Just at this moment, Ming Cheng rushed in outside the door.

Ming Cheng was impulsive, busy saying, "Grandpa, why are you doing this to my brother, you yourself told me to invite him, but now that you are here, you are saying that he is just a small person, what do you mean."

Ming Cheng's grandfather immediately shouted, "Ming Cheng, hurry up and get out of here, I'll be the only one who disturbs the Si Palace Master."

At this time, Omi also came, busy advising, "Big brother, don't be like this, it's not worth having a conflict with your grandfather because of me."

"I'm not having a conflict with him, I just want to seek justice, otherwise this is too unfair to you."

"Big brother, it's really okay, I came to your house as a guest, not because of your grandfather, but for the sake of you and Ming Yue ah."

That Law Enforcement Divine Palace Master smiled and said, "Ming Li ah, I'm sure this, is another noble guest in your family, it really is expensive, expensive purple ah."

Ming Cheng's grandfather was busy saying, "Palace Master Si, I hope you won't be angry, I'll let them go."

Ming Cheng's grandfather turned to look at Omi and Ming Cheng and said loudly, "You still don't get out of here."

Omi looked at Ming Cheng's grandfather and coldly snorted, "Senior, I'm leaving, but I've learned your hospitality."

"Hmph, don't you even look at who this one in front of me is, is he someone you can compare with, listen carefully, he is the Palace Master of the Law Enforcement Divine Palace, a first class member of the Immortal Court." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

Omi said, "I don't care what the first or second grade is, it's none of my business, brother, I'm leaving first." Omi said, turned around and left.

At that moment, that Si Palace Master laughed, "I wonder where you come from, and you're looking down on me as a first-grade member." This Division Palace Master, who was not in the Nine Heavens Divine Hall during the last Heavenly Demon War, all had not seen Omi.

Omi said, "Senior is just a nameless pawn."

"Since you're a nobody, just be a good nobody, understand?" Palace Master Si said.

Omi didn't bother to pay attention and turned around to walk out.

However, Ming Cheng's grandfather said, "Omi, don't you dare be rude to Palace Master Si, or else don't blame me for being rude." After saying that, Ming Cheng's grandfather looked towards Palace Master Si and said, "Palace Master Si, this brat is rude to you, I hope you will not be angry, if needed, I will help you teach him a lesson."

However, that Si Palace Master was busy asking, "What did you just call him?"

"Erm? You mean Omi? Don't you recognize it? The one that many people saw in the battlefield situation on the Nine Heavens Temple during the last Heavenly Demon War."

"Ah." Palace Master Si's body trembled, wasn't this the Omi that Princess Nianzhi had asked him to find?

"This!" Palace Master Si was suddenly a little afraid, although Omi was still just a small man, but Princess Nianzhi seemed to be very protective of him, this time she sent him here to assist Omi, moreover, Princess Nianzhi also said that Omi could do whatever she wanted, it was evident that Princess Nianzhi valued Omi, how could Palace Master Si dare to offend this kind of person.

As Omi was about to walk out of the door, Palace Master Si shouted in panic, "Wait."

Omi said, "What? Does Palace Master Si still want to punish me for disrespecting you?"

Palace Master Si looked panicked and said, "You are Omi? That one, the one Princess Nenshu asked me to find?"

Omi looked at Palace Master Si in confusion and asked, "Who are you?"

br /> "Hello hello, my name is Simi Si, Princess Nianzhi sent me here, to assist you with a matter, it just so happened that I passed by here, so I came to Ming's house to have a few drinks, what's more, I didn't expect that I would run into you here, I'm really sorry, Omi, don't take it to heart ah." Palace Master Si said with a chilling face.

But Omi snorted, "What just happened, I'll tell Princess Nianxie in detail, Princess Nianxie asked you to come and assist me, but you're good, you're drinking here by mistake, and you even spoke out to humiliate me, I only hope now, you spoke out to humiliate me, Princess Nianxie won't have the idea that humiliating me is humiliating her."

"Ah." Palace Master Si was shocked.

Omi turned around and walked out.

"Brother Tang, don't go." Palace Master Si panicked and chased after him.

At this moment, however, Ming Cheng's grandfather was blinded.

He defended Palace Master Si at the risk of offending Omi because Palace Master Si's status was far higher than Omi, a future princess guard, but now, he saw that Palace Master Si was so scared that he almost knelt down in the face of Omi.

Palace Master Si stopped Omi and busily said, "Brother Tang, I really didn't mean it, please do me a favor and don't say it in front of Princess Niansei, okay, I've gotten to this point, it's really not easy ah, if I really let Princess Niansei displease me, I might be demoted ah, I'm begging you."

Omi was ready to let it go when he saw how sincere he was in admitting his mistake.

"Alright, in that case, forget it, the princess will send you to assist me, I'm sure you're one of Princess Nian Tide's people."

The Fourth Princess nodded his head in a cold sweat, but inside he said, "It's only good if you are, but unfortunately, I can't get into Princess Nian Tide's circle of influence."

Palace Master Si was not one of Princess Nian Tides' people, it would be a great honor to become a subordinate of Princess Nian Tides, just how worthy was he to follow Princess Nian Tides, the reason why he was able to work for Princess Nian Tides this time was because a niece of his, who happened to be a servant in Princess Nian Tides' room, had recommended him just that. Master Si Palace was also hoping that through this, he would be able to enter Princess Nian Tides' circle of influence in the future. If Omi went to say something to Princess Niansei, then not to mention becoming Princess Niansei's person, I'm afraid it would make the princess displeased with him, wouldn't that be the end of the game.

Fortunately, Omi wasn't the narrow-minded type and forgave him, and Palace Master Si wiped the cold sweat from his forehead incessantly.

At this moment, Omi also felt that Princess Nianxie was really extraordinary, a Xiantian first class officer didn't even have much weight in front of her. At this moment, Omi felt that there was indeed a big, big difference between him and Princess Nianxie, and he was simply not worthy of her.

At this moment, Ming Cheng's grandfather woke up from his daze and was busy trembling as he asked, "Palace Master Si, what, what happened here?"

Palace Master Si snorted at Ming Cheng, "You son of a bitch, you almost got me killed, luckily Brother Tang is sensible and didn't follow me."

"Ah, this."

"What this this, I came here this time to assist Omi in his business, Omi's Nian Shi Princess's people, you even dare to offend, I see that you, a third grade minor official, don't want to be a minor official either."

"Ah." Ming Cheng's grandfather's body trembled violently.

Omi didn't even look back and flew away directly.

Seeing this, Palace Master Si had no time to take care of Ming Cheng's grandfather and immediately chased after him, shouting, "Brother Tang, wait for me, let's discuss what you need to do."

As for Ming Cheng's grandfather, he sat on the ground with his buttocks, his face incomparably pale.
