"Indeed, I am not even qualified to talk to you today, but I believe that the future you are not even worthy enough to give me a shoe."

"You." Leng Tian Ling was furious that Omi dared to say such words.

Omi's eyes looked fearlessly at Leng Tianling.

Omi was also taking a risk by saying this, since Leng Tianling released Omi on the face of the princess, it should not be difficult for Omi anymore, but it was not certain, so it was a risk.

Leng Tian Ling said, "Omi, do you know that even an Immortal Emperor wouldn't dare to say that I'm not even worthy to give him shoes."

"Oh, I'm staying to make a deal with you, not to hold a grudge against you, if you want the Immortal Spitting Method, I can give it to you."

"Hmph, this time, for the sake of Princess Nianzhi's face, I won't bother with you, but please remember, don't anger me again. Alright, you can say whatever you want to say to me."

Omi swore inwardly, his fate was not determined by the heavens, one day, he would change his fate against the heavens and make this Leng Tian Ling, who was not even worthy to mention his shoes.

"It's like this, you all just want the Immortal Spitting Method, I can give it to you, but you have to release Li Jiudao and let him back to freedom."

"If you release Li Jiu Dao, what if he spreads the Immortal Machine Spitting Method around in order to get back at us? If the whole world knows about the Immortal Machine Tumeric Method, what advantage do I have to come?"

Omi said, "Truth be told, the people who know about the Immortal Machine Tumeric Method are not only me and Li Jiudao, but also some of my relatives." One second to remember to read the book

"What? You're spreading it around."

"What do you mean by spreading it indiscriminately, what's so strange about me passing it on to my loved ones."

"Say, how many people know about this magic door now."

"More than a dozen, but don't worry, other than the Nine Dao Demon King, they are all my relatives, as long as you promise to release Li Jiu Dao, I will give you the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, and I also promise that I will never spread it indiscriminately to my relatives again."

"Son of a bitch, a good Dharma Gate, you ruined the uniqueness." Leng Tian Ling was very angry.

"If Senior doesn't promise me, I'm afraid that this Dharma Gate will spread even more to the entire world. If Senior doesn't trust Li Jiudao, you can let Li Jiudao enter your family, I think that if Li Jiudao uses the Immortal Machine Spitting Method as a bride-price, he should be fully qualified to enter your family, and your family, just marry any woman worthy of him. From then on, we're all family, so naturally we won't speak of two families. In the future, bracing for death will only be my family, and your family, the two families know the Immortal Machine Turing Method only, why not."

Leng Tian Ling closed his eyes and became silent.

Perhaps he was thinking about this awesome relationship to see if there was any other better way.

However, after thinking for a long time, Leng Tian Ling couldn't think of a better way, only this method was the best, otherwise the stalemate continued, Li Jiudao until death, and Omi couldn't be killed, in the future, this method became mastered by Omi's family, even Omi in case of chaotic transmission, it would be too bad.

Leng Tian Ling opened his eyes and said, "Good, I agree with what you said."

"Senior might as well repeat what you agreed to."

"Letting Li Jiudao join my family, however, Li Jiudao may not be willing, he should not trust my Leng Family anymore."

"As long as your Leng Family is sincere in treating him, I believe he will truly see himself as a member of the Leng Family. Li Jiudao has suffered great losses from having you imprison him for so many years, and his realm has completely stagnated, I think you should compensate him for something."

Leng Tian Ling was pondering again, and also compensating him, was it worth it for an Immortal Machine Tumeric Law?

&n

bsp; Omi said: "Li Jiudao is at least a genius, this Immortal Machine Spitting Method, he created it himself, think about it yourself, is it worth it."

Leng Tian Ling was shocked: "You mean to say that this Immortal Machine Spitting Method was created by him?"

"Yeah, don't you know?"

"Oh my god." Leng Tianling was shocked.

However, this was what Omi had lied to him about, the Immortal Machine Spitting Method was not created by the Nine Dao Demon King himself.

Leng Tianling immediately said, "Fine, I'm willing to take out a Grade 2 Fetal Pill to compensate Li Jiudao, and at the same time, I'll marry one of my daughters to him, what do you think of my sincerity?"

Omi smiled, "It's okay, but I don't know if you're sincere."

"I've even taken out the Level 2 Fetal Pill, what do you think."

"Well then, you let him out now, I need to do some good thinking with him."

“Okay.”

Leng Tian Ling immediately ordered people to go and release Li Jiudao and bring him to the main hall.

Omi said to Leng Tianling, “Can I bring him back to my house first? Don’t worry, after three days, I’ll send him here myself, where he may not listen to what I have to say, after all, he hates it here too much right now.”

“Yes.” Leng Tian Ling said without hesitation.

One could tell that Leng Tianling was a man who loved talent, and when he learned that Li Jiudao had created the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, his entire attitude changed.

Omi walked away with Li Jiudao.

After Omi left, Leng Tianling’s third son, Leng Sanlong, was busy saying: “Dad, you’re crazy, you let him go.”

Leng Tianling snorted: “Sanlong, why didn’t you say so earlier.”

“I just wanted to give you a surprise.”

“That’s not what I’m talking about.”

“Then what is it?”

“The Immortal Machine Tumeric Method was created by Li Jiudao, why didn’t you say so earlier, do you know that Li Jiudao was able to create this kind of method on his own, it shows his talent, and you did something like killing a chicken to get an egg.”

“Ah, I didn’t know, I didn’t ask if the Immortal Machine Spitting Method was created by him ah, I thought, he got it from somewhere, I thought, he doesn’t deserve to have this kind of method, on.”

“Bastard.”

“Dad, I really don’t know, I wouldn’t have been so stupid if I knew, I would have just recruited him into our family.”

“Get out, now we can only hope that Omi can persuade him.”

Omi left the Leng family with Li Jiudao.

Li Jiu Dao was still blinded.

“Omi, what’s going on? Why did you let me go all of a sudden? No reason, huh?” The Nine Dao Demon King said.

Omi said, “Senior Demon King, let’s go to my house first.”

“Oh.”

After arriving at Omi’s house, Omi set up a restriction to prevent others from eavesdropping.

However, Omi's Immortal Sense wasn't that strong and couldn't ensure that that Leng Tianling would still eavesdrop.

Li Jiu Dao said, "Don't worry, I've already made sure that there's no eavesdropping, with my Immortal Sense, I'll be able to perceive even if the Immortal wants to eavesdrop."

"Senior Demon King, your Immortal Sense is really powerful, I really wasn't mistaken, you possess a surpassing talent."

"What superiority, it's just that your Immortal Knowledge is a bit stronger."
