

King of kings

Chapter 2361

"Run, my teammates, they're searching this area right now, in case they're discovered."

"If they do get discovered, then let's just kill all the members of your Sky Wolf Battle Team, anyway, with my current strength, it's too easy." omi said.

Leng Lone Moon asked, "Kill even me?"

Leng Lone Moon seemed to be afraid of hearing answers that he didn't want to hear, after all, it was a matter of his life and death.

omi laughed, "What do you think, how could I kill my little baby."

"You, what do you mean." Leng Lone Moon blushed.

"You're my little baby ah."

"Don't be ridiculous." Leng Lone Moon bit her lips and lowered her head.

"Last time, if I hadn't been killed by Nian Qing, then I would have married both you and Ao Ba at the same time. Although I didn't end up marrying you, but you'll always be my little baby, hehehe."

"Fleshy to death." Leng Guolue stared shyly, but she was sweet as hell inside.

omi said, "Is there any time now." Remember the website . kanshu8 . net

"Where to?"

"It's certainly a good time to catch up after such a long time."

"But I'm leading a search for you, and I'm afraid my teammates will be returning later."

"You're the team leader, you make the arrangements."

"How about tomorrow then? We've also been searching continuously for hundreds of thousands of years, and we're all grumbling a lot and would love to take a break, so why don't I announce tomorrow that everyone is taking a half month break. Then, we'll make an appointment for a location?"

"Good."

"So where is it convenient for you to go?" Leng Lone Moon blushed at the question, she felt very shy, taking the initiative to ask people where to go conveniently, engaging in a secret affair like.

"All of them can ah, I can go to all of the world." omi said with a wave of his hand.

"Bragging, the whole of the Immortal World is searching for you right now."

"Haha, the question is have they searched for you?"

"Alright, I'm not going to argue with you, so tomorrow, we'll meet up here, and tomorrow I'll announce that after everyone rests for half a month, I'll come back here alone and pretend to search."

"Good."

At that moment, there was movement in the distance.

"omi, go quickly, a team member has returned."

"Still calling me omi, I'm not leaving if you call me that."

"Stop it, just go."

"Not going unless you change your name to one that has been called."

"What do you want me to call?"

"Bark a little sweetheart."

"I don't want it." Leng Lone Moon was shy, with her personality to call out a little sweetheart, that was something she could never do.

"Then I won't leave and let them find me."

"Don't make a scene."

"I'm not leaving until I scream."

The movement in the distance was getting closer.

Leng Lone Moon had to summon up the courage to call out in a small voice, "Little heart."

"Hehe, that's my little baby well."

"Hurry up."

"See you tomorrow."

omi disappeared.

Not long after, the two Skywolf members returned.

"Hey, Captain, why is your face a little red?" One of the team members asked.

"Red your head."

"Haha." Another team member: "Must be getting my period."

"Scram." Leng Lone Moon's gaze was cold, scaring the two team members into running.

That night, Leng Lone Moon said to the dozens of Wolf Battle Team members, "Brothers and sisters, we've been searching for the traitor omi on this trip for hundreds of thousands of years continuously, right?"

"Nonsense, you still know it's been hundreds of thousands of years in a row."

sp;Suddenly, all the team members cursed, seemingly dissatisfied.

"Team leader, we are human beings, we need to rest ah, besides, those big people can't even find it, how can we find it. We're just out for show, and you're really taking it seriously."

"Team leader, almost a year and a half of vacation."

Leng Lone Moon said, "That's fine, starting tomorrow, half a month's vacation."

"What, contact search for hundreds of thousands of years, and you're just taking half a month off?"

"I'm not convinced, it's too little."

"Put it away for at least six months."

"Yeah, at least six months." Everyone yelled.

Leng Lone Moon also wanted to stay longer with omi, so he nodded, "Alright then, three months, no more."

Everyone could only reluctantly agree.

Just like that, all the team members ran away that night.

Leng Lone Moon returned alone to an inn in the Earth Immortal Realm.

However, as soon as Leng Lone Moon walked into the door of the room, he saw what appeared to be a person lying on the bed, but covered by a blanket.

"Who." Leng Lonesome Moon shouted.

omi lifted the blanket and smiled, "It's me."

"Ah, you."

"I followed you to this town, and when I saw you and those team members having dinner, I returned to your room first, and then I washed my hands and waited for you."

"Don omi, how dare you, you're crazy."

"Don't worry, no one will know, why do you still call me omi, forget about that little sweetheart this afternoon."

"omi, I'm not joking with you, you're really easy to find if you run around like that."

"Alright, I have my pants off, you let me listen to you talk about that?"

"You." Leng Guoliu Yue was shy and angry, really couldn't do anything with him.

That night's elegant affair, needless to say, although this was the second time, but for Leng Lone Moon, it was more like the first time, because the last time was drugged by her grandfather with alcohol, and everyone was non-sober, but this time, it was so sober, so bone-deep.

Late at night, Leng Lone Moon hugged omi tightly and slept, she felt that she could no longer leave this person, no matter whether her heart or body has been thoroughly given to the person in front of her, if the future omi is destined to be put to death by the Immortal Emperor, he is willing to die together.

omi asked, "You're on vacation for three months, what are your arrangements?"

"No."

"With your personality, you wouldn't have agreed to take a vacation, but now you've actually agreed to take a vacation, isn't it because of me."

"Knowingly." Leng Lone Moon said petulantly.

"Hehe, then let's have his three-month honeymoon, hahaha."

The three months soon arrived, the sweet time was really spent so quickly.

"omi, you should leave, tomorrow at the latest, my team should return." Leng Lone Moon urged, with a strong reluctance in her eyes, these three months had been the happiest time for her.

"Alright, I'm almost ready to move on."

"Where are you planning to go? Now that the heavens are wide open, I don't even know where there is a place for you." Leng Lone Moon cried out.

"Fool, the heavens and the earth are all my home."

"omi, you have to promise me that you won't get caught, okay?"

"Ten thousand don't worry, am I that easy to catch, I have a future, and I have to be king and fight against the Immortal Emperor, wait for me, little baby, one day, I'll walk on a colorful rainbow to marry you, hahaha."

"Mhmm, I'll wait for you."

"Then I'll go, and you be careful."

"I'm not in any danger, nothing more than to keep searching for you until the order to end comes from above."

"Well." omi finally kissed Leng Lone Moon, then turned around and flew away, Leng Lone Moon was staring at omi's figure, his heart was hard to leave like a knife, he really hated to follow omi.
