In the huge picture in the sky, it could be seen that eighty-one people, each of them rushed in front of a group of identical demon beasts.

Some people, when they saw a group of demonic beasts coming, immediately dodged in fear, while others immediately tried to kill them, and others, rushed to kill them.

However, like Omi, every single one of them died with a single sword.

“Wow damn.”

Everyone was shocked.

In the image in the sky, two numbers immediately appeared beside Omi: 20. This meant that Omi had killed twenty demon beasts.

However, Omi, who was in the middle of it, couldn't see any numbers he had.

Omi killed the first batch of demon beasts with a single sword, and the whole place was shocked and wowed.

Soon, three minutes passed.

The first batch of 20 demon beasts, whether they were killed or not, all the demon beasts suddenly disappeared.

Many people were depressed and shouted, “Damn, only one second left to kill one.” The first website m.kanshu8.net

“Fuck, one more second and the fifth one will be dead.”

And so on and on with complaints.

Outside the Heaven and Earth Plaza, everyone immediately saw the numbers around each person.

However, Omi wasn't the most because, there were eighteen others who had also killed twenty demon beasts in three minutes.

The first batch, Omi was merely tied for eighteen.

But Omi was the fastest to kill twenty demonic beasts.

Omi and the others waited for less than thirty seconds before the roar of the second batch of demon beasts came once again from the front.

Omi still rushed up.

“Kill.”

This batch of demon beasts was a bit stronger than the previous batch.

Therefore, many members of the Wolf Battle Team died at the feet of the demon beasts all of a sudden.

There were originally eighty-one team members, but right now, there were still more than sixty left.

The ones that had died were already eliminated.

Of those that died, five of them were members of the ninth team.

“Buzz.” Omi made another sword strike, and this one caused the entire air to collapse.

In just one move, the second group of twenty demon beasts died all over.

“Wow, dead all over again.”

“Who is this guy?”

“He doesn’t even know you, his name is Omi.”

“Omi? The Immortal Realm doesn’t seem to have a big family surnamed Tang.”

“This Omi, wasn’t born and raised in the Immortal Realm, he was from the Earth Immortal Realm, he rose up in the Immortal Academy and was recruited as a son-in-law by Ding Cangding, who married his daughter who had a child by messing around with someone, to Omi.”

“Oh, this Omi, quite a genius man, why would he marry a broken flower.”

“For the sake of heaven, how else would he have a place in the Immortal Realm if he’s an Earth Immortal.”

“Also.”

Everyone was talking as they watched.

Previously, Omi washed his hands of Ding Lan, but it seemed useless, his influence was too small.

And so, it kept killing and killing.

Soon, the seventeenth batch of demon beasts ended.

There was already less than ten minutes left in the end.

After exiting the 17th batch of demon beasts, there were only 15 people still alive on the scene.

The 81 pre-Xuan Immortals at the beginning were now all dead, leaving only the last 15.

And those who died, no matter how many demon beasts they had killed in front of them, they all cleared zero.

It seemed that staying alive was the most important thing, even if you killed a few less.

The numbers around Omi had accumulated to 340.

Obviously, Omi was the one with the most numbers.

/> The second ranked one, the number was only 220.

The third ranked one, the number was 214.

The subsequent rankings, the jump in numbers was not as exaggerated as the first and second.

Omi had killed 340 demon beasts, which meant that in each of the previous 17 batches of demon beasts, Omi had killed all of them.

"Shh, everyone stop talking, the 18th batch of demon beasts will be coming out soon, this time, will Omi still be able to kill them all in one go?"

"I don't think so, the first seventeen batches of demon beasts, Omi is killing them all in one move."

"I heard that the last three batches, eighteen, nineteen, and twenty, will be the strongest three batches, especially the twentieth phi, the demon beasts are super strong."

"Let's wait and see."

Omi stared ahead.

Omi didn't meet them again because, Omi was confident enough to kill all twenty of them before the three minutes ended.

A group of demonic beasts with incomparably fast speeds and small, rat-like bodies rushed in.

Almost in the blink of an eye, these rat-like demon beasts were in sight.

Suddenly, the fifteen people who were still alive in the Illusory Realm were five people dead.

And Omi, with a snort at the corner of his mouth, no matter how fast this group of demon beasts were, they were not as fast as Omi's sword.

"Swoosh." Omi's sword made a few swings in place, and in the next second, twenty rat-like corpses of demon beasts in mid-air fell to the ground.

Outside of the Heaven and Earth Square, there was another boiling.

"Wow, Omi has killed all of them with another move, tsk, and look at the others, they are all struggling to face it."

On the judging stage, that fairy mother said, "Immortal Emperor, what exactly is this person's origin? The sword he used?"

"It's the Shadowless Divine Sword." The Immortal Emperor.

"Ah, the Shadowless Divine Sword."

"Yes, the Shadowless Divine Sword was created by a giant ape with a heavenly orifice at the beginning of the world. I thought that it had already been lost, but I never thought that I would see him make it today."

"Immortal Emperor, did you not know about it before?"

A faint displeasure appeared on the Immortal Emperor's face as he nodded, "I don't know, the reason why I'm going to be the judge myself is because, I knew the ending before, but I don't know, how exactly this person became the first place. Because, I couldn't sense the existence of the Shadowless Divine Sword, I didn't know that he practiced the Shadowless Divine Sword."

"Understood, then, this person?"

"It doesn't matter, he's just practicing the Shadowless Divine Sword, but I can still clearly see his future."

The Fairy Mother asked, "What will the future hold for this Omi?"

The Immortal Emperor said, "He will indeed be strong in the future, but it's a pity that he died a Gryphon's death after all."

"Oh." The Immortal Mother nodded her head.

Nian Shi, who was not far away, heard the Immortal Emperor's words and suddenly felt pain inside, and for a moment, Princess Nian Shi's eyes were filled with mist, her heart torn with pain, "He will die, how can he die."

The nineteenth batch of demon beasts came out.

Omi was still in one piece.

On the scene, only six people were still alive.

These six people had killed more than 220 demon beasts, so it was clear that they were all very powerful.

Only the last batch of demon beasts were left.

When the last batch came out, the pre-Xuan Immortal competition would be over.

Omi stared ahead.

"Bang, bang, bang."

Dull footsteps came from the front, not the very rapid footsteps from before.

It seemed that this last batch of demon beasts would be incredibly strong.

The six people who were still alive seemed to understand in their hearts that the last batch of demon beasts was not how many they could kill, but whether or not they could stay alive.

Only Omi, however, took the initiative to rush towards the last batch.
