Omi asked, "Do you really, deep down, love me?"

"Yes."

"Then why did you eat with him?"

"I really don't know, it feels like everything is out of nowhere, I met him somehow, like I was driven by something underworld, like today, I didn't mean to come, but my mother ghostly asked me to come here to buy something, and ghostly ran into Gao Xiaofei."

"Alright, I get it, you go home first."

Omi wondered if this was something someone could really tamper with.

Previously in the barracks, Omi had heard the captain say that that Shen Medicine was sent out to the Heavenly Emotions Divine Palace, and this Heavenly Emotions Divine Palace managed the emotions of everyone within the Three Realms.

Originally, Omi wouldn't have thought of this aspect, because Shen Medicine was sent here, and Shen Medicine had always resented Omi, that's why Omi instantly suspected that there wasn't something wrong with the Heavenly Emotions Divine Palace.

Omi immediately went to the barracks and found the captain.

"Brother Omi, why are you here again, didn't you take half a year's leave."

"Brother, there's something I don't know." One second to remember to read the book

"Say."

"When I returned home, I found that my daughter-in-law had somehow met another man, but deep down, she was certain that it was me she loved, but yet she ghostly appeared to have all sorts of chance encounters and ran into another man. Didn't you previously say that Shen Pill was sent out to the Heavenly Emotions Shrine? I'm worried, could Shen medicine have done something to me?"

Ming Cheng said, "Impossible, except for the Immortal Emperor, no one dares to disturb the emotional direction of all things in the Three Realms, the emotions of all things in the Three Realms have evolved following the laws originally set by the Immortal Emperor. The administrators of the Heavenly Emotions Divine Palace could only correct errors when they discovered them, but they could not haphazardly modify the emotional direction of others. Otherwise, once discovered, it wouldn't just kill the head, but the entire family. Also, not just anyone can modify the direction of another person's emotions, they must be someone with certain authority."

Omi said, "You take me to the Heavenly Emotions Divine Palace, I want to see if someone has really tampered with me."

"Good."

Soon, Omi and Ming Cheng arrived at the Heavenly Emotions Divine Palace.

At this moment, somewhere in the Heavenly Emotions Divine Palace.

An obese man was in a hurry to find Shen Medicine.

"Uncle Oil, what is so urgent." Shen Yao was busy calling out, this Uncle Oil was his father's friend, and it was because of the convenience Uncle Oil gave him that he was able to modify Omi's Emotion Tree.

"Shen Pill, what's going on ah." That oil uncle hurriedly asked.

"What's going on?"

"Something went wrong, a person in my jurisdiction deviated from the karmic system and, it's been days, why haven't you corrected it, you're really killing me."

"Ah, yes." Shen Dao was shocked.

Shen Yao internally said, "Uncle Oil shouldn't have found out that I intentionally modified it, right?"

"What are you waiting for, come with me to correct it."

Just at this moment, two people came outside the door, it was Omi and Ming Cheng.

They originally couldn't come in, it just so happened that Captain Ming Cheng also had acquaintances here, so they came in.

When Shen Medicine saw Omi coming, he suddenly realized that it was bad.

That oil uncle was busy saying, "What are you guys doing?"

Captain Ming Cheng said, "Hello, this is my brother, Omi, he suspects that his heavenly direction has been maliciously tampered with."

"Malicious tampering, how could

."

"This team leader, you'd better take us to the scene."

"Truth be told, this area that I manage happens to have an error, I am about to go there to correct it, I don't know if it is your brother's error error error, you can go if you want to."

Shen Pill was shaken inside, busy saying, "Don't go."

Omi snorted, "Shen Medicine, you don't allow us to go to the scene, hmm, could it be that you really did something wrong."

"You're talking nonsense, I didn't."

"If you didn't, why don't you let me go."

Uncle Oil said, "Alright, I'm in charge here, if you want to see it, come with me."

Shen Medicine was frightened and didn't speak.

Soon, they arrived at a huge, ant hole-like structure and found the place where the mistake had been made.

There was a virtual, green like intricate blood vessels of the human body growing there, as well as a leafy tree.

There were endless things like that, too many.

Each similar tree developed according to a certain pattern.

Omi said, "Could it be that the emotions of all the creatures within the Three Realms are controlled from here?"

"Of course."

Omi was a little less than convinced that such a thing represented the emotions of an endless number of creatures.

Soon, an emotional sapling representing Omi was found.

Omi's emotional sapling was very developed and, as far as the eye could see, it could also predict that many women would cross over with Omi in the future, which meant that Omi had many beautiful women waiting for him in the future.

That oil uncle asked, "Is this you?"

Omi said, "It's me, as soon as I stood here, I was able to sense his presence, heck, it turns out that my emotions are really governed by someone."

"No, you are wrong, it is bound by the heavens and earth, anyone must exist within the rules of the heavens and earth, no living creature can overstep them. And the controller of Heaven and Earth is the Immortal Emperor."

No matter what, Omi wasn't very happy inside, it would be great if he could be free from the constraints of heaven and earth, but if so, Omi wouldn't have any constraints, he could do whatever he wanted, wouldn't this be against the heavens, I'm afraid, even the Immortal Emperor himself might not be able to do whatever he wanted.

At this time, that oil uncle said, "Something has gone wrong here."

The captain was busy asking, "How did it go wrong?"

"In this place, one of Omi's emotional threads, with one Ding Lan, broke the connection."

Omi took a look, and sure enough, the connection that brought him to Ting Lan was broken.

Omi was busy saying, "I'm afraid it's more than that, my lord, let's see if my wife Ding Lan's emotional line is connected to someone named Gao Xiaofei."

"Let me see, hey, it's true." That oil uncle's face changed, if Omi's broke off, it could be an accident, but Ding Lan was connected to a person with no connection, this was by no means a mistake, this was someone's malicious intent ah.

At this moment, Shen Pill's face turned livid, Shen Pill only knew afterwards that randomly modifying someone else's emotional line was to kill the entire family's head.

Captain Ming Cheng said, "My lord, this is definitely someone's malicious intent."

"This." That lord was also thinking about something.

Omi pointed at Shen Pill: "You did it, and sure enough, my intuition was right."

However, Shen Yao didn't admit it at all: "You're talking nonsense, I didn't, Uncle Oil, I really didn't, he's talking nonsense."
