

King of kings

Chapter 2481

"The fellow just said that there was a customer who asked him for information on how he wanted to go about his adventures, it was you, wasn't it."

"Yes."

"This shop, there has never been a customer like this before, so I was also curious for a moment and asked him to call you in, anyway, you come to my shop to spend money, I also have some resources, and I'm in a good mood today, I'm willing to help guide you."

"Thanks!"

"You're welcome, what kind of experience do you want? My main world, I still have some energy."

"I don't know, is there a difference in the calendar?"

The young girl asked, "What world do you come from?"

"Me, from the world of Balala."

"Oh, never heard of it." The young girl also didn't think that Omi was making things up.

Omi also had to think of everyone in the Sky World, and couldn't expose it, the current map was marked as an uninhabited world, so no one in general would go there, naturally no one knew.

Omi said, "I heard that there is some kind of Heavenly God team, what do you think of this?"

The young girl smiled, "You want to join the Celestial God Team?"

"No?"

The young lady said, "The Heavenly God Team, specializing in burning, killing and looting, if that's your ambition, then count me as blind, get out of here right now."

"Ah, I've only heard of the Heavenly Gods Team before, I don't know what it does." Omi was busy.

"Alright, don't explain, I don't think you're a good person either, but you're not too bad of a person, so compromise."

"Oh." Omi was depressed, where did I not look like a good person.

"By the way, my shop, I still need some hunters, are you willing to consider it?"

"What is a hunter?" Omi asked.

"A so-called hunter is one who specializes in hunting various beasts in the universe."

"Oh, you mean, you want me to help you catch the Per Beast?"

"Don't worry, your income is also substantial, and a hunter is also a profession, a profession that is far more popular than the Celestial God Team. If you can become a senior hunter, your fame will also be great, and then everyone will know you, so why would you worry about not having a status in this universe? You can even marry a girl you think is nice and set the pattern in the main world."

"What is an advanced hunter?"

"Based on the classification of the prey you hunt, a hunter can be rated as a non-entry hunter, a one-star hunter, a two-star hunter, a three-star hunter, a four-star hunter, a five-star hunter, a six-, seven-, eight-, or nine-star hunter. Of course, there aren't many nine-star hunters in the entire universe."

"Ooooh, that's kind of interesting."

"Then I'll take that as a yes."

"Okay, I promise, but do you have any other hunters?"

"It's no nonsense, we, at the Per Beast Butcher Shop, specialize in raising a bunch of low-level hunters, i.e., no-good and one- and two-star hunters. Then, we work with several three-star and four-star hunters."

"Understood."

The partnership was that they were not employees of their shop, and the group of low-level hunters they raised were considered employees.

"If you've thought about it, congratulations, you can officially step into the hunter industry, I think it's better than you going to the Heavenly Gods Team. There are many Heavenly Gods teams as well, but what they do is never good, at least I'm personally sick of it."

"Thank you Miss for pointing me in the right direction, so I didn't go astray."

"Hehehe, you're welcome." That young girl looked smug, as if she had pulled back a lost person.

Omi also disliked the Celestial God Team, because the Sky World was once destroyed by a Celestial God Team, and if he had a choice, he definitely shouldn't be a Celestial God Team.

"Then I'll have someone take you to stay .

Then you'll be taken to get your hunter's license."

"There's still a hunter's license." Omi said to himself, "Does this still require an induction certificate?"

"Of course, you can do it if you don't want to, but if you don't, you won't be able to judge the title of hunter, and no one will know if you kill even the most powerful beast, and no one will become famous if they don't know."

"Ohhh, I see." Omi smiled, the titles all ran out, but yes, without the titles, even if you are powerful, who will believe you. For example, once an accountant in the mortal world, a builder, etc etc etc.

"Where to do it?"

"Of course we're going to the Hunter's Union, don't worry, someone will take you there."

Not long after, a young man came, this young man was also a lower god, but he was a thirty-five horse lower god.

"Can, he's a newcomer, he'll be a professional hunter in our shop from now on, take him to the hunter's union and register him."

"Yes, Miss." That Ah Can said respectfully.

At that moment, that young girl asked, "By the way, what's your name?"

Omi said, "My name is Wind Lightning."

"Okay, go."

Can smiled at Omi, "Brother, follow me."

"Thanks."

Omi walked away.

A Can took Omi and went outside to the street.

A Can said, "My name is A Can, welcome, Wind Light."

"Oh, thank you, I'm new here, please take care of me."

"It should be, I'm our shop, the only unranked hunter, now you're here, after that, I have company." A Can smiled.

"Haha, is that so, how long have you been in the business?"

"It's been about a hundred million years, but unfortunately, I'm still an inexperienced hunter."

"It's so hard to rate the title of hunter."

"Yeah, you have to kill a relative number of Cosmic Beasts and be recognized as such before you can rate."

Omi nodded and asked, "Achan, what is your dream?"

"Uh, my dream?"

"Right."

"Hey, my dream is to become a powerful hunter of the universe." Achan said with an expectant face.

"Erm, is that dream hard to achieve?"

"Crap, it wouldn't be a dream if it was that easy to achieve."

"How many stars does it take to shake the universe?" Don Omi asked.

"I think it needs to be at least eight stars. Unfortunately, dreams will always be dreams, it's too hard."

"Why?"

"If you want to become an eight-star hunter or above, you must have hunted at least a hundred divine beasts of the divine Emperor level, which means that you must have the strength of a divine Emperor in itself, ah divine Emperor, not everyone can become that strong."

"Oh, also." Omi smiled and comforted, "If the heart is there, the dream is there, cheer up, it will be possible."

"Uh, what does cheer up mean?"

"It means keep trying." Omi laughed, he couldn't use the word cheer up in the future.

"Hmmm, you too, Light Cloud, what's your dream?"

"My dream." Don Omi was stunned.

Yes, what was Don Omi's dream?

Once upon a time, Omi's dream was to become an Immortal Emperor.

However, now, the Immortal Emperor has already become one and has become a god.
