"So I tricked him into signing up for the Dragon Clan's son-in-law selection contest before?"

"Haha, you didn't lie to him." Ming Cheng laughed.

"What do you mean?"

"Tanti, I'm going to tell you the truth now that it's over, but actually, I secretly signed up for you that day."

"What."

"Don't blame me, when I signed up for you, I didn't know you were screwing your sister, or I definitely wouldn't have signed up for you."

"I'll go."

"Since my sister can't marry you now, I'd rather you go to the Dragon King's son-in-law selection contest, if you really can become the Dragon King's granddaughter-in-law, then Leng Tian Ling definitely wouldn't dare to force you, he'll have to suffer a dumb loss."

"Why? Is the King of the Dragon Clan stronger?"

"That's for sure, people are at least a species that existed since the beginning of the world, the Leng family doesn't dare to be an emerging power that has risen in the recent billions of years, how can they compete with an old power like the Dragon Clan."

"I see, then I'll go to the Dragon Clan's son-in-law selection contest, as for your sister's side, you help me persuade her." Premiere URL m.kanshu8.net

"Ugh, I don't know how to persuade you anymore, do I persuade you to continue as an underground couple, or do we separate? Now that my grandfather has learned, it's impossible for you to have any more dealings."

"In short, tell Ming Yue that no matter how much your grandfather tries to stop it, please ask her to believe that one day, I will come to marry her openly."

"Unless you're more powerful than Leng Tian Ling, or even the King of the Dragon Clan, it's impossible."

"Haha, I'll definitely surpass them." Omi said with full confidence.

"Good, we'll wait for you."

Omi possessed the Overturning Mirror, surpassing Leng Tianling and the Dragon King in the future might not be out of the question, or at least, surpassing Leng Tianling was certain.

Omi left the Ming family and immediately returned to the Sky Wolf World.

Back at the Sky Wolf World, there was also a lot of excitement there.

"Omi, congratulations."

"Omi, congratulations."

Everyone came to congratulate Omi for winning the first place in the pre-Xuanxian stage of the Sky Wolf Battle God.

Everyone was stunned when they found out that Omi had become a late stage Tai Immortal.

In the blink of an eye, another hundred years had passed.

During these last hundred years, Omi did not leave the Sky Wolf World once and stayed in the Sky Wolf World every day to cultivate, the first was that he had withdrawn from the Ding Family and Omi no longer had a home in the Immortal World; the second was that Omi was afraid of Leng Tianling forcing him to marry.

One day, more than a hundred years later, Cheng Yu suddenly said to Omi, "Omi, this month's mission is over, in a few months, the East Sea Dragon King's Son-in-Law Choosing Competition will begin, you, I heard, many people are going to watch, I also want to go watch."

"Eww." Omi was startled.

Cheng Yu smiled, "Then I'll leave first, remember to ask the captain for leave before you go, oh."

Cheng Yu was mainly informing Omi, so that he wouldn't miss it. After that, Cheng Yu hurried back home to prepare for the upcoming son-in-law selection contest.

After thinking for a long time, Omi finally decided to go to the East Sea Dragon Clan to have some fun, even if it was for show, he had to show Leng Tianling to prove that he wasn't lying to him.

After Omi left Wolf World, he took a leave of absence from the captain, and then after about the same time, he went to the East Sea with Ming Cheng.

Along the way, Ming Cheng was very excited.

"Haha, excited, I wonder if the heavens can drape me and let me marry the Dragon Princess, haha." Ming Cheng said excitedly.

Omi, however, had a flat face.

"Don't get your hopes up, we're just going to have a good time." Omi said.

"That's not necessarily true, although the chances are slim, who would dare to

There's no chance of a fix, hehehe."

A day later, Omi arrived at the East Sea.

At the gate of the East Sea, two crab soldiers were in charge of registration.

"What's the name? Did you sign up?" One of the crab soldiers asked.

"Of course, my name is Ming Cheng and his name is Omi, we both have signed up, just look it up."

The crab soldier looked it up and indeed found the names of Omi and Ming Cheng.

"Let's go in."

Entering the Dragon Clan's main hall, many, many people had already come, all of them young talents.

However, all the young talents were sitting quietly in the main hall, closing their eyes.

"What is this situation?" Omi and Ming Cheng were puzzled.

A shrimp soldier said, "Hello, are you guys here for the son-in-law selection contest?"

"Sure."

"Okay, here are the instructions for the son-in-law selection contest, take a look." That shrimp soldier gave Omi and Ming Cheng a piece of paper.

Omi took a look at it, and it read, "Description of the Dragon Clan's King Ao Scullery's Son-in-Law Choosing Competition. The first part of the contest: each person, choose a topic of his own choice and within one year, give the Dragon Clan a secret to an upgrade created by him. If you pass this level, only then will you have a chance to continue to the next level of the competition."

"Is that all?"

"Yes, all of them who came early are already scrambling to start creating in the closed door."

Ming Cheng asked, "What will it take to pass?"

"It depends on your level, the dragon clan will have a special strong person to judge and score the secrets of self-created upgrades, there are two types to choose from, the first, is our dragon clan's spell, the Heavenly Dao technique; the second person, is also our dragon clan's method of controlling death, called the Five Ultimate Blades. You guys choose one according to your abilities and upgrade it, and after a year, the more powerful the spell or blade you upgrade, the higher your score will be."

Omi said, "I'll choose the Five Ultimate Knives, where is the secret of your original Five Ultimate Knives?"

"Here, please look." That shrimp soldier sent Omi a copy of the secret of the Five Ultimate Blades.

The secret of the Five Ultimate Blades was simple, it was the most basic secret of the Dragon Clan.

Everyone upgraded based on it, the time to test your abilities had come.

After one glance, Omi memorized the Five Ultimate Knives and immediately sat down in place to begin the upgrade.

Upgrading martial arts secrets was what Omi was best at, but he didn't expect that the first round of the Dragon Clan's Son-in-Law Choosing Competition would be the one he was best at.

I don't know who had the proposition, it was like it was tailor-made for Omi.

Ming Cheng said, "I'll choose the spell."

"Okay, this is the secret of the Heavenly Dao Technique, you should practice it quickly before you can make any upgrades."

"I know." Ming Cheng also stopped talking nonsense, when he sat down beside Omi, he began to upgrade that spell.

At this moment, in the back garden of the Dragon Clan.

A maid said, "Miss, all the people who came to participate, they all started to upgrade the secret la in the main hall."

"Well, right, I asked you to find out about a man named Omi, is he here yet?"

"Back to the lady, just arrived, and I'm on lockdown now too."

"Hehe." Cheng Yu smiled.

"Miss, this son-in-law selection contest, how did you come up with such an idea to let them use a year to upgrade their secrets ah, the Dragon Prince said that this idea, great, he likes it very much."

"That." Cheng Yu smiled hehely, this was what she had carefully prepared for Omi, and the other competitions that followed were set up specifically to address Omi's strengths.

Cheng Yu didn't believe that all the competitions were set up based on Omi, Omi couldn't be the first place yet.
