

King of kings

2480

A month later, Omi managed to get to the bottom of the main world, this time, it wasn't as unlucky as the last time, and he didn't encounter any dangers along the way.

Omi stood outside the main world, surprisingly, he found that the main world was so huge, and, people were coming and going. That's right, the main world was like a city, large numbers of people entered and came out, as if this main world was a public place, Omi was originally worried that something would happen if he rashly entered the main world, but now it seemed completely unnecessary.

Omi also flew into the main world, no one noticed him, as if he was an inconspicuous passerby.

After entering the main world, Omi found that there were really damn many gods here, all the other small worlds only had dozens of hundreds of gods, but this main world, it could almost be said that the ground was full of gods, there was a feeling that the main world was the 'capital'.

The ground of the main world was very flat, as if it was a super-sized city, except for the most central area where no one was allowed to fly, the rest of the sky flew like mosquitoes.

Omi landed on a street.

On this street, there were also many shops, but what was traded inside was not ordinary things, the monetary unit, the Hong Meng Liquid.

A single drop of the Hong Meng Liquid was the smallest unit.

No wonder before, the people of the Huo Lun God King had demanded that the Heavenly World pay 300 million drops of the Hong Meng Liquid for 100 million years.

Omi walked into a place with the name 'Per Beast Meat Shop'.

"Hello, do you need some Per Beast Meat?" A man asked, and of course, this man was of fairy level.

Omi asked casually, "How much? Also, what is Per Animal meat?"

"Uh, you're not so much, you don't even know Per Animal Meat."

"First time out of the universe, sorry."

"Oh, so, you're from the outer world."

"Right."

In the eyes of the people of the main world, there were only two places, the outer world, the main world. Similar to the outsiders, the locals.

"Well, objective, Per Beast Flesh, is a kind of creature that lives in the universe, this creature has no intelligence, but, the strength is very strong, because it has lived in the universe for a long time, so his flesh is very extraordinary, comparable to ordinary divine pills, taken all year round, the effect is very obvious, equivalent to years of closed-door cultivation."

"Erm, you mean, if I take Per Beast meat all year round, then I don't need to retreat and cultivate."

"Yes, of course, if you take it all year round and cultivate, then you'll have the equivalent of two 'incomes' and your strength will grow faster than others."

"I see, then give me a taste of it."

"Okay."

Omi suddenly shouted, "Wait, what's the price?"

That Objective said, "A small bowl requires 100,000 drops of Hong Meng Liquid."

"Damn, so expensive."

"Oh, objective, our shop's Per Beast Meat is already the most affordable, if you're strapped for cash, then"

"Who says I can't afford it, give me one, in a small bowl."

"Okay Le."

Just like that, Omi came with a bowl of Per Beast Meat.

After bringing it over, Omi cursed in anger, "This bowl, it's not as big as my palm, damn."

"Oh, objective, if you feel it's less, then you can have a big bowl, a big bowl of 300,000 drops of Hongshen, or even a super big bowl, a million drops of Hongshen."

"No need."

Omi ate a few bites and finished it.

Omi licked his lips.

It was indeed quite delicious, I thought, I've never eaten anything delicious in my life, but I didn't expect it to be this delicious. Compared to the immortal food he had eaten before, it was like the difference between weed and rice cereal.

Omi was so open-minded that he shouted, "Give me another bowl, a super bowl."

"Okay Le."

This time, the bowl was bigger, and Omi rinsed and quickly finished it.

As soon as it was eaten into the stomach, it immediately turned into the ability to enter every cell of the body, so it still felt like there wasn't enough to eat.

"How come Super Bowl is also so uneaten." Omi scolded in anger.

"Guest, you don't know, this thing, as soon as you eat it, it's immediately absorbed away, if you want to warp eat it, you have to let your body suck it up. If you want your body to suck it full, you'll have to have another nine dozen Super Bowls to do it."

"Oh sh*t, wouldn't that make you poor."

"Oh, so it's not like ordinary people can afford to eat it, it's only for gods, and not just any god, it has to be a bit of a powerful god."

Omi thought about it, with his possessions, he probably wouldn't be able to eat it for a month, Omi was the ruler of a world, if he were an ordinary god, he wouldn't have control over a world at all, he wouldn't be able to consume it at all.

Omi said, "Let me ask, I want to come to the main world to practice, do you have any instructions?"

That point two was startled and smiled, "Come to practice ah, this, I don't understand, but everyone says that the main world is full of opportunities, it depends on who can seize it."

"Damn, saying that is the same as not saying it."

"Guest, why don't I ask our Eldest Miss for you."

"Who is your eldest sister?"

"A god too, she's the one who opened this Per Beast Butcher Shop of ours, and our eldest sister is quite powerful in the main world, otherwise she wouldn't be able to afford to open it."

"Oh oh, well ask then."

"Okay, I'll get back to you later." Dot Dot Dot Dot Dot Dot left.

Omi smiled bitterly, he was just saying that casually.

But the dotted second was very serious and really returned shortly after.

"Guest, I asked for you, and it's the first time our eldest miss has met a guest like you, and he said that he wants you to go to the backyard."

"Er, your eldest miss wants to see me?"

"Yes."

Omi immediately followed the dotter to the backyard.

In the backyard, it was very quiet, far less noisy than the shop. This Per Beast Butcher Shop occupied a large area, and the terrain was rectangular.

"My lady, that customer just came."

"Well, tell him to wait, I'll call him when I'm done."

"Yes."

Omi waited outside a pavilion.

In the pavilion, a tingling young girl stood there, not knowing what she was doing, constantly rubbing a glowing orb in her hand.

Not long after, the maiden opened her eyes and shouted, "Come in."

Omi walked in.

This maiden, who had a very strong Qi, was actually an Upper Grade God, but as for how many horses it was, it was unknown. The looks were also quite handsome, with a show of youthfulness.

"Junior pays his respects to Senior."

"There's no need, looking at your age, you may not be younger than me, and I'm not used to being called senior." The young girl said.

Omi was embarrassed.

What a person compared to others, Omi was still very slow in cultivating compared to others.
