

King of kings

"It turns out that it wasn't the beginning of heaven and earth at all."

"Nor was there a first or second era, that was all a figment of the imagination of the descendants."

"The first ten humans that appeared, they, it turns out, were all descendants of the ten gods that were once in this world."

Omi smiled bitterly.

The voice behind him said, "Yes, they are all the descendants of gods, and the will of the evil gods in the Evil God Relic is not available to anyone."

"What do you mean?"

"If I'm not mistaken, the Evil God must have prepared it for his offspring, and the Evil God also had an offspring chosen into the plan."

"In other words, those ten earliest humans, one of them, is the Evil God's offspring, and only he, can obtain the Evil God's will, right?"

"Yes. Those who are not of the Evil God's bloodline can't get it."

"Oh."

Omi's eyebrows furrowed deeply, as if he was thinking about something. First URL m.kanshu8.net

Omi thought to himself, "Those nine earliest humans had already spent countless years in the Evil God's ruins, so why couldn't they obtain the Evil God's will? Could it be that none of those nine of them are descendants of an evil god?"

Then a bold idea arose.

"The Immortal Emperor, the Immortal Emperor is the offspring of the Evil God."

"Oh my god, that stupid idiot Immortal Emperor is the offspring of the Evil God, damn it."

As such, it would explain why those people, who hadn't obtained the Evil God's will, turned out that none of them were the Evil God's offspring.

And the Immortal Emperor, who didn't even dare to enter the uninhabited area, this coward, had never been to the Evil God's Relic.

Otherwise, the Evil God's Will would have been acquired by the Immortal Emperor long ago.

Omi smiled bitterly and said, "Senior, if you're not an offspring of an Evil God, must you be unable to obtain the Evil God's will?"

"The remains of this evil god, the state of preservation."

"Uh, what do you mean?"

"When the world collapsed, each of us, gods, left something behind, but no one can guarantee that what we left behind will ever exist after the world has collapsed, or even if it is completely destroyed. If it's destroyed, it's naturally gone, but if it still exists, it's lucky."

Omi said, "The Evil God's relics, I feel that they have been preserved intact, with very little damage."

"Then, with revenge so intact, it's impossible for outsiders to obtain the Evil God's will, only the Evil God's descendants can."

"Uh-oh." Omi said in his heart, only Immortal Emperors can acquire it, why is this fool always so lucky.

However, only Omi knew this secret, if Omi didn't tell the Immortal Emperor, he wouldn't know anything.

Omi inwardly didn't want to tell the Immortal Emperor, picking up such a big advantage for him, otherwise, if he could spike Omi then, wouldn't he be throwing a stone at his own feet.

At that moment, Omi thought of the word 'offspring'.

Offspring, doesn't necessarily mean Immortal Emperor, right, son, daughter of Immortal Emperor, does that count?

Isn't it the daughter of the Immortal Emperor, Nian Shi, who is the granddaughter of the Evil God by generation?

"Senior, does one have to be the son of an Evil God to obtain the Evil God's Will? surname Sun

Son, is a granddaughter okay?"

"I'm not sure, we won't know until we try, under normal circumstances, it should be possible, after all, it's only one generation of bloodline apart."

Omi secretly nodded his head, next time he went back, he could consider taking Nianxi to the Evil God Relic, Nianxi had been brought to the Evil God Relic before, only, she couldn't enter yet, moreover, Qin Zhong and the others didn't seem to allow her to enter.

Omi suddenly thought of Nianxie's Exquisite Heart, he was busy asking, "Senior, here we are now, there is a Three Realms Ruling Core, called the Hong Meng Heart, whoever gets the Hong Meng Heart can rule the Three Realms, do you know what this is?"

"Oh, that's the plan I just said, it's the Heavenly Salvation System that we created with the combined efforts of the gods, in the future, whoever is the most powerful will be able to obtain the Hong Meng Heart."

Omi's eyes lit up, it was reasonable to say that the Hong Meng Heart that was created by the combined efforts of the gods was not so limited.

Omi asked, "Senior, do you mean that this Hong Meng Heart is something very good?"

"Yes, when we first envisioned that only the strongest could obtain it, we set up a divine temple, and in the temple, we kept many, many desperate divine weapons, and among them, the Heart of the Hong Meng was the king."

Omi said, "However, the one who obtained the Hong Meng Heart today is not the strongest, but the dumbest, he relied solely on luck to obtain it."

"That's impossible, the temple we set up wouldn't be able to rely on luck to obtain the Hong Meng Heart."

"Senior, as far as I know, there was no temple at all in the first place, and even if there was, it was shattered, and many of the best divine weapons and weapons were scattered all over the place."

"Hehe, it seems that the temple we carefully set up was destroyed when the world collapsed, otherwise, it's impossible for anyone to obtain the Hong Meng Heart by luck."

Omi asked again, "Senior, there's another problem, the person who has obtained the Hong Meng Heart now, called Nian Tian, was the dumbest one out of the ten humans in the beginning, after he obtained the Hong Meng Heart, he can control the three realms, but this Hong Meng Heart has many drawbacks, for example, if the three realms collapsed he would have to die with it, so now, as an Immortal Emperor, he has to spend a lot of energy to manage the three realms. This leads to the fact that the rest of us will consider taking it even if we have the ability to grab it."

"No, the Hong Meng Heart was created by pooling the power of our gods, how could it be such a chickensht, surely the person you said was too poorly qualified to discover the true power of the Hong Meng Heart, in his hands, it has instead become a chickensht that limits itself. As for your saying that the collapse of the three realms follows death, this is true, we were just afraid of getting someone who didn't care about the big picture and only cared about himself, that's why we set it up this way in the first place. However, it's not at all as difficult to take charge as you say, this heavenly rescue system of ours, combining the power of the gods, should be able to easily make the entire world in good order, not so easy to collapse. It must be that Niantian, with his poor qualifications and limited abilities, who can't make use of the will of the gods."

Omi was greatly pleased within.

However, it was fortunate that Omi had come here, otherwise, he really would have missed out.

It seemed that Omi would have to go back and take over the Heart of the Hong Meng.

That Hongmeng's Heart was, to put it bluntly, the will of the Gods in the first place.

It was much more advanced than the will of the Evil God, which was just the Evil God alone, and the Will of the Gods was the Gods.

At this moment, Omi's heart was fluttering inside, as if he had discovered a supreme treasure that was just waiting to be discovered.

At this moment, Omi thought of Nian Xie's Exquisite Heart and asked, "By the way, Senior, what is the Exquisite Heart?"
