"What? Fetal Pill." Everyone was shocked when they heard what Shen Pill said, as they hadn't even heard the news. They couldn't even hear about it, let alone get a reward.

Shen Pill said, "So ah, guys, what's the point of being strong, it doesn't matter if you don't have a backstage, it's just a fart."

Everyone actually nodded, and suddenly, the people who were just admiring Omi were now all falling over to Shen Yao and sticking their necks out to Shen Yao.

"Big Brother Shen Medicine, much care."

"Big Brother Shen Medicine, are you tired ah, do you want me to help you massage, I have an ancestral massage technique."

Shen Medicine: "Yes, quick, press it for me."

"Okay Le, it's my honor to be able to give Shen Yao a massage."

So, that Heavenly Soldier gave Shen Medicine a massage in front of Omi, and Shen Medicine looked at Omi proudly and said, "See, this is the difference."

At this moment, a fairy came in from outside, that fairy was gorgeously dressed, and at a glance, she was someone of great importance, and that fairy asked, "May I ask if Omi is here?"

Everyone looked towards the fairy at once.

Omi was busy saying, "I am, what is it that you want?" Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

The fairy said, "Omi, may I ask if you are free tonight?"

"Uh, what for?"

"Anyway, you've been invited to dinner at Yoshi's tonight."

"What, dinner at Yoshi's?" All of a sudden, everyone was shocked, Yoshi, what is that place? Ordinary people weren't even qualified to go to Yao Chi, such as Shen Pill's level, Yao Chi was just a legend, even Shen Pill's parents' grandfather had never eaten at Yao Chi, right?

Everyone couldn't help but look at Omi, who invited Omi to eat at the Yao Pond.

Omi said, "This fairy sister, who invited me to dine at Yao Pond?"

"Anyway, you don't need to ask, you'll know when you go, by the way, were you guys just talking about fetal pills."

"Yes, Shen Pill sarcastically mocked me, it doesn't matter, no matter how well you perform on the battlefield, you won't be able to obtain a Fetal Pill."

That fairy immediately took out one from her bosom, "This is the gift my master asked me to bring you."

"Er, what is it."

"Truth be told, it's exactly a fetal pellet, but it's not a tenth grade fetal pellet, but an eleventh grade fetal pellet. Alright, my words have been delivered, please tonight, head to the Northern Immortal Gate and I'll come out to pick you up."

"Okay, I will definitely go."

"Then I'll leave first."

After saying that, that fairy walked away.

Everyone looked at Omi, incomparably shocked, no matter who invited Omi, it was already extraordinary to be able to enter the Yao Pond for dinner, the Yao Pond, that was the place that the Imperial Mother used to entertain the various Immortal Powers.

Omi looked at Shen Pill and smiled, "See, the eleventh-grade tympanic pellet that you obtained, I'm still not impressed."

Shen Yao snorted, "Omi, don't be cocky."

Omi didn't bother to pay attention to him and directly walked away.

This eleventh grade fetal pellet was very noble and suitable for people above Xuan Xian, and if someone above Xuan Xian used it, it was very likely to break two realms in a row.

Therefore, if Omi took it, he would most likely go from late Heavenly Immortal to mid Dao Immortal.

However, Omi didn't dare to take it because, Ming Yue had been so generous in giving her a fetal pellet, and now that he had it, if he just ate it himself, wouldn't it be too selfish for others to be so generous to him while he was selfish and only cared about himself.

So, Omi endured the pain and went to Ming Yue to give her this eleventh grade fetal pellet.

Some might say it's silly, but what Ming Yue gave to her was a Grade 10, while what he gave to Ming Yue was a Grade 11. But things have to be thought of the other way around as well, people were sending Ming Yue first!

To Omi, Omi would never have given it to Ming Yue if she hadn't given it to Omi first.

Omi came to the barracks where Ming Yue was and didn't know if she was in the barracks.

"Hello, may I ask, do you know if Miss Ming Yue is in the barracks?"

"Ah, Akatsuki, she's just arrived, but she shouldn't be able to see visitors."

"Why?"

"I heard that she was beaten by her family, her buttocks are open, and she was limping when she first arrived."

Omi went straight to Ming Yue's dormitory.

Ming Yue was related, so she didn't live in a group dorm, but in a single dorm.

"Akatsuki, are you there?" Omi shouted from outside the dormitory.

At the moment, Ming Yue was lying on her bed, her ass facing upwards, and her ass was bloody.

Her father was also really cruel, perhaps, because he knew that Ming Yue had given away the fetal pills, otherwise he wouldn't have beaten her ass to blossom.

"Is that Omi?" Akatsuki was busy asking.

"Yeah, can I come in?"

"This." Ming Yue was a bit hesitant, after all, it wasn't very convenient at the moment, she had wanted to, take off her pants and put on some medicine or something, what his father had beaten wasn't an ordinary injury, but a beating using the Heavenly Lightning Whip, if she didn't deal with it, not only would it not heal that quickly, but it might leave scars on her buttocks, and it would be too ugly to leave scars on her buttocks, which were originally big and white and upturned. However, she didn't know how to deal with it on her own.

"Omi, what are you looking for me for?" Akatsuki asked.

"Miss Akatsuki, may I come in?"

"Ah, this."

"Don't worry, I'm not that kind of guy, now get ready, I'm coming in."

"Okay." Akatsuki was busy covering her ass with a blanket, Don walked in a few seconds later, Don just wasn't on the bed.

"Miss Akatsuki, are you okay?"

"I'm fine."

"But I just heard one of the girls from your barracks say that you got your ass kicked."

"Ah, where is it, no."

"Can you stand up then?"

"Omi, don't, by the way, why did you come to see me."

Omi said, "I already know that you gave me that tire pellet, I'm here today to return it to you."

"What? You haven't taken it yet."

"No, no, I've already taken the one you gave me, but by coincidence, I obtained a fetal pellet myself, and to thank you for giving me a fetal pellet last time, I'm giving it to you right now." Omi didn't say that the Fetal Pill he had given was an eleventh grade one.

"How did you obtain a fetal pellet?"

"Don't bother with this, just take it." Omi took out the fetal pellet and handed it to Ming Yue.

Omi said, "Your ass is broken, I'm sure your parents knew you gave me the fetal pellet, that's why they did this."

Ming Yue said, "Omi, I don't need it, you had a hard time obtaining one yourself, take it, I might still have a chance in the future."

"Your parents definitely won't give you another chance, quickly, take it."

At that moment, Ming Yue said in shock, "This fetal pellet of yours is an eleventh grade fetal pellet."

"Oh, yes, eleventh grade."

"You're crazy, I'm only giving you the tenth grade."

"That can't be said, the important thing is not what you gave me, but your affection for me, you gave it to me first, so no matter how many levels of fetal pills I give you now, it's not as good as your affection, Miss Mingyue, I really thank you, you're so good to me." Omi said gratefully.
