omi soon returned to the Ten Thousand Purple Mountains.

However, after returning home, omi didn't see his family, and upon asking around, he found out that Mu Qianji had arranged for all of them, Tang Huan, to join the Ten Thousand Violet Mountain Guards to make a small contribution to the mountain, and it was safer to stay with the guards.

omi found Mu Qianji, and everyone else came home immediately after learning that omi had returned.

The family happily gathered for a meal.

The next day, the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage sent someone to invite omi.

"Pay your respects to the Great Sage."

"Haha, Brother Tang, I heard that you killed Nian Qing, the ninth son of the Old Immortal Emperor."

"Right."

"Haha, Brother Tang, you've done what I couldn't do."

"Erm, with the Great Sage's strength, you still couldn't kill a Nianqing?"

"Of course I couldn't kill it, the Immortal Emperor had already sensed it before I even made a move, tell me how I did it, otherwise I would have slaughtered the Immortal Emperor." The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage said. One second to remember to read the book omi was busy saying, "Great Sage, you're the one I admire, you all have the heart to slaughter the Immortal Emperor."

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage said, "Every power that claims the throne has the heart to slaughter the Immortal Emperor, but unfortunately, the Immortal Emperor has the heart of the Hong Meng and controls the three realms, there is no one who can kill him."

"Oh."

"But you're different, you made the Immortal Emperor can't even sense you, which means that you're the one who has the power to fight with the Immortal Emperor for the rulership of the three realms."

"Ah, is that so."

"Of course, why else would the Immortal Emperor be so afraid of someone he can't sense? Killing all those babies had to be pulled out. He even had to kill his own daughter, Princess Nenshi, just because, his daughter had someone who stole his right to rule."

"Er."

omi saw that the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage was a bit excited, but he didn't know what he was excited about.

The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage smiled and said, "Brother Tang, I'm not going to beat around the bush with you, let's cooperate."

"Cooperate?What do you mean?"

"Brother Tang, the Immortal Emperor can't sense you, if you stay with me, then the Immortal Emperor can't sense me either, and my scent will be hidden by you, so that I may kill the Immortal Emperor and take over his rule of the three realms, do you understand what I'm saying?"

"Er." omi was startled, and seemed to feel, a little bad inside.

"The cooperation you're talking about?"

"You help me become the ruler of the Three Realms, and once the deed is done, the entire Three Realms will count you as the greatest under one person and above countless others, except for me."The Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage advised.

As omi smiled, he knew that the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage had summoned him, it was definitely not as simple as just chatting.

However, what the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage said was true ah, if they worked together, it was indeed very likely that they would overturn the Three Realms ah.

However, was this what omi wanted?

omi hadn't wanted to become the Three Realms Ruler before, mainly because he was currently weak, but that didn't mean that, inside, omi didn't want to.If he helped the Ten Thousand Violet Sage become the Three Realms Ruler and replace the Immortal Emperor, then why would he go?

Moreover, since this Ten Thousand Violet Witch Demon had the heart to seize the heavens, that means he wasn't upright and flawless, what if, after the deed was done, he killed omi?

After all, omi could assist the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage to seize the heavens, then omi could also assist others to seize the heavens that the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage had obtained.

; "Brother Tang, think about it, it will do you absolutely no harm.Moreover, I'm not afraid to tell you that I'm not the only one who has this thought of mine."

"Uh, yeah?"

"Ever since you killed Nian Qing near the Immortal Court, this incident has shaken the Three Realms, all the giants of the Three Realms have noticed you, and all the giants know that with your assistance, they can seize the heavens.In the entire Three Realms, it's not just Immortal Emperors who want to find you.I dare say that all the great powers, are looking for you."

"Understood."

omi sighed, what a reasonable and unexpected thing to do.

He had gotten his revenge, it was cool, but another unexpected thing was born, he, turned into a tool that could seize the heavens like a tool, everyone wanted it, all the great powers of the three realms were looking for him.

The Ten Thousand Purple Great Sage advised, "Brother Tang, you have no way out, really, you can either be found by the Immortal Emperor and exterminate him to stop the trouble, or be found by the other powers and forced to assist them in seizing the heavens. Since sweeping all ends like this, why don't you choose to work with me and assist me in seizing the heavens. You've seen my character, and I definitely won't be able to treat you badly after I become an Immortal Emperor."

omi was conflicted.

Had he known earlier, he should not have been in a hurry to kill Nian Qing, now that he was famous.

The point was that he was still weak and couldn't fight against any big power.

Ten Thousand Purple Mountains was only among the top ten in the entire big powers, and among the top ten that were barely ninth, there were seven or eight big powers that were stronger than Ten Thousand Purple Mountains. These great powers were all looking for omi.

omi smiled, "Great Sage, to be honest, what if I don't agree?"

The Great Sage said, "If it's someone else, it would be best if you agree, but if you don't, I'm afraid you'll have to suffer. Because, whether you agree or not, if someone else can keep you around, they can cover up their own scent, cripple you, and bring you with them all the time, the effect is the same."

"Hmm." omi didn't know whether it was sadness or grief inside.

"Brother Tang, your daughter-in-law is my closed door disciple, there's no reason for you not to assist me ah, of course, if you don't agree, I'll never force you, but I don't recommend you to leave the Ten Thousand Purple Mountains, because once you leave, you'll be captured by other people, and if you're captured by other forces, I'll be unhappy."

"Understood." This statement from the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage seemed to be telling omi secretly that he couldn't leave the Ten Thousand Violet Mountain, if he didn't agree, he wouldn't force omi, but he would have to stay in the Ten Thousand Violet Mountain forever, the Ten Thousand Violet Great Sage didn't want omi to be gotten by other forces. It seemed reasonable, omi had nothing to blame, but he was just unhappy with himself.

"Brother Tang, you should go back and think about it."

"Okay, then I'll go back first."

"Be sure to think about it." The Vast Violet Sage said expectantly.

"Will do."

omi returned home disheartened.

Unknown to Mu Qianji and the others, they were still happy because omi had gotten his revenge.

"Tzichen, you're back."

"Hey, why are you not smiling, what's wrong?" Mu Qianji noticed that something was wrong and busily came up.

"It's nothing, I want to be quiet."

omi was alone to quietly think about the way forward.

His realm was only too immortal, and although his strength had already reached the Beginning Divine Immortal, but if he hadn't reached the realm, his ability would be limited no matter how strong he was. Moreover, the power of his current Primary Stage Immortal was only the lowest ranked Immortal, and it was easy to imagine how many Immortal ranks there were in the entire Three Realms, after all, Immortals didn't age or die, it would only increase not decrease.
