"Tang Huan." Mu Qianji shouted.

Tang Huan slowly raised his head and suddenly saw omi.

"Ah." A shudder ran through Tang Huan's body, omi was still alive, and Tang Huan pounced incredulously.

One hundred thousand words are skipped here.

One day later.

"Cheers."

"Brother Chen, I told you you wouldn't die."

"Haha, Uncle Minister will still have to rule the three realms in the future, death, how could I." Zi Hitomi said with a big mouth.

omi laughed, "Zi Hitomi, don't talk nonsense, beware of misfortune coming out of your mouth."

"What are you afraid of, didn't you say that the Immortal Emperor can't sense you now, and because we are with you, our scent has been covered up by you, the Immortal Emperor can't sense anything we say now."

"Alright, even so, don't talk nonsense, just in case it goes down well, in the future I won't be around you guys will also say it in passing, besides, who knows what the future holds." One second to remember to read the book omi and their families, celebrated the day and night with great fanfare, everyone was happy.

"omi, what's your plan next, Nian Qing will definitely not stop if he knows you're not dead."

omi snorted, "Next, I'll only do one thing, poke the sky."

"What do you mean?"

"It's against the heavens, I want to have a power of my own, just like the Ten Thousand Violet Saints, so that even the Immortal Court won't dare do anything about it, I want to be on par with the heavens." omi said.

"Wow, that's great, but is your current power up to that standard?" Yun Zi asked.

omi smiled, "I haven't reached it yet, but I believe that given me a few hundred million years, I will be able to reach it. I'm only at the realm of Tai Immortal now, and my combat power, if anything, is only on the bias of a Primordial Immortal."

“Brother Minister, then you can’t claim the title of king yet, otherwise, the Old Demon of the Heavens will end up with you, and the Immortal Emperor will definitely send his troops down to hang you.”

“Don’t worry, I have a sense of when to claim the title of king.” omi nodded his head.

Once the declaration of being king was made, it would be a major event for the Immortal Court, as if some country, some splitting force in the mortal realm had declared independence.

It would be miserable to claim the throne without enough strength beforehand, and omi would not risk his own family members.

omi clenched his fists secretly, “I will definitely claim the title of king, and I will definitely have a place of my own within the Three Realms.”

omi’s ultimate goal was to have a place that belonged to him, a place that was not regulated by anyone.

As for a higher goal, he didn’t dare to set it haphazardly.

“omi, come back to the Ten Thousand Purple Mountains with me tomorrow.” Mu Qianji invited, as she was going back tomorrow.

“No, I don’t want to go to the Ten Thousand Violet Mountains right now.”

“Then where do you want to go? There is currently no ability to occupy the mountain as a king ah.”

omi’s gaze chilled and said, “I’m going to sneak into the Immortal Court and kill Prince Nianqing first before considering doing anything else.”

“What? You’re going to kill Prince Nian Qing?”

“Yes, by God, that would be too risky.”

“Even if it’s risky, you have to kill, if this revenge is not avenged, how can you still have the ambition to claim the throne if you’re unjust inside.”

“If Nianqing dies, he will definitely track down that you did it, and if the Immortal Emperor sends someone to investigate your background, then all of us, all of us could be dug out.”

omi’s eyebrows furrowed.

Said, “It seems that the Immortal Academy is no longer a place to stay for long, it’s time to leave here.”

“omi, why don’t, first, let all of them, come with me to the Ten Thousand Violet Mountain. The Ten Thousand Violet Mountain is the safest, and there are just as many Immortals, they are perfectly capable of cultivating in the Ten Thousand Violet Mountain.”

“Fine, then, I need to go to the Ten Thousand Violet Mountain again.”

The next day, omi brought all of his family members with him.

Tang Huan, Lu Yuxi, Xia Xiaoxin, Little Fire, Purple Pupil, Mo Yuyan, Yan Xingyi, and others, left the Immortal Academy and headed straight to the Ten Thousand Purple Mountains.

The Ten Thousand Purple Great Sage heard that omi was coming, and set up a banquet to invite omi and the others.

“Great Sage, excuse me.”

“Brother Tang, you’re welcome, it’s an honor for you to bring your family to my place.”

Mu Qianji said, “Master, actually, my grandfather is afraid that the Immortal Emperor will know that he’s not dead and do something to our relatives, so.”

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage waved his hand, “No need to say, my Ten Thousand Violet Mountain is so big, find a place as you wish, I guarantee that within my Ten Thousand Violet Mountain, if that mongrel of an Immortal Emperor dares to set foot in half a step, I will break his dog’s legs.”

“Haha, thank you, Great Sage, Great Sage’s kindness, Tzu-Chen has no teeth to forget.”

“There’s no need to be so polite, the Old Dragon King is treating you like a granddaughter-in-law, I should help you even if it’s for the sake of the Old Dragon King.”

“Thank you.”

It seemed that the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage felt guilty for robbing the Dragon Clan of a great weapon, which was why, the Immortal Court didn’t dare to touch the Dragon Clan, because the Immortal Emperor definitely knew that if the Immortal Court dared to touch the Dragon Clan, the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage would definitely help.

Of course, the Dragon Clan did not declare complete independence and still accepted the management of the Immortal Court.

omi said, “My insider, Thousand Violet, is expected to be promoted by the Great Sage in the future.”

“Brother Tang, don’t worry, she is also my apprentice, I will certainly do my best to help her become a strong general of the generation, which will also strengthen the strength of my Ten Thousand Purple Mountains. Although how peaceful it is at the moment, but the waves are raging in the dark, and my Ten Thousand Purple Mountain, is not as glamorous as it appears.”

“Er, why did the Great Sage say that.”

“The Immortal Emperor is at least in control of the three realms, where there are divine talents, he can be the first to discover them, and in time, he will surely become the strongest in the Immortal Court. In this way, the strength of the Immortal Court will grow stronger and stronger. That Old Demon of Heaven, you should know about it.”

omi nodded, “Of course I know, I even participated in the annihilation of the Old Demon of Heaven back then.”

“The Old Heavenly Demon is also an old and powerful person, once upon a time, the Immortal Court was incapable of annihilating him, but now, doesn’t it also annihilate him, because the power of the Old Heavenly Demon hardly changes, while the Immortal Court is getting stronger every day.”

“Understood.”

“My Ten Thousand Purple Mountains, in the eyes of outsiders, are also standing, just like the Old Demon of Heaven once was, and perhaps one day in the future, my Ten Thousand Purple Mountains will fall just the same. I also want talent, Mu Qianji is good, at least the most talented person I've found within this hundred million years."

"Hehe."

omi also hoped that Mu Qianji would have some achievements.

In the future, after omi really became king, he would still be able to help himself.

Of course, it was also possible to get on good terms with Ten Thousand Ziyama through this.

After three rounds of wine, the Ten Thousand Purple Great Sage said through the wine, "Brother Tang, there is one thing that I really want to ask you, I wonder if I can ask."

"Great Sage, please ask."

"I don't know what your future plans are, if you are willing to join my Ten Thousand Violet Mountain, then the position of the Second Great King of Ten Thousand Violet Mountain is reserved for you."
