Donzie returned to Next Mountain.

"Where have you been?" Shenny was busy asking, as if to say that the Don couldn't run around.

"I ran into this guy at the next mountain, and this guy just happened to be hiding in this place." Omi pointed at the Destroyer Patriarch.

"Ah, the Bishop of Destruction?" Shenny was shocked.

Gao Xiaolian said, "Where is your flesh body? Why do you look like a metahuman?"

The Lord of Destruction took what he had said to Omi earlier and followed it up high.

"Holy sh*t, is the Immortal Emperor about to explode? I didn't realize he was so powerful before." Gao Xiaolian.

"Alright, don't think too much about it now, now we have to leave quickly." Omi said.

"Where to?"

"I need to find Grandpa Dragon, he's very dangerous right now, and if possible, find the Ten Thousand Violet Saints by the way. They're all only Yuan Shen now, the Immortal Emperor could find them at any time." Omi said.

"Alright, but where can we find them?" First web site m . kanshu8.net

"I don't know."

At that moment, the Destruction Patriarch said, "Brother Tang, can you let me follow you all the time."

Omi didn't have a good feeling for the Destroying Patriarch, he all deserved to have today.

Omi said without even thinking about it, "If you're my little brother, you can follow me, otherwise get out of here."

"Fine, I'm willing to be your underling." The Lord of Destruction said.

"Er."

"My brother is on top, please accept my little brother's worship." The Destroyer Patriarch bowed deeply to Omi.

"Alright, if that's the case, you can follow me." Omi said, let's just do a good deed anyway, otherwise, the Destruction Patriarch would be killed by the Immortal Emperor sooner or later.

"Right, Lord of Destruction, do you know where to find my Grandpa Dragon? Where does he usually run to?" Omi asked.

The Destroyer Patriarch said, "Brother Chen, this is really the right question to ask me, because I'm in the same situation as the Dragon King. After my flesh was destroyed, my first thought was to quickly flee to the edge of no man's land."

"Why?"

"Think about it, I could be found and killed by the Immortal Emperor at any time, and if I flee to the edge of No Man's Land, I can run and hide at the first opportunity once the Immortal Emperor arrives."

"Wouldn't the Immortal Emperor chase into the No Man's Land?"

"You don't know that, no man's land is dangerous, no one knows what will happen where, how would the Immortal Emperor be willing to risk his life just to kill us, so the Immortal Emperor would never chase into the no man's land."

"So then, my grandfather, Dragon, has most likely escaped to the edge of the No Man's Land."

"Yes, and it can also be deduced which uninhabited area the Dragon King went to based on which uninhabited area he was closest to after his defeat in battle."

Omi said at once, "The uninhabited area east of the Eastern Sea?"

"Correct, if nothing else, the Ten Thousand Violet Sage should be in that direction as well."

"Depart." Without saying a word, Omi received Mu Qianji and the others into the Qiankun Stone Tablet, then quickly flew off in the direction of the East of the Eastern Sea.

After about two months of flying, Omi arrived at the uninhabited area in the East of the Eastern Sea.

"Grandpa Long." Omi shouted.

Unfortunately, that fringe area was huge and not so easy to find.

After searching for a month, the Dragon King and the Ten Thousand Violet Saints didn't find it, instead they found another person.

"Hey, who are you looking for." A person flew up.

Omi didn't know this person, and the Lord of Destruction smiled, "Isn't this the Valley of Thunder Valley's Valley Master?"

"Bishop of Destruction, what tone of voice, are you not yourself

Like me? Hmph." That Thunder Valley Master snorted.

The Lord of Destruction laughed, "Thunder Valley Master, wasn't your Thunder Valley always powerful and tuggy, how did you end up in the same field as me."

"You shut up."

It seemed that the Lord of Destruction and the Thunder Valley Master had a personal grudge.

Omi said loudly, "Alright, you guys have to quarrel far away, don't get in the way here."

The Thunder Valley Lord looked at Omi and asked, "Which one are you? A first stage immortal dares to speak like this, although our flesh is extinguished, ordinary high stage immortals are still no match for us, let alone you, a first stage immortal."

Omi instantly raised his sword and crossed it over his head, saying, "Now, do you still think that I'm not your opponent?"

"Ah." Thunder Valley Master, trembling all over, this person's sword was so fast, he didn't even have time to react.

"You, you are, Omi?" Thunder Valley Master asked.

"Nonsense."

"Is it really you, did you, too, get cornered by the Immortal Emperor and have to come to the edge of no man's land to hide?" Thunder Valley Master asked.

Omi was depressed, not very good at answering this question.

"Grandpa Dragon." Omi didn't bother to pay attention to Thunder Valley Master and yelled out to the Dragon King.

The Lord of Destruction immediately followed, not leaving an inch behind.

The Thunder Valley Lord looked at the Eye Nini and smiled, "Hello, South Sea God Nini, I didn't expect that you would marry Omi, huh?"

"None of your business." The divine nun flew away with a blank look at him.

Gao Xiaolian looked at the Thunder Valley Lord and said, "Hey, my Prime Minister can shield the Immortal Emperor's senses, if you don't want to be discovered by the Immortal Emperor, you can be like the Lord of Destruction, be my Prime Minister's subordinate and then follow him."

"Gao Xiaolian, how dare you let my Thunder Valley Lord be someone else's subordinate?" The Thunder Valley Lord was furious, some still unable to accept his downfall.

"Che, I'm just kindly reminding you, so just forget it, goodbye." Gao Xiaolian also flew away.

The Thunder Valley Master bit his teeth and flew up as well.

"Hey, wait for me."

Omi didn't stop at all, but the Thunder Valley Lord soon caught up.

"Omi." The Thunder Valley Lord flew up to Omi's front.

Omi said, "I'm not in the mood, so don't get in my way, otherwise, I won't need the Immortal Emperor to kill you, I'll kill you."

"Don't, don't, Omi, that, the Lord of Destruction is really your subordinate?"

"So what if it is?"

"Well, can I be your henchman too?" Thunder Valley Master asked.

Omi snorted, "You're now a man whose flesh was destroyed by the Immortal Emperor, and you have the cheek to be my subordinate?"

"Omi, you can't say that, although I have no physical body and am severely injured at the moment, but still, the average high ranking immortal is not my opponent, in the future if I find a suitable physical body, even if I can't be as strong as before, but I won't lose much, at this time to beg for your protection and be your subordinate, I think I should still be qualified enough."

The Destroyer Patriarch said, "Don't promise, brother minister, this man has a bad temper, and he might not give a damn about you in the future when the disaster is over."

The Thunder Valley Lord raged, "Lord Destruction, don't force me."

"Che, you f*cking think you're an Immortal Emperor."

But Omi said, "If you are truly sincere in following me, I can agree."

The Thunder Valley Lord was busy saying, "Brother Chen is on top, please accept my worship, I, Thunder Valley Lord, have a bad temper, but my character is definitely trustworthy, and since I'm worshipping you as my big brother today, I definitely won't go back on my word. Besides, even the divine nun is willing to be your damsel, so I haven't insulted my identity ah."
