"Good." Omi flew away, Omi had to go and take Ming Yue, Leng Lone Moon, and Ding Lan away first, it was time to take them away.

It didn't take much effort for Omi to quickly find Ming Yue, Leng Lonesome Moon, and Ding Lan.

"You have suffered, from this moment onwards, you will follow me forever."

"Tzichen." Ming Yue was the first to jump into Omi's arms.

After exchanging pleasantries, Omi took everyone with him and left the Immortal Realm, finding a place to live temporarily in the Earth Immortal Realm.

The Dragon King said, "The Green Hat Emperor didn't even send out the thirty or so War Gods under his command, but hurriedly showed up and ran away, Omi, it seems that the Green Hat Emperor hasn't had time to boost the strength of the Three-Eyed War Gods and so on."

Omi said, "Unfortunately, where so what, I can't even find where he is now, and even if I did, he can disappear in an instant, how can I kill him? It seems that this Immortal Emperor's position really isn't something I can take."

The Ten Thousand Violet Sage said, "Omi, why are you so frustrated, if it is not yours to seize, then why did the Green Hat Emperor flee?"

"Wan Zi is right, you can't kill the cuckold emperor when he's prevented, but what if, when he's not prevented?"

"Uh, what do you mean?"

"For example, if you dress up as a servant and sneak up on him, he doesn't even expect that it's you, and then, you suddenly catch him, then no matter how great his prowess is, he can't escape. Although the Green Hat Emperor can instantly move, it depends on whether he has discovered you." First URL m.kanshu8.net

Everyone nodded their heads.

The only way for Omi to kill the cuckold emperor was to use this method to capture him without alerting him.

"Now who knows where he's hiding."

"Brother Chen, there's no rush, we'll always find an opportunity later, the first thing to think about now is how to deal with the thirty or so war gods under the Immortal Emperor, they'll come looking for you one day, and by then, they'll all have definitely increased their power a thousand times."

"Well, close the door, I must now step into the middle-tier Immortal, once I do, my strength will double again, even reaching two thousand times that of an ordinary high-tier War God."

So, Omi immediately closed the door, Omi had been stuck at the Beginning Tier God Immortal for a long time, and it was time to raise it, and Omi felt like raising it too.

And so, a year later, Omi finally stepped into the middle-tier Immortal.

Omi's strength had doubled again.

Before, Omi's strength was almost a thousand times that of an ordinary high rank, but now, after he stepped into the Middle Grade Immortal, he had doubled it and had reached two thousand times that of an ordinary high rank.

This strength absolutely spiked everyone, except for those in the Blue Emperor.

As Omi's realm increased, so did the Three Wonders Domain, before, the Three Wonders Domain his range was only five meters, but after becoming a Middle Tier Immortal, it expanded to at least fifty meters.

Actually, it didn't matter, whether it was five meters or fifty meters, as long as the strength didn't exceed him, no one could bypass his Three Wounded Realm, it was just the difference in the size of Omi's attack range.

At this moment, in a certain valley.

The Immortal Emperor released more than thirty Battle Gods.

"Pay your respects to the Immortal Emperor." More than thirty Battle Gods bowed.

"Very well, at this moment, each and every one of you has doubled your strength from before, that is, you are a thousand times stronger than you were in the beginning."

"Thank you Immortal Emperor for your kindness in bringing me up."

"There's no need to thank me, now that someone is attempting to steal my throne, what should you do?"

"We will defend it to the death."

"Very well, come back to the Immortal Court with me right now and put that traitor Omi to death."

nbsp; "Yes, Immortal Emperor."

Presently, the Immortal Emperor returned to the Immortal Court with more than thirty war gods.

I thought that Omi had occupied the place, but I didn't expect that the Immortal Court had already been deserted, and no one lived there anymore.

"It seems that dog thief Omi has gone to the Earth Immortal Realm, and I don't know where he is at the moment." The Immortal Emperor said through gritted teeth, he wanted to find Omi as soon as possible, the sooner the better it would be for him.

At this moment, somewhere in the Earth Immortal Realm.

"Brother Chen, the scouts have just reported that the Green Hat Emperor has returned to the Immortal Court with more than thirty War Gods."The Thunder Valley Master reported.

Omi smiled slightly, "Good, I knew this day would come sooner or later, this time, I must seize the opportunity to capture the Immortal Emperor alive, if he runs away again, then he will never be found again, and the three realms will collapse."

After saying that, Omi rushed straight to the Immortal Court.

Omi didn't lead anyone else, he went there alone.

After arriving at the Immortal Court, the Immortal Emperor spotted him at once.

"Report, Omi is here."

"Quick, kill him."The Immortal Emperor gave an order and more than thirty war gods surrounded Omi.

Omi looked at the Immortal Emperor, this brat, in this situation, he himself hid far away, he was afraid that if he failed, he would have enough distance and time to escape.

Omi said inwardly, "Looks like I have to think of some scheme to do it, later, I will deliberately pretend to defeat and be caught by them, so that the Immortal Emperor will be able to get close to me.Once I get close to within fifty meters of me, then I'm sure to win."

The plan was decided, Omi began to implement it, first pretending to fight against over thirty war gods.

After fighting for a few minutes, Omi pretended that he couldn't win.

When the Immortal Emperor saw from afar that Omi was going to lose, he rejoiced, "Quick, kill him, kill him ah."

"Pfft."Omi pretended to be beaten and vomited blood.

"Hahaha, hahaha."The Immortal Emperor laughed wildly, not expecting to finish Omi so easily.

"Puff."Omi spat out another mouthful of blood, seemingly even more injured.

Omi began to pretend that he wanted to escape.

The Immortal Emperor shouted from afar, "Don't let him escape, catch him."

The Three Eyed War God and others, immediately pounced on him.

Omi will be caught dead.

"Immortal Emperor, Omi has been captured by us."A War God reported.

"Yay."The Immortal Emperor shouted excitedly, as if, today was the happiest day in his life.

Omi looked weak and miserable, and snorted at the Immortal Emperor, "If you want to kill, kill, don't try to insult me."

"Hahaha, hahaha."The Immortal Emperor laughed, the Immortal Emperor did want to kill him, however, hearing how eager Omi was to die, he instead did not want to kill him directly.Omi had insulted him three or four times, and he wanted to give Omi a taste of it too.

"Someone, tie Omi down to death and never give him a chance to escape."

A War God said, "Immortal Emperor, don't worry, if he had the ability to escape, he would have done so long ago, now that it's in our hands, it's not easy to escape."

The Immortal Emperor roared, "Very well, I will immediately send people to capture his wives, all of them, I want to defile him one by one."

Omi pretended to growl in anger, "Come at me if you have the guts."

"Hmph, rebel, you'll know how powerful I am, hahaha."The Immortal Emperor let out a victorious maniacal laugh.

To Omi's frustration, the Immortal Emperor just didn't come close to Omi, always remaining fifty meters away.
