

King of kings

Chapter 2476

"Even if it's hard, it has to be fixed, those powerful gods, are they born that powerful?"

"That's not true, but any powerful god has been cultivated through thousands of hardships. If I have the life to escape this time, I'm ready to struggle, hiding in my own world every day is really not a productive act. When the future comes, if I can really become a powerful god, what world will I want there will be none, and I'll just rob someone else's great world."

Omi nodded, "Then we're together."

"Yeah, the key is, can we escape, otherwise it's pointless to say anything."

"Let's try our best."

Omi sat at the entrance of the prison, and now, the only way to get information about the outside world was through the conversations of those guards.

One month later.

"This sacrifice to the heavens, I don't think it's so simple, the sound is so huge." One of the guards said.

"Nonsense, you just felt it." The other guard rolled his eyes.

"What, do you have any news?"

"A niece of mine works in the Witchbang God King's house, so I heard some rumors. I heard that the Wubang God King, is refining some kind of divine pill that requires the use of hundreds of divine grains." One Second Remember to Read the Book

"Oh my God, what divine pills?"

"I don't understand, and now, I've heard it's just about the last step in training."

"Why did the Wubang God King keep the news so deadly? It's not like he hasn't refined divine pills in the past."

"Shh, keep your voice down, this time is different, the Wubang Godking has been in the Godking Third Realm for a long time, he desperately wants to become a strong member of the Godking Fourth Realm, this time, he's also open to the idea, taking his own original essence to come, before the Dan was made, the Wubang Godking was very weak, so just in case, the Wubang Godking blocked the news. In case it's known that he's very weak right now, that's a disaster, you mustn't tell anyone about this, otherwise, it will kill us."

"Of course, even if the Wubang God King is very weak, that's not something we can deal with, that would at least require someone from the same God King realm to pick up the advantage."

Omi's expression did not move as he heard the guards' conversation.

This information, Omi thought that it was useless, he couldn't hit the attention of that what-if Dan, and besides, that what-if Dan, hadn't been trained yet.

What mattered most now was to find a chance to escape.

Another month passed.

The two guards seemed a little bored.

"Fuck, a bunch of tied up gods, do we really need to be guarded day and night every day?"

"Yeah, I'm tired of guarding like this every day."

"Fuck, I really want to stop guarding, why should we be assigned to guard, the last time we went to the March World, we won't have made less merit than others."

"Oh, what's the point of us complaining here, let's keep guarding."

"How about tonight, let's live in a different way?"

"Uh, what do you mean?"

"The dead guys can't get away with it anyway, so we'll have a night, go find a woman and have fun?"

"Gulp." The other guard gulped.

Omi's eyes lit up, this was an opportunity.

However, that guard refused, "It's better not to, anyway, it's only eight or nine months from the ceremony, it won't matter if we boil it, if the higher-ups find out, it'll be enough for us to drink."

"Colored heart and no guts, we don't have to go for a long time, we'll be back after the cool, ten minutes at most." One of the guards said.

The other guard heard about the ten minutes and said, "Oh sh*t, ten minutes? It's been too long for you, too."

"Khan." At this moment, Omi almost didn't laugh, what the hell were the creatures of the Wubang world.

Another guard said, "When I say ten minutes, I'm including the time spent on the way back and forth, and then including the time spent flirting with the ladies over a little drink."

"That's more like it."

"Come on, let's go."

"Fine, nothing can happen in a little while anyway."

So, the two guards, acting like they were walking to the door of the prison, shouted, "Behave yourselves."

That night, in the middle of the night, the two guards slipped away.

Omi smiled heedlessly and found his chance.

Omi immediately broke free of the binding rope.

Omi walked over and whispered to Cloud Fox, "When you find your chance, come with me immediately."

"Ah, what about the others?"

"The others don't know,, let's drill away from the ground, don't show any traces, I believe that in this situation, two less people won't attract attention."

Omi immediately disarmed Cloud Fox's binding rope.

"Go." Omi said.

However, that Cloud Fox hesitated and said, "Why don't you take my clan members with you."

"You're insane, you agreed not to bring it, if you bring your clan members with you, where's the trouble."

"Brother Light Cloud, give me half a minute, I promise not to let anyone unrelated know, my clan members and I promise to sneak away quietly."

"Forbidden, it's not a question of quietly, more than thirty people left at once, you heck when the Wubang God King is stupid enough to see it." Omi firmly refused to allow him to take anyone with him.

However, Yun Fox would not be at Omi's mercy now that he was free.

"Brother Light Cloud, give me half a minute, just half a minute." Saying that, Yun Huo disobeyed the advice and went to untie the binding rope for his clan.

Omi didn't bother to pay attention to him and disappeared in a flash, burrowing away from the ground or running himself, otherwise he would definitely be implicated.

Omi quickly emerged from another place.

Without the binding rope, it wouldn't be possible to trap any of the gods.

The Cloud Fox, who was still rescuing his clan, half a minute was not a short time, and it took Omi less than half a second to escape.

After Omi escaped from the prison, he had another feeling of not knowing where to go, and now if he rashly rushed out of the Witch State World, he would definitely alert some gods.

Therefore, the best thing to do now was to find a safe place to hide.

Just then, Omi saw a human figure in front of him.

"Hey, is that a human? There are creatures of a similar species to me here?" Inwardly, Omi was worried that his appearance, which was completely different from the creatures here, could easily be seen, but he never expected to see a creature that looked no different from them.

Omi immediately rushed towards the person in front of him, it was a woman, but only an immortal level woman.

The woman was startled when she saw Omi, then pulled her legs out and ran.

“Hey, wait for me.”

“What are you following me for.”

Omi said, “Girl.” Omi was about to explain and ask for her help, but at that moment, several top gods in the sky rushed towards the prison and shouted, “Everyone within 10,000 kilometers of the Annex is not allowed to move, or else, die.”

This sentence made everyone in the Annex not dare to move a muscle, including the running woman in front of Omi.
