"Oh, what is it?"

"Omi, can you, can you forgive my grandfather?" Akatsuki pleaded.

"Ah, for this matter."

"Yeah, my grandfather specifically sent my brother to call me back."

"Honestly, I didn't take it to heart at all, what do you mean by forgiveness."

"That means, you and my family, are still friends?"

"I'm friends with you, and your brother."

"What about with my family?"

"Why does it have to be with your house?"

"Omi, my grandfather wants to invite you to my house as a guest."

"Damn, still a guest, your grandfather thinks that he hasn't humiliated me enough today, right.""

"It's not that, my grandfather really wants to apologize to you."

"Alright, there's no need, I'm not a big person, there's no need to please me, even if I do, I won't get anything in return. Let's leave it at that, Ming Yue, I'm going to go to the Three-Eyed War God, I'm going to take the assessment and enter the Sky Wolf Battle Team."

"Omi, you're amazing."

"Oh, I'm just going through the motions, I'm leaving."

"Mm." Ming Yue looked a little lost, leaving after such a hasty meeting.

After taking a few steps, Omi suddenly turned back and said, "Ming Yue, if you request me, I'm willing to go back to the Three-Eyed War God tomorrow."

"Why should I request you, are you willing to accompany me today?"

"Haha, anything can happen if you want it to, oh."

"Uh-huh, so you stay with me and go back tomorrow."

“Okay.”

Omi decidedly didn't leave again and went with Ming Yue, and they played late.

At night, they stood on the street of an overhanging island.

“Are we going back to the barracks tonight?” Akatsuki asked.

Omi smiled, “It's a bit too late to go back to the barracks, and we're running a bit far for the day.”

“So what do you mean?”

“There's a fairy inn up ahead, why don't you go to the inn and deal with it?”

“Are we together?”

“If there's only one room left, then how about we stay together, and if there's more than one room, then we'll stay separately, depending on God's will?” Don Omi suggested.

“Well, it's heavenly to see.”

Omi and Ming Yue walked to the inn not far ahead.

“Hello, boss, help me open two upper rooms.” Omi said, at the moment, both Omi and Ming Yue were a bit nervous, wondering if there were two rooms.

Just as their hearts beat faster, that boss said, “Okay Le, two upper rooms.”

Suddenly, Omi felt a pity inside, it seemed that it was God's will.

Likewise, Ming Yue heard that there were two rooms, and for some reason, she felt a little lost inside, perhaps, she was more looking forward to only one room inside.

However, at that moment, things took a turn for the worse.

That boss said, “Oh my, coincidentally, there are no more two upper rooms, only one room left, I was expecting two more, just now someone has already registered.”

“Ah, yeah, great.” Omi was overjoyed.

Akatsuki also visibly blushed as a flash of joy appeared on his face, but immediately covered it up again and blushed.

That boss was depressed that there weren't two rooms, but it was actually too good.

“Boss, one room then, thanks.”

Omi received the Immortal Stone Room Card and said to Ming Yue, “Let's go, there's only one room left, it seems, it's the will of the gods.”

“Mm.” Ming Yue nodded shyly and followed Omi upstairs with her head down.

That boss watched them.

The figure of the man, a burst of inner envy: "A stunning beauty, if I were that man, I'd really die of pleasure."

Using the room card, he entered that upper room.

The room here was no ordinary room, once you entered the room, it was like coming to another world.

Ming Yue blushed, "What are we doing tonight?"

"What do you think?"

"I'm asking you."

"Oh, if it's God's will, do you think it's fair to God not to do something about it?"

"Oh."

"What does oh mean, that you're looking forward to doing something, too?"

"But, in case my family finds out, I'm one of the top ten genius beauties in the Immortal Realm."

"I, on the other hand, am the number one genius handsome man in the Heavenly Realm."

"How narcissistic."

"There's an open-air bath there in front, how about we get naked and go swimming?"

"Ah." Akatsuki blushed up to his ears.

"Then I'll go down first."

Presently, Omi entered the bathing pool naked, while Ming Yue blushed and stood on the shore, not daring to do anything.

"Akatsuki, come down, no one can see you anyway."

"But."

"Don't but, come down, since God has arranged for us to share a room, this means that anything can happen."

Ming Yue jumped down with her clothes on, and Omi swam up, after which Omi was very aggressive, Ming Yue wanted to resist and return, and finally, with a half-hearted effort, something happened with Omi that shouldn't have happened.

Two hours later, Omi and Mingyue were holding each other in the bathing pool.

"Omi, I think I'm finished, I never dreamed that I would end my career as a young girl tonight. What to do."

"Haha, what can I do, look at it, if it doesn't work, I'll marry."

"But, you already have Ding Lan, and that Ding Huan or something."

Omi didn't tell her, I have more than two women than them, it's better not to say anything now.

"Mingyue, I'm not to blame, it's God's will."

"I'm not blaming you."

"Then do you regret it?"

"Of course not, in fact, you know, I've liked you for a long time."

"Then there's nothing to be bothered about, we'll hang out sometime."

"Nasty." Ming Yue's pretty face blushed.

Early the next morning, Omi and Ming Yue left the inn, Ming Yue returned to the Heavenly Division Divine Palace while Omi headed to the Three Eyed War God's residence.

As for Omi and Ming Yue's relationship, it could only remain underground for now, and the rest would be discussed later.

Omi soon arrived at the residence of the Three-Eyed War God, the Three-Eyed War God lived on a small isolated island not far from the Immortal Court, this small hanging island was very beautiful, the entire island was owned by the Three-Eyed War God alone, only someone of his level would be worthy to live in such a good location, and a separate island, of course, all the islands here were immortal islands suspended in the sky, non-sea islands, there was a world of difference between the two.

"Senior War God, I've come." Omi saw the Three-Eyed War God.

"Omi, what took you so many days to come, have you finished your business."

"Back to the God of War, it's done."

"Good, then, I'll ask you once more now, are you really going to be tested to enter the Sky Wolf Battle Team? If it's not too late for you to regret it now, I can just arrange for you to enter without having to be assessed."

"Why should I regret, I'm just going to enter the Sky Wolf Battle Team on my own, I won't let anyone look down on me."

"Omi, I can tell you that originally you are the one who hasn't met the requirements to enter the Sky Wolf Battle Team, so if you conduct the assessment now, I doubt you will die because you can't reach your own ability yet, thus you will die in the assessment, have you really thought about it carefully?"
