Six months later, omi had returned to the French court.

This time, omi had been out for a total of more than two years.

However, more than two years had only been all of a sudden for them.

"Light Cloud, you're done with your retreat."The captain of the janitorial team smiled and fawned with omi, making it seem as if he knew omi well.

"Mm."omi nodded, not bothering the captain why he made it seem like he was familiar with him.

"Miss Falan and the others are back yet?"Don Zimmer asked.

"No. No news at all."

"Oh, okay."

omi returned to his dormitory room.

The captain said, "I've had your room cleaned for you every day."

"Thanks." One second to remember to read the book

"You're welcome, you're welcome, this is what the captain should do, that's nothing, I'll go to work first, just tell me what you want."

"Go."

omi was alone to think about whether he should stay or go next.

After thinking about it, omi decided to stay, and leave whenever he had practiced the Lotus Pellet Body Refining Method.

omi took out the dozens of fruit-like things he had obtained earlier.

Then ate one of the grains.

Waiting for a few minutes.

"Hm?What's the matter, no feeling?"

omi was a bit confused, could it be that this thing was really just a fruit, right?

omi ate another piece, still not feeling it.

As expected, this thing was just fruit.

omi ate all of it in one breath and cursed 'damn', causing him to think that it was some kind of heavyweight treasure.

omi's eyes went to the pot that contained the fruit, this pot, about the size of a palm, looked like a bowl, but slightly larger than a bowl.

"This thing I originally thought was a basin, it can't be some kind of treasure, right?" omi picked up that basin and carefully tended to it.

Unfortunately, when omi picked up the basin, he did not feel any electric shock.

omi took that basin and chanted a mantra to a puppy on the ground, "Barang and see Hagoron splash wax mo shivers!"

In the next second, a miracle happened.

The puppy's body shrank in a straight line, and as it shrank, it flew towards omi's basin.

In the end, that puppy was sucked into the basin and, the puppy became the size of an ant.

However, still alive, the ant-sized puppy ran around the basin, but no matter how much he ran, he couldn't escape the basin in omi's hand.

"Ah, as expected, this basin is not an ordinary thing, hehe." omi smiled.

omi tried to press the puppy to death, but unfortunately, as soon as omi's fingers went deeper into the basin, he suddenly felt a strong attraction.

In the next second, omi also shrunk and went into the basin.

The puppy was still barking at omi.

omi felt himself, like falling into a valley.

"Barang and see Hagoron splash wax mo shivers." omi chanted another mantra, and in the next second, omi and that puppy appeared in reality again.

It was now quite certain that the pot could take people and things, but as to how strong it could be, there was no telling.

omi put it away first, and proceeded to take out a bowl of Hong Meng Qi liquid to drink.

After drinking it, his whole body became hot and he slept again, waking up several days later.

omi's realm hadn't grown to the middle Golden Immortal stage.

"Strange? Isn't there enough to drink?

?"

Don omi drank another bowl.

The result was still no growth.

"What happened? Was it too short a time since I last drank the Hong Meng Qi for my body to absorb it? Well, I'll just have to wait a little longer before I drink it, wasting my two bowls." omi said with some sadness.

After a few more months, Miss Fa Lan and the people who went to the Fa Dynasty returned.

omi inquired with the captain, and the captain said, "The supreme predecessors of the Fa Dynasty returned with a dejected look on their faces, seemingly without any success and with some dead geniuses."

The next day, Miss Fa Lan came to see omi.

"Wind Light Cloud."

"En, Miss Falan, you're back."

"Hey, Wind Lightning, you've stepped into the Golden Immortal?"

"Yes, during the three years you were away, I closed in for a bit, and then I hit the pre-Golden Immortal stage, how about you? What relics will be gained from this trip?"

"Ugh, forget about it, but bless you ah." Falan was a bit lost, she went there for three years before and after, but ended up not getting a fart, instead it was omi, who closed up at home and impacted the Golden Immortal, while she was still a Tai Xian.

"Oh, don't worry Miss Falan, you'll hit the Golden Immortal sooner or later."

"Let's hope so, this time when I went to the Beginning Ancient Ruins, I had high hopes, but as a result, I didn't enter the Beginning Ancient Ruins at all."

"Didn't enter, why?" omi asked.

"It's still because the major powers are fighting over it, that entrance is so small, every power wants to have it all to themselves, and as a result, no one has entered."

"Then why are you back now?"

"That entrance is completely gone."

"Eww." omi smiled in his heart, so no one had ever gone in at all, but of course, it was fortunate that omi came back quickly, or else he was afraid that he would never be able to get out.

"What do you mean by disappearing?"

"That Beginning Ancient Relic has moved places, and no one knows where it's moved to."

"So ah."

"Senior Wind Lightning, for the sake of me being so unlucky, can you stop being a janitor and be my teacher?" Miss Farashi pleaded.

omi thought to himself that life was too peaceful and boring to watch the door on this side.

"Alright, I'd like to be your teacher."

"Thank you, Miss Fashion-san."

"You're welcome."

"Then come live at my place, I'll arrange a place for you."

omi said, "As you arrange."

omi didn't mind sleeping with her, but he was afraid that people wouldn't like such an ugly omi.

Then, omi followed Miss Falan and entered the interior of the Fa Dynasty for the first time.

Inside the Fa Dynasty, ordinary people couldn't enter, they had to be a guest of the Fa Dynasty, or a core figure of the Fa Dynasty.

"Miss Feng, then let's go see my grandfather first."

"As you wish."

omi came to a hall where a middle-aged and elderly man sighed, it was Fa Lan's grandfather, Fa Ji.

"Grandfather."

"Fa Lan, what is it."

"I've brought Feng Qingyun, he's willing to be my teacher."

"Senior Wind Lightning, I pay my respects to Supreme Senior Fa Ji."

"En, you're welcome, hey, you've stepped into the Golden Immortal?"

"Yes."

"You're still so young to have stepped into the Golden Immortal, that's really impressive."

"Senior don't worry, since I agreed to be Miss Falan's teacher, I will do my best to help her so that she can step into the Golden Immortal as soon as possible."
