"What's your real name?"

"Bai Rou."

"Bai Rou, are you willing to help me annihilate Nianqing?"

"But if Nian Qing dies, I'm going to be buried with him," Fake Ao Bao said.

"Don't worry, I won't let you be buried with me."

"Okay, I'm willing, even if I die, I'm willing to help you, how am I going to help you?"

"I now need a chance for Nian Qing to leave the Immortal Court alone, without any guards, provided, of course, that the Immortal Emperor isn't watching him."

Fake Ao Bao thought for a moment and said, "Nian Qing has a private mountain resort not far outside the Immortal Court, he often stays there, is this okay?"

"A private mountain resort?"

omi remembered that Princess Nianzhi also had it before, and they, the princes and princesses, were probably not feeling free within the Immortal Court, and they all liked to have a private place outside.

"Thank you, Bai Rou, this information is very useful, I think, in this situation, the Immortal Emperor shouldn't be spying on Nian Qing. Are you able to take me to his private villa?" One second to remember to read the book

"Well, I'll take you any time, but you'll have to turn into a happy face."

"That's for sure."

The next day, Fake Ao Bao left the Immortal Court with omi and headed to Prince Nian Qing's private villa.

"Stop." As soon as they approached the private mountain villa, they were stopped by a middle-ranked Immortal.

It turned out that there were many Immortals guarding outside of Nian Qing's private mountain villa as well.

"Damn." omi found that it really wasn't that easy for him to kill Nian Qing.

Did omi have to give up again?

omi whispered, "Mother, can we go in?"

"Do your best."

Fake Ao Beng said to the guards, "I am Nian Qing's consort, Ao Beng, and I know this is his private villa, don't I have the right to come?"

"Yoho, what a big rack, so are we going to invite you in. I don't care who you are, anyway, Prince Nian Qing has ordered that no one but him is allowed to go in, including us."

Fake Ao Beng said, "What if I have to go in? Are you trying to kill me?"

"If you have to go in there and something happens, don't blame me for not warning you, the prince doesn't want anyone to enter, so you better weigh your options."

"Hmph, I'm not, what the hell is he hiding here." After saying that, Fake Ao Bacchus walked inside, the few immortal guards didn't stop them, after all, people were indeed married to the prince.

As a maid, omi naturally followed suit and went in, those guards didn't even look at omi when they saw him as such a lowly maid.

Prince Nianqing's private villa was huge, and at the moment, Nianqing was at one of the octagonal pavilions on the lake in the villa. If you came closer, you could see that in this octagonal pavilion, a handsome looking man was lying down and being pressed down on the stone table in the pavilion, and the one who pressed him down was Prince Nianqing. What was even more incredible was that neither of them had any clothes.

When omi and Fake Ao Scuttlebutt approached, viewing this scene, Fake Ao Scuttlebutt burst out in shock, two men in the pavilion, it really made her unable to look directly at them.

omi inwardly cursed, "What a pervert."

Nian Qing was interrupted by the screams and looked over, a fury spewing out of her eyes.

"Who told you to come here?" Prince Nian Qing roared.

Fake Ao Beng, "I just want to see what you're hiding here for."

"Hmph, what am I hiding here for, you've already seen it, yes, I like men, how about that."

"Pervert."

Nian Qing's face turned cold, as if

Neither was in the mood anymore, slapping the downed man to death and then walking towards the fake Ao Bao.

"You stinking bitch, you're looking for death."

In the next second, Fake Ao Bao was strangled and hung up by Nian Qing.

And omi, a maid, Nian Qing didn't even look at him.

omi saw that Ao Bao was about to be killed, and made a quick decision to do it.

"Swoosh."

In the next second, Nian Qing's body remained motionless and a bloodstain cracked open from his back.

Prince Nianqing slowly turned his head and looked at omi furiously.

"Swoosh." omi quickly repaired his blade, don't let him escape.

omi didn't expect to have such a good chance today.

First of all, this was Nian Qing's private villa, the Immortal Emperor wouldn't spy on him, secondly, Nian Qing was doing something disgusting and the guards outside wouldn't dare to sweep the place with their Immortal Sense, thirdly, Nian Qing was naked all over and his protective Immortal Weapon wasn't on him, and fourthly, he completely ignored omi's presence and had no defense.

It was the unprecedented opportunity to kill him.

Originally, I wanted to capture him alive, but I couldn't find the opportunity, so I had to kill him.

"Swoosh." omi made up the blade again.

"Swoosh." Replenish the sword again.

"Swoosh." And repaired swords.

omi didn't know how many swords he repaired until he completely killed Nian Qing.

Fake Ao Scuttlebutt was silly on one side.

omi said, "This son of a bitch is finally dead, Bai Rou, we need to get out of here."

"But, the guards outside."

"Don't worry, the guards outside know what Prince Nian Qing is doing, they won't come in, nor will their Immortal Sense sweep in, so we have a chance to escape, don't hesitate, we must be quick." omi couldn't guarantee that the Immortal Emperor would find out, so in order to be safe, omi had to receive Nianqing's corpse into his spatial ring and dispose of the scene.

By bringing Nian Qing's body with him, he could use omi's own scent to cover it up, which was safer.

"Wait." omi shouted.

"What else?"

omi looked at the fake ooze and said, "I'm sorry, but I have to beat you up for a more realistic situation."

"Bang bang." omi beat Fake Ao Bao's nose and face.

"Why did you beat me?"

"You'll understand in a moment, let's go."

Immediately after that, omi and Fake Ao Bao left, leaving behind a line of inconspicuous words as they left.

While at the gate, they ran into those few Immortal Guards.

Those immortal guards, seeing Ao Scutellaria's nose and face, laughed, "Mother, now you know why you were stopped, look at how badly you were beaten by the prince, you were asking for it."

Fake Ao Ba didn't say anything and left quickly, now she understood why she was beaten up and bruised, as expected, not only would it distract these guards, it would also allow them to see the prince's anger and not wonder if the prince was in danger.

Everything went very smoothly, after leaving the Villa, omi said, "Bai Rou, I'll help you disguise yourself now, we'll leave here right away, the farther we can run, the better."

"But, the Immortal Emperor is that fast."

"Don't worry, if the Immortal Emperor doesn't know where we are, it's no use being fast."

"Let's not go back to the Dragon Clan now, just find an empty trench and hide, the Immortal Emperor can't sense me, and we won't be able to find it even if we're looking for death."
