Inwardly, Omi said, "I must become one of the commanders, I don't want to be commanded by anyone. However, there are 300 of us in the squad, including 50 Dao Immortals and 250 Heaven Immortals, and me, I'm only a mid Heaven Immortal. Can I really obtain the position of one of the commanders?"

Omi wasn't very confident, after all, this wasn't the Earth Immortal Realm, there were hidden dragons and tigers here, mainly because Omi's strength was still low.

Omi also wanted to obtain one of the commanding officer positions, he had to become one of the top 10, with 50 Dao Immortals on site, it was a big challenge to enter the top 10.

"Alright, below, let's start the competition for the commanding officer, anyone who wants to be a commanding officer, please raise your hand."

Omi immediately raised his hand, but what Omi didn't expect was that out of the 250 celestial immortals on the scene, only Omi raised his hand, all the other celestial immortals didn't raise their hands, except for the 50 Dao Immortals, all of them raised their hands.

When everyone saw a Heaven Immortal, who actually wanted to be the commander, they cast a contemptuous look at Omi.

"Er." Even the captain was a bit surprised to see Omi raise his hand, and the captain smiled, "That, Omi, you can put your hand down now."

Omi said, "Why should I put my hand down, can't I compete for the position of commander?"

"That's not true, our team is fair, anyone can compete, it's just that fairness has to depend on reality, in our small team, 50 out of 300 people are Dao Immortals, now I only need the top ten people to be the commander, you are only a Heaven Immortal after all, you won't be able to take your turn no matter what."

Omi said, "Whether it can be my turn or not is another story, but I will never not participate in the competition."

Even if Omi really couldn't make it into the top ten out of the three hundred people present, he still had to give it a try. The first website m.kanshu8.net

At this moment, a sarcastic voice came out, "I really don't know how to be ungrateful, not even looking at how many cattles you are, you still want to compete for the position of commander."

Omi's eyes looked, and the person who said this was the one called Shen Medicine.

Omi grunted, "Shen you f*ck ing forced medicine, no one when you are dumb, I want to compete for the commandant off you bird business, you are not cool, then come over, I give you ball lick."

"What did you say." Shen Pill was furious, a Heavenly Immortal, actually dared to speak to him like this.

Omi saw his anger and laughed, "Are you deaf, or do I have to say it twice."

"Omi, how dare you curse my mother."

"Are you allowed to curse my mother and not me to curse your mother than, who do you think you are."

"Hmph, Omi, it seems that you really don't know how thick you are, you think your father-in-law, a president of the Immortal Academy, is very big, aren't you? Do you know that my grandfather is a five-ranked member of the Immortal Court."

"A five-ranked officer? Are you sure you said the right thing? Everyone, even a fifth grade dares to be called a major member, and a fifth grade isn't even a minor member, right?"

However, the scene didn't accompany Omi to laugh, after all, not everyone was willing to offend Shen Medicine, and no one was willing to insert themselves into the feud between them, these two refining star shifting methods, it seems that fire and water are incompatible."

"Cough." The captain coughed somewhat awkwardly and said, "Omi, I'm not even a fifth-grade, I'm only a sixth-grade captain ah. If even a fifth grade is nothing, then wouldn't my sixth grade be."

"Uh, Captain, I didn't say you."

"Alright, Omi, Shen Medicine, give me some face and stop arguing, we're all brothers in the same barracks, why are we so incompatible."

Shen Pill yelled, "No way, if I don't kill this son, my name will not be Shen Pill."

The captain paled and said angrily, "Shen Medicine, it seems that you really don't take me seriously as a captain, as long as you are still in my team, I will never allow you to touch any member of my team, the same is said to Omi, both of you, if you have a personal grudge, please settle it after you leave my team, if you dare to mess up in my team, I will definitely take you to the Behead them."

"Someone, immediately put Shen Medicine and Omi, in tight confinement."

Omi was startled when he heard this order, he didn't expect it to be so serious, if he was put in solitary confinement, wouldn't it be that he wouldn't even have the chance to run for commander.

Shen Yao was busy saying, "Captain, don't, I was wrong, I swear, as long as I'm still in the army for a day, I will never engage in personal grudges." It seemed that Shen Medicine didn't want to miss out on the commanding officer's election either.

Omi said, "Captain, he's the one who messed with me, but I never actively messed with him." Omi didn't say that he wouldn't engage in personal grudges in the army, Omi would never let him go inside.

Captain Ming Cheng only then said, "Since you have admitted your mistake, then I will let you off for once, alright, please ask all those running for commander to step out of line, the rest of you step back a hundred paces."

With a full voice, 51 of the ones running for office came out, and the rest of you all stepped back.

"Out of the 51 of you, any of you who make it to the top ten will become a commander, responsible for commanding and commanding 30 soldiers respectively, now, we will have the first round, the top 20 elimination rounds. There will be two rounds in total, the first round of elimination and the second round of campaigning. Do you see, one thousand meters ahead, I have had 20 flags set up, if you snatch a flag and bring it to me, you can enter the top 20, of course, I won't stand here all the time, I will move, and if you can't catch up to me, it will be in vain."

"Begin."

With a command, 51 people immediately rushed forward a thousand meters away, each running towards the twenty flags planted on the ground.

Naturally, Omi did the same.

However, Omi wasn't faster than those Dao Immortals, so by the time Omi rushed up, the twenty flags were already in the hands of the twenty fastest people.

In an instant, a group of people battled into a ball.

Omi also rushed towards one of the purple flags.

At this moment, this purple flag already had two Dao Immortals fighting over it.

One of these two Dao Immortals who were fighting for it knocked the other one away with a single palm, as one of them was a strong member of the War God's rank. Out of the 51 Dao Immortals on the scene, almost 18 of them were of the capable, War God's rank.

Omi flew up, and the Dao Immortal who had just snatched the purple flag of the War God's Rank grunted, "What? Are you going to rob me?"

"I'm always going to rob one of them, so why not you." Omi said.

"Kid, I advise you not to embarrass yourself, I'm an ordinary immortal, I'm a Dao Immortal who has entered the ranks of the Battle Gods, and you're a Heaven Immortal, huh, I really don't know how to describe you, but I admire your courage."

Omi said, "I also belong to the ones who can fight, who entered the ranks of the War Gods, and I practiced the Star Shifting Great Law, besides, I didn't just refine the Star Shifting Great Law, I also practiced the Air Tearing Technique."
