"Ah, Sage-chan."

"Rei-chan."

Omi pounced on it and hugged it tightly.

At the moment of hugging Qin Rei, Omi suddenly had a, hidden deep inside, long-lost familiarity, as if, hugging together, he knew an old husband and wife, remembering the feeling he once had countless years ago.

"Rei'er."

"Husband."

"Rei'er, what a familiar feeling." Omi choked out, Omi couldn't help but close his eyes and enjoy that familiar scent of Rei Qin's body, it was like, turning back time and going back in time to hug her, it was innate to his soul.

"Husband." Qin Ren sobbed with excitement as well.

The two of them hugged for a long time.

"Rei'er, go out for a while, I still have a lot of people who need to be resurrected, Master has been resurrected, Master's wife, they are all outside the door at the moment."

"Mhmm." Qin Rei nodded her head excitedly, she was thrilled when she thought of her teacher's wife, Qin Rei was a very traditional woman, her filial piety towards her teacher's wife was immeasurable.

Omi continued to resurrect.

Originally, he wanted to resurrect people from the technological world, such as Liu Xiangyun and the like, but Omi was afraid of continued agitation, so he also wanted to decide to resurrect a few brothers and sisters from the Divine Dragon School first.

After that, Big Brother, Second Senior Brother, Third Senior Sister, Fourth Senior Sister, and Fifth Senior Sister, all resurrected one by one.

Omi and the long-lost senior brothers had an emotional embrace, so naturally, there was no need to say more.

Finally, it was the turn of the people from the other side of the mortal world.

The first to be resurrected was, Liu Xiangyun, as he was the first girl Omi had met in the other world.

"Husband."

"Xiang'er, it's so good to see you again." Omi said as he hugged Liu Xiangyun and Omi looked at her carefully, as if it was the same as when he was once at that White Cloud High School.

Only, Liu Xiangyun saw herself so young, a little uncomfortable: "Husband, why did you make me so young ah, are not used to it, when I died, I was already a hundred and forty years old, now I feel strange."

"Who wouldn't want to be young when they have the chance. Besides, my husband is so young now, like a twenty year old boy, how are you an old woman."

"Well well, how about our sons and daughters, and grandchildren, when will they be resurrected? I'll be so young by then, won't I be?" Liu Xiangyun said awkwardly, after all, when in the mortal world, one was already used to an old woman, suddenly turning young again, not used to it.

"Xiang'er, this is the Immortal Realm, in the Immortal Realm, almost all fathers and sons, mothers and daughters look almost young, you'll get used to it later."

"You can put on your clothes first." Omi said taking out his clothes.

Liu Xiangyun looked at her so upright chest and said with some embarrassment, "I'm really not used to it at the moment."

"Hahaha."

After that, Omi resurrected Li Xuan'er, Song Yu'er, Shangguan Rou, and others.

I will not recount them one by one here.

After that, Omi resurrected Xu Mei Qian, Qi Xue Yun, Han Xiaomeng, Liu Rui, Xiao Hei, Yang Yijian, and so on and so forth who were once in the mortal realm.

By the time Omi finished resurrecting all those who had known each other and deemed it necessary to resurrect them, it was already several months later.

But . Still, the total number of people Omi had resurrected was only a few thousand .This included the Fairy Mother and the Dragon King. In short, everyone that one could think of had already been resurrected.

The rest, there was no need for them, such as the once four villains of White Cloud High School and the like, who were merely momentary acquaintances.

Then, Omi prepared to resurrect the last man, the former owner of the Flip Mirror.

An hour later.

"Senior, congratulations."

"Omi, thank you for resurrecting me, moreover, you also used the Hong Meng divine Stone to resurrect me, so that my strength will soon be restored to the original, thank you, I won't forget your great kindness."

"I'm the one who wants to thank Senior for helping me, if it wasn't for Senior helping me, I definitely wouldn't be able to resurrect my once deceased relatives." Omi said.

"My name is Gu Yan, from now on, you are my brother."

"Thank you, big brother."

"Haha, Brother Tang."

After finishing, Omi walked out the door.

Everyone was waiting outside.

Omi scanned all the family members in front of him, no matter if they were once in the mortal realm or some friends he knew in the spirit realm, Omi had all been resurrected.

Gu Yan said, "Brother Tang, you reunite with your loved ones first, I'll go first."

"Good."

Gu Yan flew away.

Omi was faced with so many of his former family members, and was at a loss for words.

Omi smiled, "Everyone, I'm so happy that we can be together again, and this time, I guarantee that all of you will live forever. I believe that you all have a preliminary understanding of what the Immortal World is like at this moment. Come, I'm going to hold a rebirth dinner tonight."

Omi immediately ordered his subordinates to prepare, and a super grand rebirth dinner began at nightfall.

Omi focused on introducing his former family members to Tang Huan and the other women he met later, and everyone was very welcome.

This banquet didn't end until the next morning.

When it ended, Omi shouted, "Next, all of you, I will bestow a rebirth gift on them."

The so-called rebirth gift was a bowl of Hong Meng Liquid for each person.

Omi said, "By drinking this Hong Meng Liquid, all of you can legitimately become an Immortal who is at least an Earth Immortal."

"Thank you." Omi's relatives had tears in their eyes, they all knew that they would have died and it was Omi who had brought them back to life. Not all of these people were Omi's blood relatives, some were friends, some were descendants of friends, some were just people who had once known each other and had some friendship.

One man's success, the chickens and dogs rose to heaven, perhaps, very similar to Omi's current situation.

Omi had accomplished something, and once no matter how weak he was, he got the chance to ascend to heaven.

After drinking the Hong Meng Liquid, Omi announced that the rebirth feast was over and everyone went back to their homes to close the door.

It took Omi six or seven months to resurrect all these people, and during this time, these resurrected people almost understood what the Immortal World was like, and Omi had already built a house for all of them on High Heaven Island, waiting for their distribution after resurrection.

Everyone dispersed, and what remained were Omi's closest wives.

Omi smiled and embraced all the wives in his arms, smiling with joy, "I, finally, did it."

"Husband, we are proud of you." Xu Mei Qian said.

"Hehe, from now on, our family will be together forever."

Omi burst out laughing.

From then on, Omi, his wives, and all his relatives, living happily in the Immortal World, on Gao Tian Island, there would be no more separation, no more death, and they would be happy together forever and ever.
