

Chapter 901

“Brother Tzu-Chen, so now we go back? I’m afraid the light of heaven is about to begin.”

“Back?”

“Brother Omi, we’ve been in this underground city for ten days, we haven’t eaten for ten days, and even though we’re martial arts practitioners, we’re already hungry from the front.”

Omi laughed, “So anxious to go back, I’ve just recovered my power, and I haven’t even made a big show of it yet.”

“What else do you want to show off your prowess?”

“Since the Emperor Worm is invisible, can I still find the Emperor Worm at some point.”

“Brother Omi, didn’t you say that there’s only one Emperor Worm in an underground city?”

Omi shook his head, “No, now I’ve changed my mind, before I was only hearing about it, now that I’ve discovered that emperor worms are invisible, it’s only possible that the person who came to this conclusion didn’t discover that emperor worms are invisible and then happened to encounter one, and then never found a second one after that, that’s why it’s rumored that there’s only one in an underground city. It’s not like there are two tigers in one mountain, I’m not sure I believe that.”

“Fine, then let’s look for more, if we can really find more then that would be great.”

Next, Omi continued to use the same method, as understanding the feature of ‘invisibility’ gave Omi a lot of experience in capturing emperor worms.

Ten hours later.

“Haha, we’ve caught the seventeenth one, so keep looking again.”

“Brother Omi, we’ve already gone twice, I don’t think there are any more.”

“We have to keep looking even if there aren’t any, besides, there’s only seventeen, it’s not enough to distribute.” Omi said.

“Brother Omi, how do you want to distribute them? Do each of those friends of yours eat one?”

“Right, also, you and your grandfather, at least make sure you have one each, after all, this is within the Gomorrah Empire.”

“Thank you, by the way, brother Tzu-Chen, I have a question.”

“Please say it.”

“You said that taking one Emperor Insect can increase your lifespan by decades, so if you take ten Emperor Insects, can you increase your lifespan by hundreds of years?”

Omi laughed, “Such a low-level question is meaningful to ask, do you think it’s possible? It’s not like this emperor insect is an immortal pill, according to you, if I eat ten thousand emperor insects, wouldn’t I be immortal forever.”

“Brother Omi, I still don’t seem to understand.”

“Oh, it’s simple, just now you said you were hungry, right, so, now that I’m giving you a bowl of rice, will you not be hungry right away? If you were given a hundred bowls of rice, would you not have to eat for a month?”

“How is that possible.”

“Yeah, same thing.”

“Then if you eat ten emperor worms, what level can you really reach.”

“What a silly princess, it’s the same reasoning as if you ate one bowl of rice and ten bowls of rice, the result is that you’re full for this meal and still hungry for the next. Eating an emperor worm, the first time you eat it, you might be able to increase your lifespan by decades, the second time you eat it, you can only add a few more years, the third time you eat it, it might be a few months, and the fourth time you eat it, it might be a few more days. So, an emperor worm, eating it once is enough, it’s a waste to eat it again.”

“Oh.”

Just like that, Omi and Princess Zhou’er both talked and chatted while searching for the Emperor Worm.

Omi was in a very good mood as he had recovered his power and had gotten seventeen more Emperor Insects.

Unfortunately, after getting seventeen Emperor Insects, he couldn’t find the eighteenth one anymore.

Only seventeen, Omi.

Not yet a score, at least one score less.

So, Omi didn't want to give up even though he was dying.

"Roar." Just at this moment, a roar was suddenly heard.

Princess Zhou'er was busy saying, "Brother Omi, it can't be an underground fire demon, the spewing flames will melt anything in one go, and those who are not as strong as it can't even protect their abstruse energy."

Omi said, "Fire Demon is Fire Demon, now that I've recovered my power, I won't suffer any more nesting anger, I've been holding back for a long time, come on, Fire Demon."

"Brother Omi."

"Don't talk, you go far away."

"Oh, be careful then."

"I know." Omi nodded his head.

The roar was getting closer and closer, and I don't know where it was coming from, seeing as this underground city didn't have any deep pits or big holes, so Omi guessed that the fire demon couldn't be very big, or it wouldn't be able to tolerate it at all.

At this moment, a blazing breath rushed towards Omi.

Omi used the Ghost Wheel Determination, and with a flash of an arrow, a meter-deep pit appeared where he was standing, where the rocks were melted by the flames. The flames that had just suddenly spewed out were not as big as Omi had imagined, just a small flame.

“Drink.” The punch of Omi’s enormous strength went in a certain direction.

A red shadow flashed, and it burrowed into the stone cracks of the underground city.

“Boom.” Omi’s 100,000-pound punch struck the stone wall, and it shattered into a huge opening.

However, the black shadow disappeared.

Omi’s effort was in vain.

One hundred thousand pounds of punch, and Omi could only deliver two punches, there was still one punch left Omi must not use again, unless it was absolutely necessary, otherwise Omi would be completely exhausted inside.

“Fine, then I won’t take the initiative to attack, since my Herculean Power is so depleted, I don’t believe that this fire demon’s high-temperature flames aren’t depleted, maybe, it can only spray twice.”

Omi braked with silence, always paying attention to his surroundings.

“Wow.” Suddenly, another blazing flame sprayed.

Omi’s Ghost Wheel Decision speed completely surpassed the speed of the flame spray.

“Drink.” At this moment, Omi seized the opportunity and blasted a punch in a certain direction.

“Bang.” That red shadow was suddenly blown into the stone wall by Omi’s punch.

Omi rushed up and stabbed it with his sword.

“Don’t don’t kill me.” At that moment, Omi’s ears heard the spiritual message of that earth beast begging for mercy.

This kind of spiritual transmission of information, ordinary people couldn’t sense it, but Omi heard it, and in the past, at the bottom of the Star Ocean Academy’s sea floor, Omi had also spoken to the sea beast all the time.

“Swoosh.” You earth beast, and you dare to beg for mercy on me.”

“Senior, senior, I don’t dare, please spare my life.” The earth beast sent out a mental message and said.

Princess Zhou’er was baffled and said, “Brother Omi, are you talking to it?”

“Yes, this fire demon actually begged for mercy on me, but of course, it sent a mental message that an ordinary person wouldn’t be able to perceive.”

“Ah.”

Omi was now finished with two punches and had also run out of internal energy, as well as this Earth Beast, it had no energy left.

“Senior don’t kill me, I’m willing to exchange the Emperor Bug with you.”

902

“An emperor worm?”

“Yes, there are a total of twenty Emperor Insects here, and I have three of them, and I’ll offer them all to you if you spare me.”

“Fine, take them out.”

The Fire Demon opened his mouth and spat out three saliva, Omi grabbed it with his hand and three Emperor Worms were wrapped in the saliva.

Omi immediately put the emperor worms in a glass bottle.

Yay, nineteen in total, including the twenty that Omi had eaten.

“Are you sure there are only twenty?”

“Yes.”

“How are you sure?”

“My grandfather told me.”

“Your grandfather?” Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

“Yes, my grandfather, there are 20 insects living here, and even when my grandfather’s grandfather was a child, these insects already existed, so of course, I’m not a stranger to them.”

“If you’re not a stranger to them, how come you didn’t eat these emperor worms?”

“Senior is joking, we don’t eat these insects, they may be treasures to humans, but not to us.”

“Alright, I won’t kill you today, so go away.”

“Thank you senior for not killing me.”

“Why don’t you leave?”

The fire beast said, “Senior, my grandparents have already died, there’s no point in me being here with one beast, so why don’t you take me away.”

“Uh, I’ll take you with me?”

“Senior, I think you’re a good person and a genius too, let me go with you to the human world to have some fun, okay, I won’t give you any trouble. By the way, my flame is very powerful, I can help you, such as helping you protect your loved ones and so on, as long as you take me away.”

Omi smiled, “Aren’t you afraid that I’ll kill you?”

“My meat doesn’t taste good, and it’s pointless for Senior to kill me.”

“But you’re an Earth Beast, how can you follow me.”

“Even though I’m an earth beast, I also have legs.”

“Fine, then stand up and let me look at your appearance, if it’s too ugly, I won’t take you away.”

“Why?”

“It’s not your fault for being ugly, it’s my fault for taking you out to scare people.”

“Ooh, Senior, then look at me, if I’m ugly, I have nothing to say, then let me be a beast here until I die of loneliness.”

Omi laughed, “You’re quite humorous.”

Omi sized up the fire beast, it had fiery red fur all over its body, it looked like a lion, but it was far bigger than a lion, it was about five meters long and its height reached Omi’s shoulders, it was very majestic.

In fact, Omi thought that this fire beast was very pulling and handsome, in the animal world, it was considered a handsome beast with a very high face value.

Omi smiled and said, “Not bad, although it’s average looking, it’s not very ugly, so come with me.”

“Thank you, Senior.”

“What’s your name?”

“My name is xx.”

“xx?”

“Oh, it’s our language, you might not understand it.”

“Okay, I’ll call you Little Fire from now on.”

“Okay, what’s your name, senior?”

“You may address me as Minister, Don Omi.”

“Servant.”

“Go.”

Omi took an incomparably majestic and handsome looking fire beast with him, and Princess Zhou’er headed for the exit of the Dungeon.

Omi said, “Little Fire, can you only spray flames twice?”

“How is that possible.”

&nbsp;

; “Then why didn’t you just keep spewing flames?”

“Minister, I don’t think there’s any point in me spraying anymore, I’ve been unable to hurt you in the slightest twice in a row, and you, with all that power, if I don’t know what I’m doing, I’m afraid I’ll lose all this handsome hair if that powerful punch hits me.”

“Handsome hairs?”

“Yeah, my grandfather said that once upon a time, a long, long time ago, we Fire Demon Beasts were the kings of the underground, and we were also known as the world’s most handsome beasts, especially because we were covered in handsome fur that was enough to charm thousands of female earth beasts.”

“Haha, well, lied, actually, your face value is really high, and so tall and powerful, to be honest, I think I’m afraid I’m not even on the same level as you compared to your face value.”

“Brother Chen, you’re teasing me, you just said that I’m so ugly, it’s your fault for taking me out to scare people.”

“Hahaha, I’m just jealous that you’re so handsome, I’m just average in the entire human race, but you’re the most handsome in the Earth Beast.”

“Minister, thank you.”

“Little Fire, if you’re so handsome, how come you don’t have a female friend?”

“What’s a mother friend?”

“It means girlfriend.”

“What’s a girlfriend?”

“That’s what a wife means.”

“Whoops.”The fire beast wailed.

“What?”

“I told you, didn’t I tell you, I’m so lonely here with one beast, I’m the only fire beast left in the world since my grandparents died.”

“Oh, that’s pathetic, by the way, are you a male or a female?”Omi suddenly asked, his subconscious thinking it was a male, in case it was a female.

“Of course I’m a male, Chenchen.”

“A male, then aren’t you lonely for a beast?”

“Whoops.”The Fire Demon Beast whined again.

“What now?”

“Minister, to be honest, I’m so lonely, my biggest dream in life is to find a companion, preferably a female fire beast.”

“Haha, miss the female beast.”

“Brother Minister, I’m also a male beast, it’s normal to miss a female beast, right.”

“Well, we’re at the city gate, can your body get out?”

“Brother Minister, my body can shrink, otherwise how can I get into a rock crack.” After saying that, the Fire Demon Beast’s body suddenly shrank, the original huge body that was more than a meter long, this shrinking became the size of a small lion. Although it wasn’t as formidable after becoming smaller, it was cute and adorable.

“Wow.” When Princess Zhou’er saw such a cute little fire demon, she had the feeling like picking it up and playing with it.

Omi laughed, “Five meters long, but it can shrink to the size of a puppy, how did it do that.”

“Haha, I don’t know about that.”

“Let’s go.”

A few minutes later, Omi rushed out of the underground city, and suddenly felt the sunlight was very harsh, it had been more than ten days since he had seen sunlight.

Omi said, “Princess, it’s not too late to rush back and see the light of heaven, right?”

“Well, it’s not too late, let’s go back immediately, it’s really too late, let’s go back to the nearby city, our plane is still there.”

Omi said to the Fire Beast, “Little Fire, do you know how to lighten up? Can you keep up with the speed we’re flying?”

“Brother Minister, our Fire Demon Beast’s ancestor is an underground king, a mere flight is nothing. If Brother Chen doesn’t mind, I’ll carry you on my back, my flying speed will definitely spike you.”

The Fire Demon Beast swayed and its body rose up, turning into a huge creature again. Omi was shocked, didn’t even know how it did it, but shock was shock, the Fire Demon Beast’s flesh was definitely different from human flesh, it should be a flesh that could stretch freely, like a sponge.

903

Omi thought, leaping onto the back of the fire beast and sitting on its back.

“Princess, since it flies fast, you’re welcome.”

“Mm.”

Omi and the princess rode on the fire beast’s body like a horse, the feeling was so handsome that even the Omi sitting on the back felt his face value had increased, this would definitely cause onlookers if he returned to a place where there were many humans.

“Let’s go, Little Fire, I’ll show the way.”

“Good.”

The Fire Demon Beast’s limbs bounced hard, and suddenly shot up into the sky like a rocket, although it couldn’t compare to a shuttle, but it was already fast.

“Wow damn, it really is very fast, I guess it’s already two or three times faster than an airplane.” Omi said in surprise.

“Hey, Chenchen, I’m still just a weak fire beast, I haven’t evolved yet.”

“What do you mean you haven’t evolved yet.”

“It’s just evolution, but it’s not that easy to evolve, my grandparents just never succeeded in evolving in their lives. Anyway, I’m still a little kid.” A second to remember to read the book

“Oh, still a little kid then how do you start thinking about the mother animal?”

“Ahem, Minister, don’t say that ah, people will be embarrassed, adolescence well, full of fantasies about sex, you know.”

“Haha, okay, I get it. Unfortunately, you really only exist in fantasies, there are no female fire beasts in the entire world, so it seems you’ll be fantasizing for the rest of your life.”

“Oooh, I feel so boring living for so long without even touching the mother beast’s fur, and never having the chance.”

Omi patted the fire beast and comforted it, “Why be depressed, believe that the future is bright, maybe there are other fire beasts in this world.”

“There aren’t.”

As Omi and the fire beast chatted, there was no more airplane ride, as the fire beast's flight speed was far beyond that of an airplane.

Omi was really getting curious about this Fire Demon Beast, it seemed that a long, long time ago, the Fire Demon Beast might indeed have been the king of the underground, running in the sky too fast, and so handsome, and its body could compress freely.

The Fire Demon Beast flew for about a day and a half and finally arrived at the capital of the Gomorrah Empire.

"Wow, it's here."

"Where do you land, Minister?"

"Just land on any street."

The Fire Demon Beast landed on the ground, and the people on the street screamed at the sight of such a large 'lion', looking incredulously at Omi and Princess Zhou'er on its back.

"It's the princess, it's Princess Zhou'er." Many people recognized it and shouted.

The princess looked embarrassed and didn't quite like the idea of looking so beckoning, but Omi seemed to quite enjoy being in the spotlight.

The Fire Demon Beast kept arriving at the entrance of the hotel where Omi and the others had stayed before, and the street went all the way up to the hotel with many people following behind.

At this moment, on one of the hotel's floors.

“Look, there’s a big lion over there.”Liu Yue suddenly shouted from the window.

“Wow, a really big lion, but it doesn’t seem to be a lion, the lion’s fur isn’t this color, it’s so powerful.”The rest of the people ran to the window.

At that moment, Yi Tianxing said, “Hey, it seems like there are two people sitting on the lion’s back.”

“Why do I feel like Omi.”

“What resembles, it’s just Omi, I go, Omi hasn’t seen him for half a month, where did he get such a big lion, it’s too awe-inspiring.”

Everyone rushed to the first floor of the hotel.

Omi was already at the front door of the hotel, riding the Fire Devil Beast.

Omi shouted to the crowd of onlookers, “Everyone, stop watching, this is a Fire Devil Beast, it will eat people.”

“Ah.

” many people ran away in fear.

People from Omi’s mercenary group ran out.

“Omi, you’re back, this is?”

Omi introduced, "This is our new companion, called Little Fire, it's a fire beast, all you need to know is that it's called Little Fire. Its strength, I'm afraid that in the late Unity Realm, not many humans are rivals, it's just a little weaker than me." In fact, Omi might not have won the Fire Demon Beast, the Fire Demon Beast couldn't hurt Omi, and the Fire Demon Beast hadn't yet reached adulthood, it was said that it would evolve when it reached adulthood. However.

"Wow, where did you get that?"

"We'll talk more about this tonight, small fire, but it can get smaller or it's too sensational."

"Okay."

In the next second, the huge fire beast disappeared and turned into a cute little lion, all ready to be hugged.

Princess Zhou'er wanted to hug it, as she was already familiar with it all the way back.

However, Princess Zhou'er didn't even hug it with all her strength.

"It's so heavy, why does it look a little bit, but it's so heavy."

The Fire Demon Beast said, "I've just shrunk in size, I'm not really smaller, my weight is the same. I weigh ten thousand pounds anyways."

Omi said, "Alright, go inside and don't let everyone watch."

Everyone entered the hotel room, and only then did Omi tell everyone in detail about his journey in the past half month or so.

Everyone also understood what was happening to Omi these days, and were especially envious.

“Omi, I should have known to go with you, look, you’ve taken so many more scenic tours than us, and you’ve even entered the underground city.” Wang Xing said.

Omi smiled, “Next time, no matter where we go, I’ll go with you, no matter what. By the way, let’s have dinner together tonight, then I have something good to share with you.”

“What good stuff?”

“We’ll know at night.”

Omi’s good thing was naturally the Emperor Worm, and then everyone’s lifespan would increase a lot, and the meridians would be tougher, and the martial arts would be much stronger, which would also be good for future martial arts training.

“Brother Omi, I’ll go back first then.”

“Princess, what’s the hurry, you’ll also have dinner with us tonight.”

“Mm.”

Xu Mei Qian, Liona, and Simran looked at Princess Zhou’er, they were wondering if Omi had been rolling with Princess Zhou’er for half a month after going on a trip with her.

Right now, at the palace.

“Your Majesty, Omi and Princess Zhou’er are back.”

“Uh, back, hahaha, I wonder how Zhou’er and Omi are progressing, have they turned Omi into their man.”Goma Star chuckled.

“Your Majesty, that Omi isn’t back with the princess and two others.”

“Then who else?”

“Your Majesty, do you remember the Dungeon Fire Demon?”

“Of course I remember, that fire demon’s flames are so scrupulous that even I would have to shed my skin if I was accidentally burned.”

“Your Majesty, that Omi has brought that fire demon back with him.”

“What?Your eyes are blurry.”

“Your Majesty, I’m not blinking, it’s true, in fact many people saw Omi and the princess riding on the back of the fire demon and falling from the sky.”

“Ah, Omi actually subdued the fire demon, how is that possible.”

“Your Majesty, that underground city is ours, so it’s only right that the fire demon is also ours.”

Goma Star smiled, "You're overthinking it, the Dungeon is ours, but the Fire Demon is not ours, alright, don't be jealous of others, quickly summon Omi for me."

"Yes."

904

Omi was preparing to have a nice meal with everyone in the evening when he stopped by to bring out the Emperor Worm to share with everyone, but suddenly, he got a summons from the Gomorrah Empire's emperor, asking Omi to enter the palace immediately.

Omi pondered for a moment.

About Omi getting the Emperor Worm, I don't know if Gomorrah knew about it, if he knew, Omi would have to think about whether or not to enter the palace, after all, the Emperor Worm was a treasure, anyone would be tempted.

"Princess Zhou'er, I don't think you've spread the word about the Emperor Worm, have you?"

"Brother Omi, I've always been with you, how could I pass it on."

"Does your grandfather not know either?"

"Of course not, brother Omi, if you don't want my grandfather to know, then I won't tell him."

Omi smiled, "Princess, don't worry, the 20 Emperor Insects I obtained, you and your grandfather each have one, the remaining 17, these friends of mine each have one, then, I only have the last two left on me, these last two I have a major role to play, in case I use Life Blood Hidden again in the future, the meridians will shatter and come in handy again."

“Thank you, brother Omi.”

“Alright, your grandfather summoned us to the palace, so let’s go in now and meet your grandfather.”

“Good.” First URL m. kanshu8.net

Omi immediately sat on the Fire Demon Beast and charged straight into the palace.

Many people in the palace looked up at the fire-red lion flying through the sky.

At the entrance of the palace hall, Goma Star watched as Omi and the princess flew in on the fire demon and finally landed in front of the palace.

“Grandfather.”

“See His Majesty.”

“Hahaha, Brother Tang, you’re amazing, you’ve tamed such a majestic fire demon.”Goma Star said.

“I hope Your Holiness will forgive me, I entered the underground city without your permission and took the Earth Beast Fire Demon with me.”

Goma Star smiled, “Entering the Dungeon, it must have been Zhou’er who took you there, since Zhou’er took you there, I can’t blame you, as for you taking the Earth Beast Fire Demon, that belongs to your skill, the Fire Demon is not my property, although it lives near the Dungeon.”

“The Sovereign is so profoundly righteous, my son bears that in mind.”

“Alright, Brother Tang, there’s no need to be so polite, please enter the palace and sit down to talk.”

Omi didn’t chat with Goma Star for long, taking his leave after just half an hour.

Brother Mo Xing also did not stay long, after Omi left, he was busy saying to Princess Zhou’er, “My good granddaughter, how was the half month trip? Seeing that you came back in a fire demon with Omi, it must be nice to see that Omi is already your man.”

“Grandpa, that’s such a hard thing to say.”

“What? Have you made no progress at all in the past half month and just played around?”

“No, grandpa, I’ve already confessed my heart to Omi, but unfortunately, he already has a girlfriend.”

“What’s there to fear about having a girlfriend, do you care if he has a girlfriend? Zhou’er, you have to remember that you’d rather be the concubine of the strong than the only one of the weak.”

“I’ve already told him that my grandfather has dozens of wives, I don’t mind, but Omi he doesn’t like me.”

“How can that be, my granddaughter is the number one beauty in Gomorrah, a man can’t even be low enough to resist your beautiful temptation.”

“Grandpa, Omi’s girlfriend is also beautiful, not inferior to me, you’ve also seen it, that time when you hosted a banquet for Omi’s mercenary friends, four of the beauties were Omi’s girlfriends.”

“Omi already has four girlfriends, that means he’s not a dedicated man either ah, that’s even more reason not to like you ah.”

“Grandpa, actually, Omi is a dedicated man, his current four girlfriends are not the ones he actively pursued.”

“Alright, let’s cut the crap, in short, it’s very regrettable.”

“Grandpa, I won’t give up, one day I’ll make Omi accept me, I’m going to a banquet tonight, Omi invited me to have dinner with their mercenary group.”

“Go go go.”Gomosung waved his hand, Omi didn’t turn into her granddaughter’s man, it made him feel quite boring.

In the evening, Omi and his mercenary corps friends ate together at a high-class mountain resort, a secluded environment, the same place where Princess Zhou’er had invited Omi to eat last time.

Princess Zhou’er also came, and so did Ou Ou Sang.

“Dear brothers and sisters, tomorrow is the Gomorrah Empire, the day when the light of heaven appears, tomorrow after everyone enjoys the bath of the light of heaven, we will set off to the next place, tonight, we will not get drunk, when we return to the hotel after the meal, I have a gift for everyone here.”Omi said.

“A gift?What gift?”

“Hahaha, it’s a secret for now.”

“Omi, did you find some treasure in the Dungeon.”

“Yes, it’s a treasure, alright, let’s eat and drink now, this treasure can’t be taken out now, let alone let you eat it.”

“Why?”

“It’s because, hahaha.” Omi laughed, when he ate the emperor worm and functioned, because his body was too comfortable, it was like an orgasm, he would not be able to help but ahhh cry out, if he took it out for everyone now, I’m afraid everyone would ahhh cry out for half an hour. When Omi took it at first, he didn’t even have control over it with Omi’s fixation, and screamed out several times, giving Princess Zhou’er goose bumps, so Omi waited for them to take it at night when they went to sleep, so that everyone would be free to scream out as soon as they closed the hotel room door.

Everyone saw that Omi wouldn’t take it out now, so they had to eat and drink.

By midnight, the feast was over.

Everyone went back to the hotel.

Princess Zhou’er was going back to the palace, and Omi said, “I’ll give you a ride.”

“Ah, good.” Princess Zhou’er was delighted.

Omi sent him to Princess Zhou’er’s home.

Omi said, "Princess, the reason I escorted you back is that I want to help you take the Emperor Worm, because the Emperor Worm is invisible, so you have to be very careful, I'm afraid it will be hard to catch again if it runs away."

"Uh, so that's how it is."

"Princess, now you can open your mouth."

"Oh."

Omi took out the glass bottle, at first glance, it was an empty bottle, but it contained twenty emperor worms.

Omi very carefully poured out one emperor worm, then quickly covered the bottle, and the emperor worm held between his fingers was stuffed into Princess Zhou'er's mouth.

"Keep your mouth shut tight, did you feel a worm bouncing around in your mouth?"

"Uh-huh." Princess Zhou'er nodded with her mouth closed.

"Swallow it."

"Gulp." Princess Zhou'er swallowed it.

"Alright, you've taken an emperor worm, it will decompose in about half an hour, you'd better hide in your room during this half hour."

“Why.”

“Just do as I say, I’m going home, and I have to give them more to take.”

“Goodnight brother Omi.”

Omi returned to the hotel, and by this time, Princess Zhou’er was already hiding in her den, ahhh screaming, screaming even she couldn’t hear anymore, blushing, but, it was uncontrollable.

In the hotel, Omi gave his brothers and sisters to take the emperor insects, each room door closed, ahhh screaming non-stop.

Omi looked at the room Xu Mei Qian and Simran, as well as Liona Shangguan Zhuo four people, at the moment they are very shy to hold back from screaming, but, always can not help it, Omi laughed, deliberately said: “Hey, hey, stop screaming, screaming I’m about to endure.”

“Go to hell.”

Just like that, half an hour later, all the emperor insects taken by everyone had finished decomposing, and everyone’s meridians were much more stable.

Xu Mei Qian said, “Great, after taking the Emperor Insect, I now feel that it won’t be difficult at all to hit the Innate Realm.”

“Yeah, I feel the same.” Simran said.

Liona also nodded her head. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

Omi said, "This is nonsense, the Emperor Worm is a supreme treasure, it cleanses the meridians and makes your meridians tough and smooth, so your qualifications are instantly elevated by many, even a person who has no talent for martial arts, after taking the Emperor Worm and cleansing the raft meridians, you can still impact the innate realm, not to mention you have some talent from before."

"Thank you, Tzu-Chen." Xu Mei Qian said.

"Come on, what's our relationship, say thank you again and I'll spank your ass."

"I'll gladly let you spank." Xu Mei Qian said with a blush.

Omi was stirred up a bit of pleasure by Xu Mei Qian's ambiguous words and said, "Just now you guys screamed so wavy, causing me to be unable to endure, what do you guys say to do."

"Hahaha." There was laughter in the room.

The next day, Omi and the others came to the outside of Paradise Valley and prepared to enter Paradise Valley and bathe in the light of heaven.

At this moment, outside of Paradise Valley, there were many people waiting, mostly children of the great families of the Gomorrah Empire.

"Brother Omi." Princess Zhou'er ran over to Omi and the others.

"Princess, we woke up early in the morning and came straight here, we should have no problem entering Paradise Valley." Omi smiled.

“Brother Omi, my grandfather has already given orders for you to enter the Paradise Valley unimpeded.”

“Well, thank you grandpa, by the way, when will the gates of Paradise Valley open?”

“Open it when everyone is almost here.”

Omi saw the many names recorded on the outside stone wall of Paradise Valley.

Omi asked, “Princess, what is engraved on this stone wall?”

“Brother Tzu-Chen, it’s like this, after entering Paradise Valley and being exposed to the light of heaven, not everyone is able to have an epiphany to improve their realm. Out of everyone who entered, only about 100 people were able to have an enlightenment.”

“No way, there are at least thousands of people waiting to enter here.”

“Yes, out of those thousands of people, only a hundred of them were able to have an epiphany. However, not everyone had the same amount of epiphanies, and some had epiphanies

A little bit, no realm breakthrough, and there are people who can have an epiphany to break through one realm, and there are people who can have an epiphany to break through two realms, but those who have an epiphany to break through two realms, there are very few of them. Every year, there are only about three or four people who can epiphany to break through two realms.”

Simran was busy asking, “What about the people who had an epiphany to break through three realms?”

The princess said, "There are even fewer people with epiphanies that break through to three realms, and there may not be even one in ten years. Brother Omi, look at this side of the stone wall, the names engraved on it are all lists of people who have had epiphanies break through to two or more over the past few thousand years."

Omi counted the names, and the stone wall was densely packed with about 10,000 names engraved on it.

Princess Zhou'er continued, "In our Gomorrah Empire, those who are able to be engraved with names are all very honorable, because only those who had an epiphany that exceeded two realms are eligible to have their names engraved on this stone tablet, and of these ten thousand names, they were engraved one by one over thousands of years, from the day the Light of Heaven was discovered. Of course, the most glorious isn't this stone wall, brother Omi, look at the one on the side."

Omi looked at a stone wall on the side with over a hundred names engraved on it.

"How come this stone wall only has over a hundred names?"

"Brother Omi, those who can carve on this stone wall are even more glorious, because, these more than a hundred names are all those who had an epiphany to break through the three realms."

"Wow, Princess, so, in thousands of years, only more than a hundred people have had an epiphany to break through the three realms?"

"Yes."

"Brother Omi look at the stone wall over there again, there's only one name, he's the only one, for thousands of years, who had an epiphany that broke through the four realms."

"Wow, this person is amazing, isn't he, thousands of years, only one."

“Yes, after being irradiated by the heavenly light, one can have an epiphany, but how much one can have an epiphany depends on one’s comprehension, so far, there is only one person who had an epiphany and broke through four realms in a row, he is a genius from our Gomorrah Empire, two thousand years ago. In these two thousand years, there is no second person who can break through four realms in a row after having an epiphany.”

“Wow.” After hearing Princess Zhou’er’s explanation, everyone looked at the lone name on that stone wall with utmost admiration. There were over a hundred names on the stone wall next to the three realms of epiphany breakthroughs, but this was the only side that was always lone with only one name.

Princess Zhou’er smiled, “Brother Omi, I’m very optimistic about you, try your best oh, and try to leave your name on one of the stone walls here.”

Omi said, “Do your best.”

Liu Yue said, “TOmi is such a bull, I think he should at least carve it into this stone wall of the three realms.”

The princess said, “It’s been fifteen years since anyone has carved their name on this stone wall, and in these fifteen years, no one has had an epiphany to break through the three realms, I also want brother TOmi’s name to be carved on it.”

“Oh.” Omi just laughed, this thing, do your best, besides, Omi now that he was in the Unity Realm, it was much more difficult to break through.

At this moment, at the palace.

“Your Majesty, Princess Zhou’er has already gone to Paradise Valley.”

“Well, this year, hopefully she can have an epiphany to break through the two realms, and her name can be engraved on the stone wall to be immortalized forever.”Goma Star said with expectation.

“Your Majesty, the princess will definitely do it, she has such a strong talent, this year is the year she will break out.By the way, Your Majesty, Omi and his mercenary friends have also left for Paradise Valley.”
