"Omi, you'd better cherish me, there aren't many divine weapons in the world, not to mention the top ten ranked ones like me, if others know you have the Overturning Mirror, I'm afraid they'll come and steal it in minutes. Of course, if you don't have any goals for your future and just want to live an ordinary life, then forget about it. If you want to have a power of your own, you less I absolutely can't do it. For example, that Ten Thousand Violet Witch Beast, if he doesn't have the King of the Dragon's Heart Weapon, do you think he'll be able to occupy the mountain and become king?"

Omi asked, "How many divine soldiers are there within the Three Realms?"

"Not many, not more than a hundred, and of those hundred, at least half of them, if not more, are in the hands of Immortal Emperors. Within the three realms, anyone who can possess a single divine weapon is now incomparably powerful and cutthroat. By the way, even if the Immortal Emperor is in charge of the Three Realms, he can't know about the existence of the divine Soldier, and it's out of his range of perception."

"How did the divine Soldier come to be?"

"It existed when the heavens and earth first began, or, when the universe was first established, as to how exactly it existed, I don't know."

Omi asked, "What is the number one ranked divine weapon?"

"The number one ranked divine weapon, which is not very offensive, is called the Heart of Hongmeng. Now, it's in the hands of the Immortal Emperor, and the Immortal Emperor is in control of the three worlds precisely because he obtained this Hong Meng Heart. When the heavens and the earth first opened, the entire world, there were only ten humans, and the Immortal Emperor was the most foolishly gifted of the ten, and the other nine, they were all more powerful, so they stole the ten divine weapons with the strongest offensive power. And the Immortal Emperor only stole the least powerful divine weapon, the Heart of the Hong Meng, and as a result, it was him who was the one who could rule the three realms."

"Er." Omi said in his heart, how fu*king long ago was this.

Omi seemed to understand and asked, "Your previous master was one of the ten humans at the beginning of the world, right?"

"Right."

"What happened after that? Your master will die? Was it killed by the Immortal Emperor?" First web site m . kanshu8.net

"No, the Immortal Emperor doesn't have that ability to kill the other nine, the Immortal Emperor is only in control of the three realms, and in my former master's eyes, the Immortal Emperor is just a stupid and dumb person."

"Then, what about the rest of them in the first place? The others must not have put the Immortal Emperor in their eyes either."

“Of course, after all, the heavens and the earth began, they were the first ten people, and the Immortal Emperor was but the dumbest of the lot, and although he got the strongest of the Hong Meng hearts, he still couldn’t be a match for just one other person.”

“I would be interested to know about your former master.”

“Unfortunately, I’m going to slumber.”

“What, slumber? Didn’t you revive?”

“Yes, but you don’t have enough Hong Meng Qi, Omi, next time, wait until you gather up a hundred drops of Hong Meng Qi and awaken me, by then, I will probably be completely recovered. Don’t give it to me if you haven’t gathered a hundred drops yet, you know the consequences if the Immortal Emperor and others find out. Goodbye.”

In the next second, the Overturning Mirror became just as ordinary again.

“Ugh.” Omi sighed and put the Flip Mirror away.

Omi smiled, “This is good, at least let Omi know that this is the Overturning Mirror, one of the strongest divine weapons in the world, ranked in the top ten.

If Omi is able to control the Overturning Mirror in the future, he might even be able to compete with the Immortal Emperor, after all, the previous owner of this Overturning Mirror was one of the first ten humans to appear at the beginning of the world, and it was just the same time as the Immortal Emperor who is now high above the world.

The previous owner of the Turning Heaven Mirror was clearly, an unknown number of times stronger than the Ten Thousand Violet Sage, and the divine weapon that the Ten Thousand Violet Sage stole from the Dragon Clan was only ranked in the top twenty.

At this moment, Omi was suddenly full of confidence in the future again.

This world was already settled, and those who could achieve greatness were not the first group of human beings to appear at the beginning of the universe, even the Ten Thousand Violet Great Saint was a demon beast conceived at the beginning of the world, and those who came later, no matter how talented they were, they could not compete anymore.

Therefore, even if Omi was a genius, it would be difficult to pry those ancient powers apart.

But now, he possessed a divine weapon that had appeared at the beginning of the world, that was different.

This divine weapon couldn’t be sensed even by the Immortal Emperor, otherwise, Omi would have already been gotten rid of by the Immortal Emperor after keeping it on his body for so long.

“Knock knock.”

“Brother Chen, are you alright.”

Cheng Yu’s voice came from the doorway.

"I'm fine."

Omi walked out of the secret room, and Cheng Yu was outside.

"Cheng Yu, what are you looking for me for?"

"Brother Minister, I heard that you've condensed the Hong Meng Beast Core into Hong Meng Qi, can you let me see it ah."

"Er, eat it." Omi said.

"Ah, eaten it, no way, you didn't take it to exchange for the Fetal Pill."

"Oh, it accidentally dripped into my mouth and then I spent it."

"Ew."

Omi didn't care if she believed in it or not, he didn't want to be more long-winded.

"Cheng Yu, tell the guys that I'm leaving first, I'll see you next month."

"Where are you going?"

"Make a trip home, I haven't been home in tens of thousands of years."

"Hmph, going back to see that beautiful wife of yours again." Cheng Yu pursed her lips, as if she was a little jealous, she really wished that Omi could talk to her alone and develop a relationship or something.

Omi needed to calm down a bit, so he went home first.

"Husband, you're back."

"Well, I'm back."

"Husband, what you entrusted me to do last time, it's done." Ding Lan said.

The so-called last time was thirty thousand years ago, when Omi came home and asked Ding Lan to find out who the strongest person in the Immortal Realm using a sword was.

"Say."

"It's an immortal named Tai Bai, this person is known as the number one sword god in the Immortal Realm, and his strength is not much weaker than the Three-Eyed War God. Husband, why do you want me to inquire about this person?"

"It's nothing, thirty thousand years ago, I was pretty confused back then, I wanted to see how strong someone who used a sword like me was, to see if he would accept a disciple or something like that, with my attainments in subtraction now, I would have thought that I would be able to be a disciple, that way I could learn more."

"Oh, and what if people don't take apprentices?"

Omi said, "This was an idea 30,000 years ago, and now, huh, I'm not worried about the future anymore."

Omi now knew that he had the Overturning Mirror, and the idea was different from thirty thousand years ago.

However, the Overturning Mirror hadn't recovered after all, so it was necessary for Omi's sword to remain strong.

"Let's say, I'll try to see if he can take me as his disciple, I also want to see how strong the first sword god of the Immortal Realm is."

"Mmhmm, I'll go with you some other day."

Omi nodded his head.
