Even though Omi had upgraded his Star Shifting Great Law to Star Hidden Great Law, it was still very suspenseful to run into a stronger one.

Ting Lan blushed and said, "Husband, just count me as a loser, tonight, you can do whatever you want."

"Haha." Omi stopped Ding Lan by the waist and went into his room.

The next day, Omi reported to the military camp.

"Reporting to the captain, subordinate Omi has come to return to his unit."

"Omi, you're here, not bad, last time you took the tire pill I gave you, you actually broke through to the late Heaven Immortal stage, good, you didn't waste one of my tire pills." Captain Ming Cheng smiled.

Omi said, "Captain, that fetal pellet, was it rewarded to you by the camp?"

"Who said that, no, I was the one who declared it to my superiors, and they also thought you were qualified to receive it, so they gave it to you."

"Captain, don't lie to me, the Fetal Pill can be said to be one of the most expensive kinds of immortal pills in the Immortal Court, no one has too many, and I'm afraid it's already internalized before it's even distributed to the barracks."

"You."

"Right, with a declaration from you, you'll give it to me? This is by no means possible, there is only one possibility, this fetal pellet was fought for by your family, and you, however, gave it to me." First published at m.kanshu8.net

Ming Cheng said, "Omi, don't speculate, I'm not if I say I'm not."

"In short, Captain, I have no teeth to forget your great kindness." Omi bowed.

"Stop stop stop." Captain Mingcheng looked embarrassed for a moment.

"Omi, I can't afford to bow to you."

"No, you can afford it, if there is anything you can use me for in the future, please feel free to command. Captain, please accept my three bows."

Captain Mingcheng was busy saying, "Alright, alright, it's always alright if I tell you the truth, yes, it's true that that fetal pellet, it wasn't given to you, it was my father, who fought for my sister, Ming Yue, but, my sister felt that his performance in this war was far better than hers, she fought for you, and thought that you were the only one who was worthy to obtain it, so, she asked me to give it to you. But, my sister was afraid you would refuse, so she let me say that it was a reward for you. Now you know, alright, you can go now."

Omi was incredulous that it was given to him by Akatsuki.

"Why did Miss Akatsuki give it to me."

"I don't understand her either, in fact, I've been preventing her from giving it to you, so I can't afford the bow you just made."

"Does your father know, then?"

"Nonsense, of course I don't know, if my father knew where it would be."

"But, on your father's side, how will Miss Akatsuki explain."

"No need to explain, my sister will just say that it's ineffective to eat it. However, with my sister's talent, it's hard for my father to accept that eating it didn't work, and in a fit of anger, he put my sister in solitary confinement."

"Ah."

"You can forget about this, and you shouldn't go looking for my sister, or my sister will be even worse off if my father finds out."

"I can't forget Miss Mingyue's great kindness. I will definitely return it to her twice as much in the future." Omi said.

Ming Cheng nodded his head.

Omi asked, "By the way, Captain, how is the Fetal Pill made? How can I make a fetal pellet? After all, I also know how to refine pills, even though I'm only a seventh-grade Immortal Pill Master."

Captain Ming Cheng said, "Don't waste your energy, fetal pills are forbidden pills, except for the Immortal Emperor Clan

No one else could refine it. Firstly, no one knows the recipe for the Fetal Pill, secondly, even if they do, they can't find all the materials to refine the Fetal Pill, because one of the materials to refine the Fetal Pill is only in the hands of Immortal Emperors, and thirdly, anyone who dares to refine the Forbidden Pill is violating the rules of the heavens and will receive heavenly punishment for disposal."

"Oh." Omi said in his heart, forbidden pills again, this Immortal Court, there are so many restrictions, the really good stuff, almost all of them are restricted. No wonder so many Immortal Demons and Gods disobeyed the Immortal Court and set up their own mountains in the Earth Immortal Realm to fight against the Immortal Court.

Of course, such a thing as setting up your own mountain was still too distant for the current Omi to even think about.

"Omi, you go back and prepare your internal affairs first, now that there is no more war, all the celestial soldiers next, it is very likely that they will be sent out, this is another opportunity to make merit, you should strive to come, only the more merit you make for the Immortal Court, the more chances for promotion."

Omi said, "What does expatriate mean?"

"In non-war time, it's impossible for so many celestial soldiers to stay in the barracks every day, so there will be some excellent celestial soldiers who will be sent out to various places, perhaps the Earth Immortal Realm, or perhaps the various departments of the Celestial Realm, to do various things in those places. Of course, those who can't be sent out will have to stay in the barracks, and to be honest, those who stay in the barracks will have a very boring life, nesting in a tiny barracks and practicing boring training every day, I'm sure you don't want to have such a life."

Omi said, "If I'm not mistaken, those heavenly soldiers who have connections and backstage must have been sent out, those bitter and okay ones, end up staying in the barracks as dogs to guard it."

"You're right, it's true, but the barracks aren't so chaotic yet, although there are a lot of those who have gone through connections, there are also some really good ones that will be sent out, you don't have to worry, besides, I'm very optimistic about you. Alright, go."

Omi left the captain's tent and returned to his quarters in the barracks.

"Omi, you're back too."

"Commander Tang, it's been a good half year's vacation, hasn't it." More than a hundred survivors from the same squad greeted Omi.

"Well, it was fine."

"Commander Tang, the war is over for now, some of the Sky Soldiers in the barracks may be sent out, now that everyone is active, do you have any connections ah, if you do, help me get an outstation as well, I'm grateful." A celestial soldier said to Omi, who was previously in the same group as Omi.

"I wish I had connections."

At this moment, a man walked in at the door, the man snorted, "He's got shit to do with it, I'm sure there's one of him among the group of bitter people who ended up staying behind to guard the barracks."

This man who spoke was none other than Shen Dao.

This Shen Medicine, in this war, actually didn't die.

Omi snorted, "Shen Medicine, you actually didn't die, what a surprise, I thought, you died in the Heavenly Demon Old Demon Battlefield."

"Omi, my son Shen Medicine, at any rate, is a genius ranked among the war gods, hmph, but ah, someone did well on the battlefield, I heard that he even killed the Xuanxian Demon King, but where so what, hahahaha." Shen Medicine let out a triumphant laugh, Omi performed so well, but so what.

A Heavenly Soldier asked, "Shen Medicine, what do you mean, Omi has performed well, the captain has praised him."

Shen Yao proudly said, "What's the use of the captain's appreciation, you all don't know, after this war ended, the Immortal Court gave 100 fetal pills to reward the 100 best performing sky soldiers, Omi performed so well, may I ask, did he get the reward? I, on the other hand, have been rewarded with a fetal pellet, and I've been promoted to mid-Dao Immortal now that I've taken the pellet, hahaha, hahaha."
