Omi chopped open the head of each demon beast to check for any Hongsun Beast Cores, and this time, only one was found.

After that, they returned to the camp.

As they returned to the camp, they just happened to see a group of more than sixty people, advancing towards the forest.

"It's group three." Cheng Yu said.

When Omi looked at the group, the leader was a woman who had a cold, but beautiful face.

That's right, which woman was Leng Tian Ling's granddaughter, Leng Lone Moon.

Their group, when they met up with the three groups, Omi smiled and said, "You guys are also going to complete the mission ah."

"None of your business." Leng Lonesome Moon snorted.

Leng Lonesome Moon was the leader of the three groups.

However, when Leng Lone Moon passed by the Nine Dao Demon King, he called out honestly, "Uncle."

The Nine Dao Demon King had married Leng Guolue's aunt, so he called him uncle. The first website m.kanshu8.net

"Hmm." The Nine Dao Demon King nodded.

Back at the camp, Omi and the others all went into their respective retreats.

It wasn't every month that they would go out.

Time passed slowly, and in the blink of an eye, several hundred years passed.

One day after several hundred years, Omi and the others suddenly received a notice: "Everyone, please gather at the camp square."

At this moment, in the camp square, the Three-Eyed War God stood in the air.

Everyone from the Skywolf Battle Team was arriving one after another.

"See the captain." All members of the team paid their respects.

Although the Three-Eyed War God was the captain of the Skywolf Battle Team, he rarely and rarely came in, let alone this kind of assembly.

The Three-Eyed War God swept a glance at everyone and said, "Everyone, it's been a long time, and the last time we assembled was tens of millions of years ago. There are many raw faces among you, and many old faces as well. Perhaps some of the old faces already know what I'm here for."

"That's right, it's time for the Celestial Wolf War God Competition, once every thirty million years."

"Perhaps some of the newcomers don't know what the Skywolf Warrior Tournament is. Here, let me explain a bit more. The Sky Wolf Battle God Competition, which was personally approved by the Immortal Emperor, once every thirty million years, the top three from each realm level are selected each time. The first place winner will be rewarded with 2 Grade 2 Tire Pills; the second place winner will be rewarded with 1 Grade 2 Tire Pill; and the third place winner will be rewarded with 1 Grade 1 Tire Pill."

"Wow." Omi and the other newcomers were taken aback.

First place was rewarded with two Grade 2 Tire Pills ah, if Omi could win first place, wouldn't that mean he could get two Grade 2 Tire Pills? If you take it and both work, wouldn't you be able to step into the middle stage of Tai Xian in no time?

Omi swallowed viciously.

The entire Sky Wolf Battle Team, a stir.

The Three-Eyed War God said, "I came here today to inform you of this matter. The Heavenly Wolf Battle God Competition, there's still a year to go, time is very tight, I expect you all to seize the last year, after all, two second grade birth pills, don't say you guys, I'm also a glutton for punishment, hahaha."

There was a sound of gulping.

The Three-Eyed War God finally said, "Alright, dismissed, everyone go and prepare well, for the next year, you don't have to complete every monthly mission, free to prepare."

After saying that, the Three-Eyed War God left.

Everyone went back to their preparations.

The Nine Dao Demon King said, "Omi, this reward is really to die for."

"Oh, everyone wants to be first place."

"Second place isn't bad either."

Cheng Yu said, "Immortal Emperor is too generous, every realm rewards the top three, our Heavenly Wolf Battle Team, covering members from Xuan Immortal to Golden Immortal, how much is this total reward?"

"This is nothing, the last Heavenly Demon War directly rewarded a hundred first grade fetal pills out."

"It's usually hard to see a single fetal pellet at all, I wonder how much the Immortal Emperor has in stock."

Omi said, "Alright, let's stop discussing, let's think about how to become the top three in a year's time. Although we're siblings in the same group, we're just as much rivals as each other."

Everyone nodded their heads and went off to cultivate.

Omi, on the other hand, left the World of Wolves.

Omi had to look for stronger inspiration, and anyway, he didn't have to hunt demon beasts for the next year, Omi had more time to think about how to take his Heavenly Yuan Great Sorrow Sword and diffuse it to become stronger, so as to defeat the Sky Wolf Team, so the Pre-Xuan Immortal became the number one in the Pre-Xuan Immortal.

When Omi walked out of the Sky Wolf World, Omi realized that every power in the entire Immortal World already knew about the time of the Sky Wolf Warrior Competition.

After all, every power wanted their children and disciples to be rewarded.

After Omi returned to the Ding family, Ding Cangding was the first to come to Omi.

"Omi."

"Father, what is it."

"The Sky Wolf Battle God Competition is going to start in a year, right?"

"Yes."

"Great, you must get into the top three ah, if you can, you'd better get the first place in the pre-Xuanxian period, hehe, two second grade birth pills ah."

"Dad, everyone wants to get it, but they don't have much confidence, after all, many of the strongest members of the Wolf Team, especially the pre-Xuan Immortal members, have the largest proportion of numbers."

"Then work hard, what do you need me to do for you?"

"No need."

"More than that, were you trying to find one before, the fastest sword trick in the world?" Ding Cang Dao asked.

"Uh, yeah, but I can't find it."

"Hehe, I know."

"Ah, what is it?"

"It's the Shadowless Divine Sword, but the sword has been lost, and I'm afraid even the Immortal Emperor doesn't know where it is."

"Ah, why? The Immortal Emperor is the controller of the three realms, it's impossible that he doesn't know, he knows where there are many stones within the three realms."

Ding CangDong said, "You don't know, the Shadowless Divine Sword is a naturally formed sword technique that I heard was created by a giant ape at the beginning of the heavens and earth. At that time, Immortal Emperors weren't yet Immortal Emperors, so they couldn't control what was there."

"Oh, so." Omi understood that it was actually just like the divine weapon, something that belonged to the beginning of the world.

"Since you can't even find it, what's the point of telling me."

Ding CangDong smiled, "If you want to know, I'll tell you, but telling you doesn't mean I know where it is ah, if I knew where it was, I probably wouldn't be the person I am now long ago."

"Oh, anyway, thank you."

"Well, go for it, I've got faith in you."

"Oh." Omi smiled bitterly, if he could find the Shadowless Divine Sword, he might be able to easily become first place.

If he could really find the Shadowless Divine Sword, then Omi's self-created Heavenly Yuan Great Sorrow Sword could be practiced without having to practice it, as it was not even a ten-thousandth as good as the Shadowless Divine Sword, after all, that Shadowless Divine Sword was a product of the beginning of the world, similar to a divine weapon, but however, a divine weapon was a weapon and the Shadowless Divine Sword was a book.
