

King of kings

Chapter 2514

omi had bought a strategy map and spent three billion drops of Hongshen Liquid, of course, this was paid for by Old Sang, omi was going to enter the Divine Plains Unnamed Forest tomorrow.

omi had a feeling inside that this Divine Plains Youlin was hiding something.

Old Sang smiled, "Everyone knows what is hidden, but the strongest God Emperors can only enter the twenty-eighth stage position, even if they are hiding something, no one knows."

omi thought about it, in the entire universe, the Divine Plains You Forest was the only place where even God Emperors couldn't set foot in.

That night, omi went to sleep smelling the scent of the previous tenant woman in his bed.

The next morning, omi was ready to depart with his strategy.

Old Sang escorted omi to the entrance.

"Wind Lightning, I won't accompany you in, after all, the adventure is a personal matter, there's no point in others accompanying you."

"Master, don't worry, I don't know how many times I've gone through the adventure since I was a child, what is the Divine Plains You Forest."

"Well, I want you to be back by every night."

"Come back every day?How is that possible."omi. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Wind Lightning, the previous tenant of that room of yours, the previous tenant, was ruled dead after not returning for half a month, what does this mean, it means that she returned every day before."

"Master, if I go deep into the Divine Plain Phantom Forest for a long distance, how can I return every day?How much time is this going to take?"

"Haha."Old Sang laughed and said, "I forgot to tell you, the Divine Plains Youlin is a mysterious place that hides something that cannot be thought of with normal thinking.No matter how many locations you go to, you can instantly return to the starting point in place, and then the next day, you can instantly return from the starting point to the same place you returned to yesterday, which means that once you've already passed through the place, you don't need to walk through it again."

"I'll go, it really can't be measured by normal thinking."

"Go on."

"Good." omi walked inside from the entrance of the Divine Plains Phantom Forest.

omi walked according to the map in his hand, which suggested that a few tens of kilometers further on, a group of Sky Wolf Divine Beasts would appear, numbering around 10,000.

The strategy map also stated how to most perfectly avoid this group of Sky Wolf Divine Beasts, that was, instantly to find the leader of the Sky Wolf Divine Beast, the leader was a Sky Wolf Divine Beast with a green flower on its head.

omi smiled bitterly, what the hell do you call an adventure, you've been told what to do, the main thing is, omi had one thing he didn't understand, did, everyone who took this route, would they encounter the Sky Wolf Divine Beast? If not, for so long in the past and present, that group of celestial wolf beasts would have been killed off by now.

omi traveled a few tens of kilometers forward and arrived at his destination.

"Where are the celestial wolf divine beasts? Where is it? Why not?" omi shouted.

At that moment, omi saw that there were many bones on the ground, looking at the shape of the bones, they somewhat resembled those of the Heavenly Wolf Divine Beasts, these bones were probably all dead for tens of thousands of years.

omi said in his heart, "Don't tell me that all the Sky Wolf divine Beasts originally marked on this map, they have all been killed off long ago?"

At that moment, omi turned to the back of the map and wrote the date of mapping: xxxx year xxxxxx date.

omi did the math and cursed the math: "Damn, this is a map from 50,000 years ago that's expired."

A map from fifty thousand years ago, if put

In fifty thousand years, then, there was indeed still a group of celestial wolf divine beasts here, but placed now, this group of celestial wolf divine beasts had already been slaughtered over and over again by the people who entered in these fifty thousand years, so there were only bones on the ground.

omi threw that strategy map away, and said in his heart, "What a damn waste of my billions of drops of Hongshen Liquid, traitor." However, it was omi's own inexperience that was to blame, and of course, Old Sang was afraid that he was inexperienced as well.

Why were those people from the God Emperor family able to sell maps to make money, it was because, the Raider Map, was not permanent, about a few thousand years, or even less date, the map would fail, and someone would have to come in again to make a new Raider.

And Don omi was cheated because he didn't understand.

omi was in a state of anger when he suddenly had an inspiration and said, "Since this map is invalid, why can't I now explore the route of this map with my own body, and mark out the various beasts again? That way, when I get out, I can also sell a Raider. I might be able to earn back my losses."

So, omi walked on his own while marking the map, for example, where there was originally a Sky Wolf Divine Beast here, omi marked it as a 'safe area'.

omi continued to walk forward.

Suddenly, something appeared out of the mud and wrapped itself around omi's feet, pulling him down to the ground.

omi took a look and saw a tree root-like object.

omi grabbed it and pulled the thing out of the ground with great force, only after pulling it out did he see that it was a huge spider-like thing, and the root-like thing was its foot.

"Chuckle." The spider-like thing spat at omi, spraying yellow slime at him.

omi quickly dodged it.

"Eat my sword." omi instantly used the Three Nothing God Sword.

"Wow." The spider was split in half by omi.

omi didn't relax and watched the ground vigilantly, but he didn't see more spiders running out after that.

omi exhaled and marked it on the map: "There is a spider-like beast here, with claws like tree roots, it spews out mucus, the mucus is incomparably poisonous, when killing this beast, make sure to hit it with a single blow."

omi smiled heedlessly, "Is this the strategy? Interesting."

omi continued on, and after that, he came across two more, both with the same spider beast, and it seemed that the range of the spider beast's activities wasn't just a little bit, it was big after all. omi promptly marked it on the map.

omi thought to himself, "Although there is a strategy map, it is still possible to go on an adventure, after all, a map is a map, after all, it is still necessary to kill these things that hinder everyone's progress. This killing process is an exercise. Of course, if there was no Raider Map, for some low strength, it would be easy to perish. It seems that this Raider Map is also necessary, no wonder it sells for so much."

Soon, it was dark.

omi had been exploring and marking the map, and had forgotten about the darkness.

After it was dark, an extremely terrifying feeling was suddenly born within omi.

“No good, I must hurry back.” omi’s heart immediately moved, secretly saying, “I have to return to the starting point.”

In the next second, omi discovered that he had returned to the starting point of this morning.

Old Sang was waiting for him at the starting point.

“Wind Lightning, you’re back, if you don’t come back, it’ll be dark, God’s Plains Phantom Forest, it’s not suitable for anyone to stay after dark.”
