"Omi, don't kill me, okay, I'll be your puppet, I'll do whatever you say, okay?" The Immortal Emperor said pleadingly.

Omi laughed, "I can totally be an Immortal Emperor myself, why do I need you as a puppet, besides, even if I'm not an Immortal Emperor anymore, I can still pass the seat to my next generation."

The Immortal Emperor snorted, "Omi, you have to remember one thing, how you got the Heart of Hong Meng, and how others will kill you in the future as well. You think that the Heart of Hong Meng can be passed on? No one else can get it except you die."

"Oh, yeah?"

"One day, there will be someone more powerful than you, and that person will also kill you to obtain the Heart of Hong Meng. So, the Heart of Hongmeng is simply a hot potato, I think it's better for you not to step into this fire pit, if you don't become an Immortal Emperor, no one will ever find you. I'm regretting it all now."

"Oh, yeah." Omi smiled faintly, but the Immortal Emperor's words seemed to have some sincerity in them. Once you get the Heart of Hongshen, you merge with your life and can't get out of it, and when someone really surpasses Omi in the future, then the Immortal Emperor of today is Omi's future, and someone else must kill Omi to get the Heart of Hongshen."

"Omi, think about whether it's necessary. At the beginning of the universe, the other 9 humans that appeared with me, they were all powerful, far more powerful than you are now, why didn't they steal my Hong Meng Heart?"

"How should I know, maybe they have higher goals."

"You're such a genius, you can have higher goals too, I don't believe that your goal is just to be an Immortal Emperor, you definitely have higher goals. And once you get the Heart of Hong Meng, you're restricted here, you have to take control of the three realms, you can't do anything else, otherwise, the three realms will lose order and there will be chaos."

"Eww." Omi's body shook, why did he feel a bit hesitant, had he been brainwashed by the Immortal Emperor? Not so much.

"Omi, what I said, every word is true, unless, your goal is really just to be an Immortal Emperor for the rest of your life." One Second Remember to Read the Book

Omi snorted, "My goal, of course, is not to become an Immortal Emperor, I definitely have higher goals in the future."

"If that's what you think, then you shouldn't have obtained the Heart of the Hong Meng. The purpose of the Hong Meng Heart is to control the three realms, maintain order in the three realms, keep the three realms eternally moving, and ensure that life continues to flow and be born. There is simply no possibility of you not being able to cultivate and do something else again. Because this Three Realms can't be without you for a moment, you think that if you become an Immortal Emperor, you'll still be able to move and close the door for tens of thousands of years, wrong, if you become an Immortal Emperor, the closing of the door will basically have nothing to do with you.”

“Is that so.” Omi actually hesitated a bit.

Could it be that becoming an Immortal Emperor was really so damn restrictive?

“If I lie to you, I shall not die well, you’re such a strong genius, you really shouldn’t waste your time here, if you’re a person like me, who can only reach this height in your life, then you can be an Immortal Emperor instead. Omi, you have to think carefully, once you are an Immortal Emperor, you won’t be able to get out of it, unless, you commit suicide, then someone else can replace you.”

Omi took a deep breath.

The Immortal Emperor added, “Omi, there’s one last thing, once the Three Realms collapse, the Heart of the Honored One will also die along with you. Before me, I wouldn’t have done this if I didn’t have to, the role and mission of the Hong Meng Heart is just to manage the three realms.”

Omi snorted, “Nian Tian, you’re so eloquent, do you want to brainwash me?”

“Oh, ridiculous, you can kill me all you want, but I believe that you

You will definitely regret it. After you obtained the Heart of Hong Meng, although you became a human superior, at the same time, you also became the guardian of the three realms, you can’t slack off in the slightest, once the three realms collapse, you also die together, think about it yourself.”

Omi clenched his hands very tightly, he wanted to shoot the Immortal Emperor to death, but did he really replace him?

In the future, Omi still wanted to go to the Evil God’s Relic to cultivate, if he became an Immortal Emperor, this would no longer be possible, Omi had to keep an eye on the three realms and make adjustments at all times to avoid any accidents.

“Omi, Blue Emperor Qin Zhong and the others, they are even stronger than you, why don’t they replace me? Think about it, the position of Immortal Emperor, is it really that important to you.”

“Hoo, it’s my dream to be an Immortal Emperor, and you f*cking want to break my dream with a few words?” Omi roared.

“Yes, a lot of people want to be an Immortal Emperor, they think it’s awesome, but it’s not for you, you still have to fight to find out the truth of this world, to break out of this universe, to find more unknown secrets. Compared to these, the position of Immortal Emperor is nothing. Of course, if you really want the right, I can crown you as ‘High Heaven Sage’.”

“What do you mean?”

“It’s the one who is higher than the heavens, remember, but this is my seal, it’s never comparable to those self-proclaimed what-have-you Great Saints.”

“Great Saints higher than the heavens.” Omi chanted.

The Immortal Emperor suddenly bowed to Omi, “Greetings to the Great Sage of the High Heaven.”

Omi laughed ridiculously, “You damn well know how to see a needle in a haystack.”

“Great Sage of the High Heaven, in the future, within the Three Realms, I am beneath you and you can command me at will, how about it? You have all the rights you want, you want your family to prosper and be strong, you can.”

Omi hesitated for several minutes, and finally, Omi sighed, “What the hell, I, Tang Someone, have been convinced by you, alas.”

The Immortal Emperor was busy saying, “No, it’s not that I’ve convinced you, but in your heart, you’re not willing to be an Immortal Emperor forever.”

“If you say so, then so be it.”

The Immortal Emperor was overjoyed and said happily, “Thank you for your grace, don’t worry, I’ll return to the Immortal Court right now, reorganize the Immortal Court, and immediately announce that I’ve crowned you as the High Heaven Great Sage.”

“It’s up to you, although I’m releasing you at this moment, if I really want to capture you again, I can definitely do it.”

“Don’t worry, High Heaven Great Sage, I know that. Also, this year, the Three Realms are very chaotic, and I must hurry to get to the alignment, otherwise, I don’t need you to kill me, I’ll have to die myself when the Three Realms bounce.”

“Go ahead.”

“Thank you, Great Sage of the High Heavens, Little Emperor takes his leave.”

With that, Omi watched as the Immortal Emperor ran away.

Omi sighed, “I hope I won’t regret it.”

With a bitter smile, Omi turned around and flew away.

Not long after Omi left, Leng Tianling flew out.

“Omi, why didn’t you kill him?” Leng Tian Ling was puzzled.

“I think that the possibility of me killing him and regretting it would be greater than not killing him, so I choose not to.”

“Alas, you’re so foolish to surrender the position of Immortal Emperor that you’ve arrived at.”

“Oh, maybe so.” Omi didn’t say anything else and flew away.

Leng Tian Ling also sighed and followed Omi away.
