"Hello, Uncle." Omi took the initiative to greet him.

"Who are you?"

"My name is Wen Steal."

"What? You're the Win kid who seduced my daughter?"

"Yes, it's nice to meet you."

"Get out of here."

"Uh, uncle, why is that."

"If you don't get out of here, don't blame me for being rude."

"I'm afraid uncle has misunderstood me, I, Wen Someone, am handsome and a genius, I shouldn't be treated like this ah."

"Hey, how did your realm turn into a middle-grade immortal?" At that moment, Jemmy's father was busy asking.

"Oh, just practiced up." Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

"Yeah, I asked someone about it earlier, didn't I. You're stupid."

"You could be mistaken for someone with the same name as me."

Jemmy said, "Father, Wen Stealing just came to our house to pick up for a few days, no other meaning."

Omi stayed at Jumei's house for half a month.

It was getting closer and closer to the date when Yun Fox told Omi.

And Omi, not to mention helping him escape, couldn't even escape himself.

One day, Omi suddenly discovered that Jumei and her father, were preparing a barrel of wine.

"What are you guys doing?" Omi asked.

Jemmy said, "We Lilliputians, for generations, have been good at making wine, and my father, who is the head of the Lilliputian clan, sends wine to the Wubang Shrine every year."

“Sending wine to the Wubang Shrine?What is the Temple of Wuban?”

“Of course it’s the chambers of the Wubang God King, and we brew all the wine that the Wubang God King drinks.”

“Oh oh, so.”

Omi stroked his chin.

“Can I come along?”Don Zimmer asked.

“Yes, but, aren’t you?”

“The most dangerous place is the safest place, and if I can hide in the Wubang Temple, I might find a chance to escape this world.But I don’t know, I’ll get you guys involved.”

Jemmy said, “We’ve been sending wine to the Wubang Shrine for countless years, there are probably hundreds of people who have been sending wine to the Wubang Shrine for countless years, and normally it wouldn’t be noticed, but when you get to the Wubang Shrine, it’s up to you.”

“Okay, thank you.”

The next day, Omi also dressed up as a Lilliputian and followed the same hundreds of other people who had given away wine, and entered the Wubang Shrine without any problems.

“Put the wine here, and then, you can leave.”One of the gods of the Wubang Shrine said.

“Yes.”

Omi, however, didn’t leave and entered the wine cellar and hid in the wine cellar.

In the end, the wine cellar closed its doors.

The people of the Wubang Shrine didn’t think that there would be someone hiding in the wine cellar, after all, there was no point in hiding in the wine cellar.

It was only late at night that Omi ran out of the wine cellar.

However, the door to the wine cellar was locked.

Omi couldn’t get out through the front door, so he had to find another way out from inside the wine cellar.

The wine cellar was huge, completely like a dungeon.

Omi walked along the wine cellar all the way inside.

Although he might not be able to find a way out, but at least, it was safer to hide here than outside.

“Hey, there’s a light ahead.”Omi suddenly noticed light emitting from the depths of the wine cellar.

Omi didn’t immediately jump on it, but hid it, in case there was someone there, wouldn’t it be a self-destruct target.

Omi hid.

After a long time, there was no one to be found, which was why he quietly dived up.

Omi saw that the light was not from the wine cellar, but from a stone wall in front of the wine cellar that shone out.

“Why is there a bright light from the stone wall?”

Omi touched his hand on the stone wall, feeling that this stone wall was thick, at least hundreds of meters thick, and the bright light was coming from hundreds of meters thick beyond.

“There’s a chamber next door, this light, it’s coming from the next chamber, because the wine cellar is dark and that chamber is bright, so that light is coming through the thick stone wall. What kind of light is this that can penetrate such a thick stone wall?” Omi said in his heart.

“I don’t know, is there anyone in that secret room.” Omi really wanted to go through the stone wall to see, but in case there was someone, he was afraid that it would be very dangerous.

At this moment, in the next chamber hundreds of meters thick.

There was a box in the middle of the chamber, and inside the box was a pill that emitted a radiant light, this light was not an ordinary light, it was probably a radioactive light that could pass through the stone wall.

A powerful god was frowning at the pill, divine power in his hands refining the pill.

“There’s still a little bit left, and I don’t know if adding three hundred more gods will make it.” That powerful god suddenly said.

Right now, he was fully focused on that pill, so he didn’t care about the surrounding area, which was directly above this secret room, was his chambers.

That powerful god was the most powerful person in the world of Wubang, the Wubang God King.

When the Wubang God King stopped refining the pills, the light that the pills gave off was instantly gone, and the pills only glowed when he was refining them.

The Wubang God King sighed and leapt out of the chamber to hundreds of meters above the ground, it was getting closer and closer to the so-called Heaven Sacrificing Ceremony, he had to come out to see if the things he needed were ready.

In the wine cellar, Omi was still hesitant to drill through. Suddenly, the light on the stone wall went out.

“Huh? How did it go out?” Omi’s heart was dark.

Omi didn’t know what was going on next door, hundreds of meters thick, and wanted to go over there, but was afraid of what if.

Just like that, hesitating.

Finally, Omi gritted his teeth, “Damn, fear of death is not a good man, since I want to go there so strongly within me, this means that there is great promise after going over there. I’ve heard that that Wubang God King is refining some kind of pill, so maybe I'll just come across it crookedly." Omi kept convincing himself internally.

Omi took a deep breath and said, "Fight it out."

Thus, Omi immediately drilled through the thick stone wall.

The stone wall was very hard, and after drilling for a long time, he finally drilled through, but never expected that there would be a restriction around that secret room.

The restraint blocked Omi.

The thick stone wall couldn't block it, but a thin layer of restraint couldn't break through no matter what.

"Damn it, should have thought of that." Omi gas a curse, now this drill is good, not only did not enter the secret room, but also exposed his own tracks.

"I don't know what it takes to enter the secret room, this restriction, it's the God King's restriction, what method do I have to use to break this restriction?"

Omi tried to poke it with his finger, the ban was solid.

Omi was about to give up, but suddenly, the ground trembled.

"Bang." The restraining system, receiving a strong hit, broke.

"Ah, no." Omi was startled.

What Omi didn't know was that right now, on the ground, there was a war going on.

"Wubang God King, I heard, you're refining some kind of divine pill, hand him over." A God King who was stronger than the Wubang God King threatened. The Wubang God King was a God King of the Third Realm, and the God King who came to ask for the divine Pill was a God King of the Fourth Realm, this God King of the Fourth Realm was the next door neighbor of the Wubang World, called the Wotto World, and throughout the ages, the Wubang World and the Wotto World, these two neighbors had been fighting.
