

King of kings

Chapter 2346

"Oh, it's good to die, I don't like it in my heart every time I see a gifted one anyway, and if I could, I'd really like all the gifted ones within the Three Realms to die." Fairy Mother said with her mouth cocked.

Ming Cheng returned home.

With a lost face.

"What's wrong with you?" Mingcheng's grandfather saw the busy question.

"Grandpa, Omi, he's dead."

"What?Why?" Mingcheng's grandfather was shocked.

"Killed by Nian Qing, the son of the Immortal Emperor, grandpa, it's all my fault, don't let Ming Yue know about this for the time being, I'm afraid that Ming Yue won't be able to think straight and will commit suicide just like the Dragon King's granddaughter, Ao Beng."

But, Ming Yue was right outside and heard everything.

"No." Mingyue cried out at once.

But fortunately, there were people watching, and Ming Yue didn't do anything out of the ordinary, but it was easy to imagine the frustration inside.

The news about Omi's death spread in the Immortal World within a few months. Remember the website .kanshu8.net

In the Ding Clan.

Ding Cang Dome was informed and burst out laughing, "Good death, good death, this ungrateful thing, good death, fortunately he withdrew his marriage, otherwise I would have been afraid of being implicated by him."

Ding Lan's entire body collapsed when she found out.

Princess Nian Shi, on the other hand, sat dumbfounded for the entire day, in fact, she had known that this day would come, but never thought that it would come so soon.

All in all, everyone in the Immortal Realm who knew Omi, all those who were close, felt sorry for Omi, and of course, there were many who clapped their hands.

Tang Huan also soon learned the news that Omi was dead from Ting Lan.

Tang Huan cried heavily for days and nights, and she had wanted to go with Omi.

However, Tang Huan had followed Omi all the way from the Spirit Realm, and she really didn't quite believe that Omi had died just like that.

Tang Huan had to send the news back to the Academy of Immortals.

At the Academy of Immortality.

Omi called all of his family members here.

Little Flame said, "What is it, so serious."

"That's right, say it."

Tang Huanton cried, "Omi, die."

"Che, I don't believe it." Little Flame trailed off.

Yan Xinyi asked, "Can you be more specific? What happened to Windy?"

Tang Huan told everyone exactly what had happened.

Little Fire said, "I still don't believe that Brother Chen will die so easily, it's definitely a lie."

"Yes, if Brother Chen were to die so easily, I'm afraid he would have died already."

"But, so many people saw, he was beaten by that Nianqing prince, who was in shape, ah, that Nianqing prince is a primordial immortal, there's no room for my subordinate to resist ah. Tang Huan was crying."

Zi Pupil said, "Believe me, my intuition tells me that Uncle Chen won't die so easily, let's not be blindly sad now, let's wait for ten million years, if after ten million years, or even a hundred million years, Chen still doesn't have any news, then we'll wonder if he's dead. How about it?"

"I agree."

Just like that, Omi's relatives acted as if Omi wasn't dead and did what they had to do.

At this moment, Omi felt cold all over.

"What's wrong with me?"

"Where am I?"

"Why can't I feel my body exist?"

"I can't feel time or space either, am I dead?"

Just then, a voice came out, "Come on, don't be so crap."

&nbs.

p; "Ah, who are you?" Omi was busy asking.

"Are you really that curious?"

"Senior, did you save me?"

"Crap."

"Ah, I'm not dead?"

"Of course not, but you could say it's dead."

"What do you mean."

"It is true that your body has been reduced to pieces, and you are no longer in the Immortal Emperor's perception, that is, in the Three Realms."

"Then it's not dead, so why are you saying I'm not dead."

"Let's keep it simple, the Overturning Mirror has collected all your shattered bodies, and I'm helping you reorganize right now, boy, count yourself lucky."

"Why do you say that."

"After I helped you reorganize, your body is no longer comparable to the original, because, the Overturning Mirror sacrificed itself to save you."

"Ah."

"In short, the Overturning Mirror, has been completely shattered, and there is no possibility of repairing it, in the name of the Overturning Mirror going to such great lengths to save you, I reconstituted the Overturning Mirror and your physical body together, so after you reconstitute, there will be a great change. It's like, your flesh body existed since the beginning of the world, the Immortal Emperor can no longer sense your existence, nor can he foresee your future. Of course, you might still possess some of the strength of the Overturning Mirror."

"Ah, thank you, thank you senior, may I ask you?" Don was busy asking.

"Who am I? Hahahaha, I'm the former owner of the Overturning Mirror."

"Ah, it's you."

"Right."

"But you're dead, aren't you?"

"Yeah, I'm dead, but I'm dead and not dead, it's the same thing, I've already transcended life and death, being dead is the same as being alive and living is the same as being dead, there's no concept of life and death in me, do you understand."

"I don't understand."

"It's fine if you don't understand, you don't need to understand."

"Senior, is there a higher place than the Three Realms?" Don Zimmer asked.

"Why do you ask."

"Because the Overturning Mirror said before that when the heavens and earth first began, there were ten people in the earliest batch, and the Immortal Emperor was but the dumbest one, so what about the other nine?Where did they all go?So, I doubt it."

"Hahaha, you guessed right, there are indeed spaces beyond the three realms, you can imagine him as God Space.However, God Space isn't a real space, it's a conceptual space, and God Space can be said to be there or not, because, there aren't many people who can sense God Space.You can also interpret it that way, God, there aren't many of them either."

"There is no God Space?"

"No, the three realms are already the highest realms, unless of course, even I don't know where they exist yet, then I don't know, at least with my current knowledge, there is no higher realm."

"Senior, are you a god now?"

"Not quite, count half, I'm permanently confined to this place where there is no time, no space, no distance, and I say I'm dead but I'm still alive."

"Oh, all the dead people show up here?"

"In theory, yes, what, you want to find your relatives?"

"Yes."

"Haha, yes, any living creature in the Three Realms, even if an ant dies, will appear here.You can think of this place as a three-nothing space, or a trash heap."

"Senior, when are you going to reorganize my body, then?How are you going to send me back after the reorganization?"

"It's simple to send them back, tearing apart this space that has no time, no space, no distance, it's the three worlds.Even your dead relatives, if you want, I can help you find them, even help you reorganize their bodies and send them back, everything, it's that simple."
