Chapter 2513

"Guest, I'm sorry, the tenant before this room, hasn't been back for half a month, he must have died in the Divine Plains You Forest, wait a moment, I'll clean it up right away."

omi said, "No need to clean it, I don't care, I'm not here to enjoy it."

"Alright then, guest, you also entered the Divine Plains You Forest for training, right?"

"Right."

"Guest, good luck, in fact, we often have rooms in this inn that haven't come back to stay for ten days and half a month, and then I heard that they died in the Divine Plains You Forest."

That shopkeeper said in his heart, "Another one who came to die, perhaps, one day in a certain year or month, this guest, who also didn't come back to stay for a long time, died in the Divine Plains Youlin."

The shopkeeper withdrew.

omi looked at the room, which still had the relics of the previous guest left behind.

omi knew from looking at the relics that the last guest who stayed in this room was a woman, and it should be a more clean and tidy woman, as the room was made very warm and feminine.

Almost all the guests here stay for thousands and thousands of years or more, until one day they suddenly never show up again.

So the previous tenant of this room looked like he had lived here for a long time as well. First URL m . kanshu8.net

As omi sat on the bed, a faint fragrance immediately came from the nest, and even though no one had lived there for ten days and half a month, the smell of the previous tenant was still left behind.

This smell, very feminine, omi was not disgusted or disgusted when he smelled it, but rather somewhat fascinated.

omi said in his heart, "What kind of room is this for a girl to live in?Unfortunately, she's gone for good, so I wish you a safe journey."

Just then, omi found a letter in a small cupboard on the bedside table.

“Huh? A letter?”

omi immediately opened the letter, which read, “If I hadn’t come back, then I would have died in the Divine Plains Youlin. I’m not afraid of death, I’m more afraid of being bullied than death. I don’t know if the person who sees this letter is the shopkeeper’s second, or the shopkeeper’s owner, or, the next tenant. I have a wish in my heart that I can lead my family to prosperity, that I can wage war against the enemies who once slaughtered my loved ones. My name is Purple Leaf, I have lived in this inn, for almost a million years, this place is like my home, this time, I am going to go to the Storm Forest of the Divine Plains Youkai Forest, it is dangerous there, but I, desperately want to be stronger, may this letter, prove that there was once a person named Purple Leaf, who once existed in this universe.”

omi sighed, “You existed, rest in peace.”

Old Sang came.

“Wind Lightning, do you need me to change rooms with you?”

“No need, it’s nice here, a girl lived here before, it’s quite cozy, the air still smells like her, I like her smell.”

“Haha, Windy, that’s fine, no woman, let the smell of a woman sleep with you.”

“Speechless.”

“Then start tomorrow, go into the Divine Plains Ghost Forest, I’ll help you find a strategy.”

“What do you mean?” omi was puzzled.

“There is a strategy to enter the Divine Plains You Forest, and that strategy is all about the treasures left behind by the former people with their lives, if you don’t have a strategy and go in haphazardly, you won’t know how to die, if you have a strategy, you can feel your way across the river and know what’s there and where you need to pay attention, then the success rate will be higher.”

omi was speechless, “Still a strategy, playing a game ah!

“Wind Lightning, don’t underestimate this place ah, after all, this place is not even willing to go deeper than our God Emperor. If possible, it would be best to form a group and take care of each other as well.”

“Khan.”

“Oh, Wind Lightning, the Divine Plains Phantom Forest, it’s extremely mysterious, the deeper you go, the stronger the divine beasts you’ll encounter, and I’ve even heard that you might encounter something good.”

“What’s a good thing?”

"Of course it's the divine crystal of some divine beast. A divine crystal is something more advanced than a divine grid, and the only difference between a divine crystal and a divine grid is that a divine crystal can be freely fused, while a divine grid, although it can also be fused, the host can't improve after the grid is fused."

"I understand this."

"In the Divine Plains You Forest, there are some Divine Beasts that possess Divine Crystals that survive, but, the proportion is very rare."

"Mm, I see."

"By the way, one more thing, if you enter the Divine Plains You Forest and draw out a strategy yourself, then you can take your strategy and sell it, which is a huge gain. Nowadays, some descendants of many God Emperor Families are risking their lives to create a Raider Map in order to make a profit. A strategy map can be sold for at least billions of drops of Hongshen Liquid."

"Mhmm, got it."

"Let's go, let's go buy a Raider first."

"Good."

omi and Old Sang left the inn.

Walking on the street outside, omi saw that there was a Raider Map called 'Suo Yu God Emperor Family Raider Map' in front.

"Wind Lightning, let's go, let's go to the shop that the descendants of the Suo Yu God Emperor made and buy a Raider Map." Old Sang said.

Just then, a passerby next to him said, "You guys are going to buy a Suoba Raider Map?"

"What's the problem?"

The passerby said, "I advise you not to buy their maps."

"Why?" omi asked.

"What the hell, the Raider maps they sell are so rubbish that they don't mark the places that should be marked as dangerous, and don't mark the places that shouldn't be marked. As a result, many of the people who bought their maps are f*cking dead in the Divine Plains You Forest. This kind of trash seller, making money against their conscience, and you guys are still stupid enough to send it?"

"Er." omi was startled, there was still such a thing.

Old Sang said, "This is not impossible, after all, some people did make false claims, and the money was earned anyway. And they are the descendants of the God Emperor family, who dares to do anything, what's worse is that their lives are lost in the Divine Plains You Forest, it's useless to do anything about it."

"Oh." omi felt very fresh.

omi asked, "Then which Raider Map are we going to buy that's more reliable?"

That passerby said, "This one you want to buy for that segment, if you only want to get into the primary segment, then buy the Wu Niu family, if you want to buy the second segment, then choose the Wang Peng family."

"What does the segment mean?"

Old Sang said, "Wind Lightning, the higher the segmentation, the deeper one goes into the Divine Plains Unnamed Forest. This Divine Plains Unnamed Forest is very, very deep, and no one knows exactly how many segments there are."

"Oh."

omi asked, "What is the highest segment of the current Raider Map?"

"It's about twenty-eight stages, and the twenty-eight stage strategy was only provided by one person, and that was a God Emperor himself who made it. Because, the only person who can enter the twenty-eight stage position is a God Emperor."
