

King of kings

Chapter 2486

"Oh, thank you, Light Cloud."

"You're my brother, what are you thanking me for." Omi smiled.

This Can, who was really nice, Omi helped him out.

Previously, Omi knew nothing about the God Realm, but now, Omi knew quite a bit about the God Realm.

God, isn't that so.

Omi quickly upgraded to a one-star hunter, and the union issued Omi a medal, but of course, this medal was tied to Omi's divine field, so it couldn't be forged.

"Wind Lightning, you can hang the medal on your chest, so that others will know your identity at a glance."

"Forget it, what's there to show off about a one-star hunter." Omi said laughingly.

Just at this moment, a noble temperament man walked in.

When the union man saw it, he immediately bowed, "Meet Mr. Go Jun."

That noble man, however, said, "Go immediately and call a few hunters above six stars for me, it must be fast, I must catch up before anyone else, this time if the task is completed, I will be rewarded tenfold." First URL m.kanshu8.net

"Ah, Mr. Gojun, what happened?"

"It's nothing, so get on with it."

"Yes."

Omi looked at the noble man and wondered why that fellow was in such a hurry. Before anyone else does?

Team Light Cloud, let's go, back to the shop."

Omi said, "Captain, who is that man?"

"Where do I know him, but, looking at that outfit, and also the aura he exudes, he must be from the family of a major figure in the main world. Let's go, Wind Lightning, this kind of person is not something we small gods can look up to, hurry back to the shop and turn in."

Omi asked again, "Captain, didn't you just hear how anxious he was, looking like he had found something good? I was thinking, "Could it be that it's related to the Tianze Divine Desolation. When we were coming back from the Tianze Divine Wilderness, we ran into a group of people, running like crazy to the inside of the Divine Wilderness, could it be, what good things are inside the Divine Wilderness?"

The captain was speechless, "So what if it is, do you think it's someone at our level who can rob it? Can't you see that people, beckoning is hiring a six-star hunter?"

"Oh." Omi was stopped by Acchan from walking out.

Just then, Omi saw a familiar woman on the far side of the union.

"Hey, isn't that Missy?" Omi was shocked, the main hall of the union was huge, Missy was at the other end, joking with a man at the moment, however, looking at Missy, she seemed to be getting ready to go out.

Omi felt more and more that that Tianze God Wilderness, was there something good about it.

Omi couldn't hold it in any longer and said to the others, "You guys help me bring the Per Beast Meat back to the shop."

"Er, Light Cloud, where are you going?" Achan asked.

"I'm going for a walk, don't worry guys, I won't be gone long."

"Okay, then you go early and return early."

The captain brought Omi's eight Per Beasts back with him.

Omi felt more and more inside that something good must have appeared.

Since Omi had encountered it, he had to fight for it.

Although Omi's strength was low, but where so what.

Thus, Omi immediately went to the Tianze Divine Wilderness.

A day later, Omi arrived at the Tianze Divine Wilderness.

Omi stood at the edge of the Tianze Divine Wilderness.

"Am I really alone inside the Heavenly Saw Divine Desolation by myself?"

"With my current strength, if I run into a powerful beast, wouldn't I be looking for death? Omi, Omi, you're really dead pig not afraid of boiling water ah, not even sure if there is really any treasure, just want to come and grab it, you think you can be as lucky every time as the last time in the witch state world ah." Omi scolded himself.

Omi hesitated.

"Damn it, go in, I'm afraid I won't get anything if I die." So, Omi hardened his head and headed deeper into the Tianze God Desolation.

But at that moment, a loud roar came from ahead.

Omi knew from the sound that it was a powerful divine beast.

“Damn, it seems that I can’t go any further, knowing that there is a tiger on the mountain, this is not courage, this is looking for death. Since that’s the case, I’ll just wait here, if I’m really that lucky, I can come across something good even if I don’t enter the Tianze divine Wilderness, just sitting here.”

Omi sat down right where he was, he just wanted to try to see if he was as lucky as he had been the last time in the Witch State World.

Three days and three nights later.

Omi suddenly saw a white shadow flying in front of him.

The shadow was extremely fast, so fast that it couldn’t see anything at all.

“What is it?” By the time Omi tried to look, the shadow had already flown into that hole in the mountain ahead.

At that moment, there was a clamor from behind, and a group of people were coming after it.

In the blink of an eye, that group of people ran up.

“Where did it go?”

“I don’t know that it is, running in this direction.”

“We must find it out, don’t let the others get ahead.”

At this moment, Omi was shocked to see that his luck was really so good that he was sitting here waiting, but he actually waited.

Omi even wondered if someone was secretly helping him, otherwise, how could there be a person who had such good luck twice in a row.

However, it was too early to say that luck was good, after all, Omi didn’t get it again.

At that moment, a group of people chasing after him came up, and one of them asked, “Hey, kid, did you just see a white shadow?”

This person who asked Omi to speak was at least at the level of a God King, of course, the group of people who chased after him later were almost all at the level of God Kings, Omi was under so much pressure facing a group of God Kings.

However, Omi shook his head and said, “No, what white shadows? I’m here hunting the Per Beast and I didn’t see it.” Omi wouldn’t tell them the truth.

One of the God Kings snorted, “Kid, if you dare to deceive me, I’ll kill you.”

Omi said, “I really didn’t see any white shadows.”

At that moment, another person said, “Forget it, just kill this kid, this trash, only 30 horses of the Lower Gods, it’s strange that he can see the shadow of a divine deer.”

"Just as well, slaughter it."

"Hey, wait." Omi shouted.

"Kid, don't tell me you really saw it?"

"I didn't see any shadows, but, I felt as if there was something that flashed by on my left side in a whirling manner, I really don't know anything else, you guys also know that I'm too weak." Omi's words, that group of people still quite agreed, because in their eyes, something that even they couldn't catch, how could Omi, a person so weak, see a shadow.

That leader said, "Chase."

Thus, the group immediately went after them in the distance.

After they left, the corner of Omi's mouth lightly popped up and said under his breath, "Only a fool would really tell you guys."
