Omi thought of a person who, perhaps, knew where that secret of the Shadowless Sword was.

That person was the Flip Sky Mirror.

After Ding CangDong left, Omi immediately took out the Flip Sky Mirror.

At the same time, Omi took out the drop of Hong Meng Qi that he had just harvested.

"Do I need to give this drop of Hong Meng Qi to the Flip Sky Mirror so that he can awaken? It's been another hundred thousand years since the last time the Overturning Mirror awakened. I've managed to accumulate another drop of Hongmeng Qi ah. However, the reason I am accumulating Hong Meng Qi was originally to repair the Flip Sky Mirror ah."

"It's just that the Overturning Mirror clearly said that I should accumulate a hundred drops before repairing him, and I only have one drop now, so I can only let him revive for a while."

Omi was very hesitant, it wasn't that he was indecisive, but the Overturning Mirror had warned him.

Besides, what if the Overturning Mirror didn't know the whereabouts of that Shadowless Divine Sword?

"No matter what, fight it out, whether it's for the Shadowless Divine Sword or for those two Grade 2 Tire Pills, I must give it a try."

Thus, Omi resolutely used that drop of Hongshen Qi to wake up the Overturning Mirror.

"Hey, why am I awake again, Omi, did you wake me up?" Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Senior Overturning Mirror, it's me, I've just gotten another drop of Hong Meng Qi."

"Didn't I tell you, don't fix me without accumulating a hundred drops, in case the Immortal Emperor finds out, you're miserable, I'm fine, at best I've had a new master."

"I know, but don't worry, the Immortal Emperor shouldn't know."

"That's hard to say, that Immortal Emperor kid, while a bit dumb, isn't that much fun for you guys."

"Since that's the case, I'll cut the crap, I want to ask you something."

"Hurry up and say it."

"You know, the Shadowless Divine Sword?" Omi asked.

"Che, I thought it was something important, but it turned out to be a lousy sword trick that an ape had haphazardly compared."

“What? It’s such a lousy thing in your eyes.”

“Crap, do you want profound sword secrets?I can give you a set that’s ten thousand times more profound than the Shadowless Divine Sword.”

“Really?”

“Of course it’s true, but it will have to wait until you completely repair me, because, I’m now severely damaged and have lost a lot of content, and the sword technique I gave you is something that really existed at the beginning of the world, not the Shadowless Divine Sword kind, it was created by an ape and monkey itself after the beginning of the world, it’s too big a difference.”

Omi busily asked, “Then, that Shadowless Divine Sword is very bad?”

“No, you are not qualified to say that the Shadowless Divine Sword is bad, only I am qualified, of course, the Immortal Emperor might also be qualified to say that it is bad, the rest of them, no one dares to say that the Shadowless Divine Sword is bad.After all, that ape and monkey at the beginning of the world, if placed now, the Immortal Emperor might not be a match, it’s just a pity that it died early.If you could train into the Shadowless Divine Sword now, you would be absolutely invincible at the same level, and even, those two or three levels higher than you would not be a match.”

“Wow, so strong.”

“Oh, it’s just strong for your current stage, by the time you reach the Immortal level, the Shadowless Divine Sword will only be considered an upper class sword technique.It’s not quite the ultimate level, but don’t worry, when you become an immortal, I’ll tell you the true ultimate sword technique, so it’s good to practice the Shadowless Divine Sword first to warm up.”

“Mhmm, I beg Senior to tell you.”Omi was overjoyed, the Overturning Mirror really knew everything, it was worthy of the beginning of heaven and earth

A divine weapon that existed at the time.

Next, the Overturning Mirror told Omi the secret of the Shadowless Divine Sword.

The Shadowless Divine Sword had only five lines in total.

One sentence was one layer.

Omi felt that this kind of sword recipe was really jerky and difficult to understand.

However, who let him be Omi, Omi was born with an extraordinary talent for all kinds of secrets, and he could create his own sword secrets, so naturally he was not comparable to ordinary people.

Therefore, no matter how acerbic and difficult it was to understand, Omi studied it and understood it.

After that, Omi looked for a hidden place.

Omi went directly to the Earth Immortal Realm to practice, the Immortal Realm was a small place, so it was too big a move to just practice.

“Swoosh.”

Half a year later, Omi practiced the first sentence of the Shadowless Divine Sword.

"Hahaha, hahaha." Omi let out a loud laugh.

Only after he had practiced the first sentence, Omi felt that he was more than a thousand times stronger than when he had used the Heavenly Yuan Great Sorrow Sword.

A thousand times, what concept was this, no wonder the Overturning Mirror said that practicing the Shadowless Divine Sword and killing a few higher levels in seconds was no problem at all.

However, this Shadowless Divine Sword, for Omi, it was just a warm-up first, later on, when he became an immortal level, the true secrets of the world, Omi could start practicing.

Omi seemed to see a picture of himself, on the pinnacle of his life.

Omi secretly said, "With my current strength, I think, spike all the same level, this Sirius Battle God Competition, first place is a must for me, even I even participate in the mid-Xuan Immortal and late Post-Xuan Immortal together, if all three take the first place, wouldn't it be possible to obtain six second grade birth pills at the same time?"

However, Omi thought on a second thought, would something happen if he was so high-profile, after all, if his life was all gone, there was still a meaning to it.

There were still half a year left, but Omi didn't continue to practice the Shadowless Divine Sword, because there was only half a year left, he couldn't practice the second sentence anyway.

So, Omi simply went to find Mu Qianji.

It was a pity that Mu Qianji was not there again, and also, the house that Dame Lao's family used to live in had already become a wasteland now, after all, hundreds of thousands of years had passed, and as ordinary people, Dame Lao's family had already turned into a shovel of earth. Even if Dame Lao's son became an immortal under the guidance of Mu Qianji, an immortal wouldn't live in the house for a long time.

Omi sighed, this time, he couldn't see Mu Qianji again.

Omi could only go to the Immortal Academy to take a look.

Everything remained the same at the Immortal Academy, as if hundreds of thousands of years had been a short time.

Of course, Omi's business at the Immortal Academy was also in full swing, but Omi had long since lost sight of the immortal coins.

In the blink of an eye, one year was almost up.

Omi hurried back to the Sky Wolf World to prepare for the competition of the Sky Wolf War God.

"Everyone, the Skywolf Battle God Competition, it starts tomorrow, are you all ready?"

"Get ready."

"Very well, I hope you all bring out your strongest sides, tomorrow, please go to the Immortal Heaven and Earth Square early in the morning."

"Ah, why go there?"

“Because, the judge of the Sky Wolf Battle God Competition is the Immortal Emperor himself.”

“Ah.” Everyone was shocked.
