"Whew, is it, is it really the sky that's going to kill me?"The Immortal Emperor sighed sadly.

"Someone, go and help me investigate why Omi has prevented me from sensing his presence, I must know."The Immortal Emperor commanded one of the immortals under his hand.

"Yes, Immortal Emperor."

The Immortal Emperor must know why, whether it was because Omi also possessed an exquisite heart just like his daughter Nian Shi.If it was, then it was really dangerous, and if it wasn't, then there was no need to be afraid, because he couldn't kill him.

"Huh."At this moment, the Immortal Emperor suddenly slapped his head.

"I'm really confused, I've just been cut in half by Omi, and then, I'm still alive, which means that Omi doesn't have an exquisite heart at all, otherwise, I wouldn't be able to instantly reorganize my body after Omi just chopped me in half."

"Haha, that's good, this is truly a blessing in disguise."The Immortal Emperor thought that Omi would never be able to kill him, and his heart was much more at ease.

The reason why he had been chasing Omi for the previous centuries was because he was afraid that he couldn't sense if he possessed an exquisite heart.Today, on the contrary, it confirmed the suspicion that Omi did not have an exquisite heart.

"Hahaha, hahaha."The Immortal Emperor laughed out, although he was green and should be sad, but compared to confirming that Omi did not have an exquisite heart, he could indeed laugh.

"Alright, there's no need to investigate."

"It's the Immortal Emperor."The Immortal who was about to go investigate returned. One second to remember to read the book

"Immortal Emperor, the Fairy Mother is in a bad mood right now, what should we do?"A female officer asked.

"Huh it."

"What."The ministers were shocked.

"Never mind, I'll go comfort them."Said the Immortal Emperor and left.

Originally, the Immortal Emperor wanted to say, rest, but, suddenly, he thought of Nian Tides, if he rested the Immortal Mother, if he angered Nian Tides, maybe there would be future disasters, so, the Immortal Emperor endured the humiliation to comfort the Immortal Mother.

In the Earth Immortal Realm, Omi arrived at the Dragon Realm.

"It should be safe now." Omi said.

The Dragon King smiled, "Omi, you're good, I'm now officially informing you that you're ready to become king at any time."

"Why?"

"Now that you're king, the Immortal Emperor wouldn't even dare to come to you, unless, he could convince the entire Immortal Court of a dozen war gods to come together to annihilate you."

"Eww."

Gao Xiaolian laughed, "Omi, just now you made the Three Eyed War God, Wind and Fire War God, Sky Ling War God, and a few others, they don't dare to chase after you, this means that they have seen how powerful you are, they won't come to you easily, and the Immortal Emperor can't defeat you, so you already have the conditions to call yourself king."

"Erm, this is the condition to call yourself king?"

"Right yes, there is no one in the current Earth Immortal Realm who can claim the title of king who can defeat the Immortal Emperor, and the Immortal Emperor must plead with the war gods under him to annihilate him."

"Then if I claim the title of king, will the Immortal Emperor send dozens of war gods down to annihilate me?" Omi asked.

"Hard to say, it depends on how many war gods are willing to come, if there are no war gods, it's useless to send a million celestial soldiers. And the dozens of war gods under the Immortal Emperor, they can't be loyal and not afraid of death, they won't annihilate you if the danger is great."

"Hahaha." Omi laughed.

Yes, Omi already had the absolute conditions to be king.

The Dragon King said, "Let's go, go to my Dragon Clan and sit down."

Arriving at the Dragon Clan, the Dragon King ordered to go down and be on the alert for the Immortal Realm to send troops down, reporting to inform the entire Dragon Clan that the Dragon Clan was completely independent.

Now that it was quiet, Gao Xiaolian had to examine the relationship between Godni and Omi.

"Omi, you and divine Nee, have you really paid your respects?" Gao Xiaolian asked.

"Right."

"So now me and her,

How do you choose?" Gao Xiaolian asked depressedly.

Shenny was busy saying, "Don't get me involved, although I worshipped him, I didn't really mean it, I was forced to, I am now, and Omi are just friends."

Omi smiled, "You two, you are both my daughters-in-law."

"No way." Godni and Gao.

"Hahaha, now, it's no longer up to you to say it's impossible, Godni, come on, if you can defeat me, then you're in charge, if not, then I'm in charge. Likewise, Gao Xiaolian, so are you."

"Uh, is that really necessary?"

"Unless you're confident you can defeat me."

"Well, I'd like to see if you're really that powerful."

"Then let's go, go out and try to compete."

Omi, Shenni, Gao Xiaolian, and the Dragon King, arrived at the sea.

"Who's first?"

"I'll go first." High.

"Hehe, come on then."

Omi instantly distanced himself from Gao Xiaolian.

As long as Omi pulled away from anyone, then he could be almost invincible.

Gao Xiaolian shouted, "Hey, you ran so far away, how can I still fight."

"Haha, I'm sorry, my Three No-God Sword, which ignores distance, has an advantage over me the farther I go."

"You don't count like that." High.

"You're spoiled, fine, for the sake of you being spoiled, I'll fight you at close range."

Omi flew not far in front of Gao Xiaolian's body.

"Begin." The Dragon King shouted.

Gao Xiaolian's mouth fragmented, and suddenly, the entire space seemed like bees buzzing non-stop.

This was Gao Xiaolian's sound spell, as long as she could hear the sound, it was in her attack range.

After being attacked by his voice, one would completely lose consciousness in that instant.

Omi was so shocked that he subconsciously one year mouthed and hid in the dry stone.

"Where is the person?"

Gao Xiaolian couldn't see Omi anymore.

Omi was in the Qiankun stone, completely unaffected by anything outside.

Just as Gao Xiaolian was stunned, Omi appeared again in an instant and then placed a sword against Gao Xiaolian's neck.

"You lose."

"Doesn't count, you're completely cheating, if you don't hide, you won't be able to resist my Vault of Heaven Sound attack." High.

"Hey, how am I cheating, can't I use my Divine Weapon for assistance?"

The Dragon King said, "Gao Xiaolian, you did lose, not a match at all, Omi's sword, I don't think anyone up and down the three realms can match it, he's still only a Beginning Immortal, when he becomes a High Immortal, God knows how powerful he will be."

Gao Xiaolian Yue pursed her lips, "Alright, I admit defeat."

"Little Yue, since you lost to me, then, I'll be in charge from now on."

Gao Xiaolian white eyed Omi and didn't say anything else.

Omi said to Shenni, "It's your turn."

However, the divine nun directly shook his head and said, "No need to compete, I'm not your opponent."

"That's what you said."

"I admit defeat."

"Then everything is not up to you, from now on, you and Gao Xiaolian are both my daughters-in-law, do you have a problem with that?"

Shinni hesitated and nodded, "Well, it's about time I married myself off."

"Yay." Don shouted in delight.
