm was really bad after all.

At that moment, a person shamefully laughed, "Married a cheap woman, but you actually feel like you've earned it."

Omi looked to where the voice was coming from, but it was said by the person who was refining the same Star Shifting Great Law as Omi.

"You damn well try saying it again." Omi was furious, not expecting that this person who was practicing the same Star Shift Great Law as him would actually call Ding Lan a slut in front of him.

That captain was busy saying, "Alright, we're all in the same squad of Sky Soldiers, don't get personal, Shen Pill, please watch your words."

That man called Shen Medicine, snorted at Omi, "What, want to be anxious with me? Do you deserve it? Ridiculous, before you even married Ding Lan, everyone in the entire Heaven Realm knew that this woman was not lonely and had an affair with the trash from the Immortal Academy and even had a child, becoming the laughing stock of the entire Heaven Realm."

The captain said loudly, "Shen Medicine, you need to calm down, don't think that I know your father and mess around in my team."

"Captain, I'm telling the truth, I'm not talking nonsense, are you not allowing me to tell the truth anymore?"

"You." The captain seemed to be helpless, after all, this matter was indeed known to everyone in the Heavenly Realm, that Ding Lan was fornicating with someone from the Earth Immortal Realm was really disreputable, moreover, this Shen Medicine was also the son of an acquaintance, Shen Yan.

The captain said to Omi, "Omi, you should also calm down, in a few months, everyone will be going to attack the Old Demon of Heaven together, now is not the time to start infighting."

Omi endured his anger, this Shen Medicine, who was an early Dao Immortal and had trained to the sixth level of the Star Shifting Great Law, was definitely capable of fighting, and belonged to the ranks of the War Gods, Omi looked very weak in front of him. Omi was currently at the lowest level in the Heavenly Realm, especially in the army. Although Omi was in the Earth Immortal Realm and could defeat the pre-Dao Immortal, it was someone on the other side who was not of the War God's lineage. If he encountered someone who was also a War God, Omi would not be able to defeat the other party by one large domain.

However, Omi was very unhappy with that Shen Medicine, Omi wouldn't care about any infighting, he would definitely get him killed if he had the chance.

"Alright, below, distribute the uniforms." The captain shouted.

Then, several of the captain's assistants distributed armor respectively.

"Everyone listen to my orders, immediately put on your armor in place and prepare for training immediately."

"Yes." Everyone immediately began to put on their armor.

After putting on the armor, the captain said, "From today onwards, everyone will train without stopping for a moment. Since you're a Sky Soldier, you must learn how to work together and not be brave. Now, let's sort out our team and select 10 commanders first."

One person asked, "How do we choose the commanders?"

"Of course, it depends on individual strength, whoever is the strongest will be the command captain. A total of ten command captains need to be selected, and then take your three hundred people and divide them into ten groups, with one command captain for each group."
