

Chapter 966

“Only Zongshi realm powerhouses can comprehend the killing intent ah, the killing intent is the most dominant characteristic of Zongshi realm powerhouses ah, that king’s mercenary group’s leader, how is it possible.”

Omi felt hopelessly avenged, but he was very unhappy.

“No, he must be defeated, if he can comprehend the must-kill intent, then why can’t I?”

“I can do it too.”

Just then, a yell came from the distance, “It’s not good, father, mother, the sea beast is coming again.”

Omi turned his head to see that a sea beast was coming up on the beach in the distance, and the girl called Su Vacheron was running towards the thatched hut.

The sea beast wasn’t strong, just a very ordinary sea beast, but nevertheless, it was enough to eat Su Vacheron.

The blood bowl was already on top of Su Vacheron’s head.

Omi blinked and picked up a shell from the ground.

“Swoosh.” Omi shell threw it, and there was a feeling within Omi that he could split the beast in half.

Because of this feeling, the shell, based on Omi’s inner ‘must kill’ intention, really did break that beast in half. One second to remember to read the book “Bang.”The sea beast that was split in half collapsed.

Su Vacheron looked at Omi in surprise.

Omi was amazed at the moment, he just felt inside that it could, and it turned out to be true.

“This?”Omi was stunned there.

After a few seconds, Omi said under his breath, “Isn’t this just a must-kill idea?When did I comprehend the must-kill idea.”

Su Vacheron’s parents came rushing over from the thatched-roof side, spears and forks in hand, and they were shocked to see the sea beast split in half.

Omi picked up another shell, technically a shell fragment.

Omi looked to the coconut tree next to the thatched hut.

Omi was incomparably sure that he could ‘kill’ that coconut tree.

“Swoosh.”The shell fragment in Omi’s hand shot up.

“Wow.”In the blink of an eye, the coconut tree, which was seven or eight meters tall, was split in half by Omi’s shell fragment.

“Wow.”Su Vacheron and her parents were stunned.

“So he’s not an ordinary person like us, he’s an expert.” Su Vacheron’s father said.

“Father, is he what you always say he is, a martial arts expert?”

“Or what.”

“Well, then, he and I, we still make a pair?”

Sovereign’s father said, “People are experts, there must be a way to get out of here, they don’t even have to be here to build people with us.”

“Oh.” Su Vacheron Constantin was lost for a while.

But Su Vacheron’s father was very happy, if Omi really had a way to get out of here, then he could also go home, so he was very happy to run to Omi.

And Omi was now in a state of euphoria.

“It’s true, I actually comprehended the killing intent, what have I experienced that made me not only raise my realm, but also my body, I even comprehended the killing intent.”

Although Omi couldn’t feel anything after his spirit reversal, he was still very happy.

“Meet senior, I didn’t know that senior was originally a strong martial artist, if I’ve offended you, please forgive me.” Su Vacheron’s father was busy.

“It’s me who has to thank you, no need to be polite.”

“

“Senior, you’re a strong martial artist, so you definitely seem to have a way to leave here.”

Omi said, “It’s not impossible for me to stay here, so I won’t take part in the man-making plan you mentioned, hahaha.”

“Senior is laughing, where does my daughter have the qualifications to build a human with you.”

Omi asked, “You’ve drifted to this island for twenty years, have you never thought about how to leave?It’s not a paradise where sea beasts occasionally appear.”

“I won’t hide it from senior, I have tried to build ships, but, I almost died, because there are sea beasts in the sea, so, I don’t dare to take any more risks and have been living here, but, occasionally, there are still sea beasts coming ashore, but, we can hide in the basement and be safe.We dug a basement under the thatched hut.”

Omi smiled, “Then, starting tomorrow, you go build the boat and we’ll leave this island together.”

“Good.”Su Vacheron’s father nodded with great excitement.

“Where is your hometown?I see that your appearance is similar to mine, so you should be from some of the countries surrounding the Yan Huang Empire.”Omi said.

“Ah, is Senior a member of the Yan Huang Empire?”

“Yes.”

“That’s too coincidental, I’m from the glazed country, our glazed country is next to the Yanhuang Empire.”

“Indeed it’s a coincidence, I’m not a stranger to the Glazed Kingdom, well, you go and get busy.”

“Yes, Senior, I’m going to cut down trees and build a boat.”

“Mm.”

After a month of hard work, Su Vacheron’s father finally produced a boat that was ten meters long, and as long as they didn’t encounter any sea beasts, or a huge tsunami, crossing the ocean wasn’t a big problem.

Once everything was ready, they started to leave the island.

The three members of Su Vacheron’s family looked at the island’s thatched cottage with great emotion, and finally, boarded the boat to leave.

With Omi’s martial arts skills, the many sea beasts that they encountered were all resolved by Omi, and no matter what sea beasts appeared, even if there was a mountain of them, they were invulnerable in front of Omi’s expert.

Only then did the three members of Su Vacheron’s family realize how lucky they were to have met such a powerful expert, who was simply sent by the heavens to save them.

Omi’s martial arts skills were indeed very strong, and he was at the peak of the Unity Realm Perfection and had comprehended the killing intent.

In addition, Omi's Herculean Strength had a strength of 150,000 jin.

Omi originally wanted to practice more, but he found that Herculean Divine Power had already been practiced to the extreme, to the top.

To be able to reach 150,000 jin in one punch was all because Omi had taken many world wonders, otherwise it would have been 100,000 jin, a power that was already at the top level of Herculean Divine Mercy.

After drifting in the sea for ten days, "Wow." The sound of another sea beast rose up from the sea.

Omi didn't use the killing intent this time, the ones with too much killing intent would also cause weakness, if it wasn't a strong enemy, it would be unnecessary.

"Boom." Omi leapt, and his entire body shot towards the sea beast, blasting it with 150,000 kg of power.

The sea beast flipped over in the ocean, then disappeared and fled.

Omi stepped on the surface of the sea and flew back to the ship.

Su Vacheron looked at Omi with eyes full of fascination, after watching Omi spike all the sea beasts in the past ten days, Su Vacheron's feelings for Omi grew stronger and stronger, so strong that it was impossible to restrain them.

"Senior Tang, we've been drifting at sea for ten days, when exactly will we be able to see a land."

“Don’t ask me, I don’t know, although we have been drifting at sea for ten days, we may not be very far from that island, keep floating until you see some land.”

At night, Omi slept in the aft cabin of the ship.

The whole ship, three cabins in all, fore and aft, and in the middle of it was occupied by Su Vacheron.

“Knock knock knock.” Brother Tang, are you asleep? There was a knock on the door of Omi’s cabin, and Omi pulled it open, and Sovaldi stood outside.

“Something wrong? Sister Sue.”

“Brother Don, may I come in?”

Omi’s brow furrowed, the cabin was very small, only the size of a bed, but Omi still nodded.

Su Vacheron sat in the cabin.

“Sister Su, it’s so late, why are you still up.”

“Can’t sleep, my parents are noisy.” First URL m. kanshu8.net

“Oh.” Omi smiled slightly, Omi had known that the sound of popping was coming from the ship’s bow cabin, and they hadn’t, it seemed that they couldn’t endure it for more than ten days.

“Big Brother Tang, let’s play too, shall we.”

“Uh, play what?” Omi was confused.

Su Vacheron said, “It’s the same as my parents play.”

Omi’s face sank, this Su Capacitor, a little too direct.

“Sister Su, please have self-respect.”

“What’s self-respect? I grew up on the island and I don’t know a lot of things.”

“You go out.”

“Brother Don, my mom says it’s fun, let’s have some fun.”

“Get out.” Omi’s voice was a bit loud.

Su Vacheron’s eyes were red and he looked very aggrieved.

Su Vacheron grew up on the island, and since she was born, she had only met three people including Omi, so naturally her education wasn’t that comprehensive, which was why she seemed a little less self-conscious.

“Brother Tang, why? Because you’re a kung fu master? But my parents say it’s the same for anyone.”

“Get out, will you, don’t let me tear your face off, Sutra, I originally thought you were a pretty innocent little girl, but how I feel now, you’re simply like a primitive, innocent like a primitive, with no shame.”

“Brother Tang, I don’t understand your words very well, I’m afraid that in a few days, we’ll be on shore and we’ll never see each other again, that’s why I want to play with you ah.”

“Get out.” Omi yelled.

At that moment, Su Vacheron’s parents came in a panic, not even dressed yet.

“Vacheron Constantin, what are you doing. I’m sorry, Senior Tang, my daughter didn’t say anything disrespectful to you, I’m sorry I’m sorry, it’s all because I didn’t educate her well.”

Omi said, “It’s nothing, let her go back, don’t bother me if you’re fine, I want to practice.”

“Good.” Su Vacheron was dragged away and slapped by her father, Su Vacheron looked at Omi in aggravation, she didn’t seem to know what was wrong.

Omi closed the door of the cabin, this Su Vacheron Constantin, the growth is okay, unfortunately, too innocent, back to the human society, also this has to be taught properly, otherwise like the primitive man, the road met beautiful opposite sex, on the spot to make that kind of request, too bad.

Omi continued to drift in the sea for a month.

The month of drifting was indeed very boring, and sometimes, Omi really felt a bit eager when he saw the way Su Vacheron wiggled his buttocks and walked by.

Of course, apart from being bored, Omi’s greatest achievement was that he had stepped from the peak of the Unity Realm Perfection to the first level of the Unity Realm Perfection.

Omi desperately wanted to find someone to cut his teeth with.

As for the other martial arts, Hercules was trained to the top.

Omi's previous Dragon Descending Sword Technique and God Killing Saber Technique, despite Omi's repeated and continuous efforts to increase their power, were close to being capped at this level, and any further improvement would only be very slight.

In fact any martial art, after practicing at this level, it was already at the top level, and whoever understood the martial idea more deeply was stronger.

Finally, after forty-two days of drifting on the sea, Omi saw the shadow of a mountain faintly visible in the distance ahead.

"We've finally seen land." Omi said.

"Wow, we've finally landed, I'm going to die of thirst if we don't land again." Su Vacheron's father said with dry lips, because the fresh water he brought had already been drunk, and the seawater was all salt, so he could only rely on Omi to kill the sea beasts and then drink their blood, so as to replenish his physical identity, if Omi, the healer, wasn't there, and they drank the blood of the sea beasts every day, their intestines and stomachs would probably have already been unable to stand it.

The ship finally docked.

They came to a place in an unknown empire.

"Hello, what is this place?"

“Nerves? What are you doing here anywhere.”That passerby said despicably.

Omi didn't bother to talk nonsense, used hypnosis and asked, “What empire is this place.”

“This is the White Luo Kingdom.”

“White Luo Country, where is there a plane here?”

Omi was so stunned that he didn't even know about the plane.

“How far is this place from the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts?”Omi asked again.

“What is the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts.”

Omi's eyebrows furrowed, he didn't even know about the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts, it seemed that this person was too low, it was better to find a strong man and ask for directions.

Where to find a strong man?

Without a doubt, of course it was to go to the palace of the White Luo Kingdom.

With Omi's current strength, he could probably spike the king of the White Luo Kingdom, which was so backward, it must be a tiny empire, and the king must not be much stronger.

Omi brought the three members of Su Vacheron's family directly to the palace of the White Luo Kingdom.

Even the palace was small, it really was a small place.

"Wait for me here, I'll send someone out to take you in when I'm done with it."

"Okay, thanks."

Omi flew into the palace and let his Qi out, and soon after, a man at the peak of the Unity Realm completion flew out.

Upon seeing Omi, he was first stunned, then lowered his head and said, "Meet senior."

"You're the king of the Bai Luo Kingdom?"

"Yes, Senior came to my Bai Luo Country, I don't know what you want, my Bai Luo Country is just a small country, the third last in the world, and it is poor and backward, and near the sea where there are many sea beasts, there is no future at all. Truth be told, there is a genius in my Bai Luo Country who has now entered the United Nations, and I am very close friends with him, senior may wish to carefully consider whatever he wants to do."

Omi snorted, "Entering the United Nations, I'm afraid this is not enough for one hand."

"Ah." The King of the White Luo Kingdom turned white, that genius who entered the United Nations was already at the second level of the Unity Realm, but it wasn't enough for him to have one hand. That late stage of the Unity Realm, if he hadn't been disinterested in the White Luo Kingdom, I'm afraid this White Luo Kingdom would have changed masters.

Omi said, "You think I want to steal your Bai Luo Kingdom? You misunderstood, I have no interest, not even in the rising powerhouses of your own country, let alone me, I am passing through this place and want to find a place to rest, I also expect you to make arrangements for me, I also have three friends, who are outside the palace, you also send someone to bring them in." Omi's tone was almost commanding, but the king of the White Luo Kingdom was greatly relieved.

"I see, but it's rude of junior, senior please, it's an honor for my country to come to my White Luo Kingdom, please."

Omi unceremoniously flew into the palace hall, and the king immediately ordered down to arrange everything for Omi.

Omi immediately went out and took a bath and changed into clean clothes, in fact, Omi didn't pass on clothes at all, only animal skins around his waist, so the king of the White Luo Kingdom, seeing Omi dressed so lowly, only then would he think that Omi wanted to beat him up.

After taking a bath, Omi accepted the invitation to the grandest of banquets, along with the three members of Su Vacheron's family.

At the banquet, the king of Bai Luo Kingdom very politely poured wine and toasted.

After Omi was full, he asked, "How far is the White Luo Kingdom from the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts?"

"What, the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts?"

"Don't tell me you don't know."

“Senior is joking, of course I know about the Ten Thousand Beast Forest, it’s a very dangerous place, the beasts of the Ten Thousand Beast Forest are no better than sea beasts, they are very fierce.”

“Don’t give me that far, I’m only asking you, how far away is the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts.”
Remember the URL . kanshu8. net

“Back to Senior, Senior is unable to answer you because, Senior has never been to the Ten Thousand Beast Forest either.”

“What? Isn’t the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts near here? Even if it’s not nearby, it’s not too far away.”

“Senior, the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts is in the far north, it’s very far away, why would senior say it’s very close.”

Omi was puzzled, his last memory was in the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts, so why would he run to an island that was far away?

It seemed that Omi had really experienced a lot after the spirit reversal, no wonder Omi felt as soon as he woke up that there was a long period of something in his memory, and there was a very important person or thing.

Omi also didn’t know why the things he experienced after the spirit reversal would be completely forgotten.

Unless, the Omi after the spirit reversal was completely different from the normal Omi, even the entire person was different, as if they were one body, two different people.

“Then, I want to travel to the Yan Huang Empire, how do I get there?” Omi asked.

“Ah, the Yanhuang Empire, I’ve been to the Yanhuang Empire once, it’s in the far east, unfortunately, we don’t have any planes in the Bai Luo Kingdom, if senior wants to go to the Bai Luo Kingdom, I suggest that senior first head to a nearby place called the Purple Mountain Empire, where there are planes, although there may not be a direct connection, but at least we can approach it slowly.”

“Okay, thank you for your hospitality.”

“You’re welcome, I’ve already prepared enough beauties for senior in the evening, please don’t be shy and enjoy yourself.”

Omi said, “It’s not necessary.”

“Uh, why not, truth be told, the beauties I’ve prepared for senior are all eighteen years old, and they’re all still pure bodies, senior might as well return to his residence to take a look at them, they’ll definitely satisfy senior, senior is an honored guest of my Bai Luo Kingdom.”

“No need.” Omi said without hesitation, although Omi’s body may indeed be eager, Omi’s heart did not need it.

Omi returned to his place and saw eighteen beautiful women, standing in a row, at the door.

These eighteen beauties, Omi’s eyes also lit up at the first sight he saw, were indeed beautiful .

The king of the White Luo Kingdom did not lie and really treated Omi as the grandest guest.

Omi wanted to open his mouth and let them go, but his body seemed to betray his heart.

“Phew.” Omi sighed and said, “Put your clothes on all of them.”

These eighteen beauties, all wearing only three points, with good bodies and good faces, looked like they were at the mercy of Omi’s arrangements, very striking, no wonder Omi didn’t want to inside, but his body betrayed him.

However, the eighteen beauties did not listen to Omi’s words, walked up to Omi, surrounded Omi in the middle, as if well-trained, touching the ears, touching the arms, licking the ears, very professional.

Omi’s eyebrows furrowed, so professional, really still a pure body? Omi, out of curiosity, immediately took the pulse of one of them, and found that they were indeed intact, but, Omi didn’t believe it, and tested them even deeper under their navels, which revealed the truth, they were only superficially pure, in fact, they had already been through the sands, they were all well trained, but by blowing some kind of medicine, they could become intact.

“Hmph, that King Bai Luo, engaging in such a little trick.”

With a wave of his hand, Omi said, “Get out quickly, don’t force me.”

“Yes.” Only then did the eighteen beauties hurriedly leave.

Omi wasn’t angry at such a little trick by King Bai Luo, much less looking for trouble with him, although these beauties were imposters, they were at least a piece of people’s enthusiasm.

Omi stayed in the White Luo Kingdom for two days, thoroughly rested, and then prepared to depart.

The three members of Su Vacheron’s family also followed him on the road.

Taking a boat to a place called the Purple Mountain Empire in the nearby continent, the Purple Mountain Empire wasn't far from the White Luo Kingdom, and it was only about a five-day boat ride.

This ship was still sent out by the King of Bai Luo himself to see him off, eating and drinking well along the way, and it was worlds apart from the ship he had built before.

After five days, Omi finally arrived at the Violet Mountain Empire.

When he arrived at the port of the Purple Mountain Empire, Omi immediately saw many modern things, this place was more like a modern country, only, the degree of modernization was relatively low, about fifty years ago, the Yanhuang Empire.

Omi likewise went directly to the imperial capital of the Purple Mountain Empire, as they were in the imperial capital as soon as they landed, and since they had come to the imperial capital of the Purple Mountain Empire, it was naturally necessary to pay a visit to the imperial palace.

In the meantime, Omi could also battle with strong people and test his strength.

Omi stood in the sky above the Purple Mountain Empire and let his strength loose.

A gray-haired old man rushed out from the depths of the palace, this gray-haired old man, dressed in magnificent king's clothes, had a strong and sufficient Qi, and had already reached the second level of the Unity Realm Great Perfection.

It was a level higher than Omi's realm, but Omi didn't take him seriously.

Because, from the first moment Omi saw him, Omi had a feeling in his heart that Omi could 'kill' him.

Therefore, if Omi was going to do it, then it could definitely be a sure kill, unless there was something that Omi hadn't expected, or there was something that the other party was so deep that Omi's 'feeling' had overlooked it.

"Where's the boy who dared to let out your bastard qi over my Purple Mountain Empire." The king of the Purple Mountain Empire saw that it was a Unity Realm Great Perfection first level, and became furious, although Omi was only one level behind him, but in this level, let alone one level, even between the same realm, there was time that differed greatly, a difference of one level, in the Unity Realm Great Perfection, it was already a vastly different existence, one that he could completely kill in seconds.

Omi looked at the king of the Purple Mountain Empire with a slight sneer on his lips.

"You still let out a disdainful sneer, looking for death."

The King of the Purple Mountain Empire immediately issued an attack, with a move of his hand, a weapon similar to a Guillotine shot at Omi, this Guillotine-like weapon was also practiced to the extreme, almost killing people a hundred meters away, if it were an outsider, I'm afraid it wouldn't be so easy to deal with.

Even though it was Omi, the moment he sent out the Guillotine, Omi suddenly felt a huge intimidating force.

"Buzz." Omi instantly sent out his blade, aiming for that Blood Droplet, Omi's heart also felt a sense of certain death towards that rushing Blood Droplet, which meant that Omi was completely able to stop that Blood Droplet.

"Dang." After a sound of sparks clashing with gold and iron, the opponent's Guillotine weapon split in two, and all attacks immediately disappeared.

“Ah.”The king of the Purple Mountain Empire saw his weapon cut in half, his face turned white while a mouthful of blood spurted out, after all, he needed extremely strong internal and mental strength to manipulate the weapon, and the sudden interruption caused the blood and qi to go haywire.

“You are not my opponent at all, don’t make unnecessary sacrifices.”Omi said, Omi didn’t mean to kill him.

“Who are you?What do you want?”The king of the Purple Mountain Empire said with a wipe of blood from the corner of his mouth.

“I’m passing through here and want to go to the Yanhuang Empire, I want you to make arrangements to send a plane to take me to the Yanhuang Empire.”

“Our country’s planes are still backward, it’s impossible for them to fly that far, and besides, even the most advanced planes can’t fly that far.” A second to remember to read the book

“No harm done, get me as far as you can.Besides, we need a night’s rest and we’re leaving tomorrow, so you can set me up, I have three more friends, four in all.”

“Hmph, not earlier.”The king of the Purple Mountain Empire snorted in depression, in fact it was useless for Omi to say it earlier, Omi didn’t crush him with his strength, how would he take care of Omi.

Omi didn’t bother to bother with him that much, anyway, it was getting late and stayed in the Purple Mountain Empire.

Of course, the king of the Purple Mountain Empire wasn’t as polite as the king of the Bai Luo Empire, who entertained Omi and even arranged for beautiful women and such, but just let the people below entertain him without personally coming out to accompany the wine.

Omi didn't mind, after all, we didn't know each other well.

However, the king of the Purple Mountain Empire was not too self-conscious, if it were someone else, he would have to treat you well.

The next day, Omi boarded a special plane, which was arranged by the Purple Mountain Empire, to fly to an empire called Abelja, and then changed planes again, approaching his destination step by step.

A few days later, the plane arrived in Abelja, and Omi and the three members of the Soviet family temporarily disembarked from the plane.

Walking out of the airport, Omi went to the ticket hall and asked the conductor, "Is there a flight to the Yanhuang Empire?"

"I'm sorry, but we don't have diplomatic relations with the Infamous Empire."

"Uh, I see, so I'm going to the Yan Huang Empire, where can your plane reach the nearest?" Don Zimmer asked.

"Let me check."

A few minutes later, the conductor said, "Every month, we have five flights to the Lucid Empire."

"Good, help me buy three tickets to the Lucid Empire right away."

&

nbsp; “Sorry, we only have five flights a month: one, six, twelve, eighteen, and twenty-five.”

“And what day is today?”

“Today is the 10th of September, XX23.”

Omi was startled and surprised, “You’re kidding.”

“Sir, there’s a queue at the back, if you don’t want to buy a ticket, could you please move out of the way?”The ticket salesman said.

Omi was shocked.

Today is the 9th of July XX23?

Omi remembered that when he entered the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts, it was the 25th of June in XX21.

“Oh my god, it’s been two years since I entered the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts.”Omi’s brain was messed up, if that was the case, then Omi was 23 years old this year.Omi felt like he had skipped two years straight, and the two years in between were crushingly unbearable.

“Senior Tang, are you alright?”Sovereign’s father was busy asking.

“Uh, Senior, when we found you on the island, you were also asleep for half a year before you woke up, but it turns out that something happened two years earlier.”

“Forget it, now I don’t know what happened to me in those two years, let’s go home first, only if we find my brothers and sisters will we know what happened to me.”

Omi immediately went to buy two tickets for the 12th to the glazed country, but unfortunately, because he didn’t have any money, he ended up using enchantment to buy them.

In this world, if you were an ordinary person, it would be difficult to buy a ticket without money or ID, but if you were a strong martial artist, it would be easier, after all, the conductor was not stupid, and would definitely be good enough to give it to you, and the higher-ups would not blame the conductor.

There was no flight until the 12th, and today was the 10th, so Omi had to stay in this Abelgar Empire for two days.

This Abelgar was a pretty powerful empire, Omi didn’t like to find a hotel by himself, and it happened to be in the capital of Abelgar, so Omi went straight ahead to Abelgar’s palace.

Every empire had a palace, but not every empire’s palace was classical, solemn, grand, red-walled buildings, grand halls or anything like that. Abelgar’s palace, however, was in a valley, like an ancient small village, if it wasn’t for the fact that this small village was inhabited by many powerful people, it might really be considered an ordinary village.

Omi flew directly into this small village, his eyes locked onto the house at the very back of the small village that was built entirely out of bamboo, and looked quite unique.

Omi let out his Qi, and soon after, an old man wearing colorful clothes and a hat flew out.

The moment this old man flew out, Omi was stunned because, it was a strong man at the peak of the Unity Realm, one of the thirty strongest peaks in the world. Omi didn't have the slightest feeling of certain death towards him, which meant that Omi's certain death intent couldn't hurt him, and if he really wanted to fight, this situation would be very dangerous for Omi.

Omi also wanted to come and pretend a comparison, and ended up kicking the iron plate.

“Who are you?” That old man seemed to be calm and did not have any intention of scruffing Omi.

Omi said, “Senior pays his respects to Senior.”

“There's no need to be hypocritical, you suddenly burst in, you have long since failed to hold a sense of awe, and only now that you see me do you hold a sense of awe, instead making me feel bad.”

970

“Senior forgive me, I'm sure senior is one of the thirty peak Unity Realm Great Perfection in this world, I once had the honor of knowing the old master of the Famous Sword Villa, senior's strength is still above the old master, what a loss of respect and respect.”

“You know the Old Villa Master of the Famous Sword Mountain Villa?”

“Yes.”

“Unfortunately, he's dead, there's no proof by word of mouth, nowadays, there are only 29 who have stepped into the peak of the Unity Realm, there will never be another 30, you'd better report your name.”

“What? The old master of the Famous Sword Villa is dead?” Omi was shocked, how was it possible, Omi had given him back the Emperor Worm, how the hell could he be dead.

“You didn’t even know? Who the hell are you? If you don’t give your name again, don’t blame me for not knowing how to treat guests.”

Omi busily came back to his senses and said, “Truth be told, my name is Omi, I once defeated Speechless in the Famous Sword Villa, that’s why I had the honor to know the old villa master.”

The other old man was shocked, “Omi? Is it the famous Omi who killed the two brothers of the head of the King’s Mercenaries?”

“Hmph, Omi is dead, this is something that the world knows, two years ago in the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts, Omi was famous for killing the two brothers of the head of the king’s mercenary group, but he himself was also killed.”

Omi said, “Impossible, it’s definitely a rumor, I was only seriously injured and then escaped, even if I had died, it wasn’t by him.” First URL m.kanshu8.net

“Yeah? Well, I’m not sure about that, anyway, Omi’s fame was a big sensation for about a year, while you yourself disappeared, everyone said you were dead and the Cang Blue Empire proved the rumor.”

“Forgive me Senior, Senior also forgot what happened after that, I have two years of memory loss.”

“How do you prove that you are Omi?”

“This, I can’t prove.”

The old man said, “The leader of that king’s mercenary group, he was able to kill the old lord of the Famous Sword Villa, he was already very close to me, and you were able to kill his brother right under his nose, so if you can kill that sheep on the ground right under my nose, I will consider you to be Omi.”

“Ugh.” Omi looked to the ground, and sure enough a sheep was eating grass.

Omi nodded and said, “Good.”

“Do it.” The old man’s breath locked onto Omi, and he could stop any movement Omi made to protect that sheep from dying.

Omi inwardly said, “Kill that sheep, you are underestimating me, even though my strength, I guess, is not as strong as yours, but killing that sheep, it can still be done.”

Suddenly, Omi flew down with a knife, aiming straight at that sheep.

However, at the same time, a powerful momentum came at Omi.

The knife that Omi flew out seemed to be rolled up by a sleeve, and that sleeve turned into pieces with a sudden clatter, and the old man was horrified as he lost one of his arms, and his clothes.

At the same time, Omi was also horrified, Omi had clearly killed that sheep, yet, it was still blocked, it seemed that the old man’s strength was very terrifying, worthy of 29 peak Unity Realm Grand Perfection. Omi also thought back to the time in the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts when the Fire Demon carried Omi and the others as they fled into the sky, the leader of the King’s Mercenaries also flew out with a slash, and in the end, Wei Sakura blocked that slash, saving the Everyone, at the moment, the old man's sleeve blocked Omi's slash and saved the sheep, it should be more or less the same.

So, the must-kill idea was not completely 100%, also the opponent.

And that old man, incredibly looking at Omi, his famous Qiankun Sleeve, was, surprisingly, shattered by Omi's one slash. It was far more terrifying than killing that sheep.

Omi said, "I'm sorry, I didn't kill that sheep, I can't prove that I'm Omi, much ado about nothing, I'll leave first."

"No, I believe you are Omi, because, you broke my Qiankun sleeve, which is far more difficult than killing a hundred sheep."

"Ugh." Omi was shocked, what kind of Qiankun sleeve was his broken sleeve? Omi felt so ordinary.

"Omi, it's a pleasure to meet you, if you don't mind, please take a seat in the humble abode."

"Thank you, senior, then junior will be welcome."

Omi followed the old man and flew into the house in front of him that was all built of bamboo.

"Omi, you're only at the first level of the Unity Realm Great Perfection, and you were able to break my Qiankun Sleeve with a single slash, worthy of being a renowned special genius, and worthy of being able to kill Wang Qi's two brothers, your future achievements are bound to be limitless." The old man said.

Omi said, "The leader of the King's Mercenary Group, is his real name Wang Qi?Hmph, no wonder it's called the King's Mercenaries, does he think, his surname is King.To tell the truth, I'm going back on this trip to take revenge on him.

"Oh, you may not be a match for him yet."

"Really? I haven't tried it, who knows, besides, I'm not planning to attack him right from the start, I'll kill all his brothers first before having a formal duel with him last."

The old man said, "The leader of the king's mercenary group, he's very strong ah, I was also there for that battle between him and the old master of the Famous Sword Villa, at that time, even I may not have the confidence to defeat him, that battle lasted two hours before the old master of the Famous Sword Villa was defeated in the end."

Omi asked, "Senior, who is stronger between you and the Old Villa Master of the Famous Sword Villa?"

"I'm ranked 24 out of the 30 peak Unity Realms in the United Nations World, so I should be slightly stronger than him."

"Then, what makes you think that I'm not a match for the head of the King's Mercenaries?"

"With your realm, even though you broke my Qiankun Sleeve, you are only at the first level of the Great Perfection after all, and it looks like you've only just stepped into the Great Perfection, so with your realm, you're still no match for him, and as long as he fights a war of attrition and momentum with you, you will lose.However, you're already infinitely close to him, so if you step into the second or third level of the Unity Realm Great Perfection, then you're bound to win, and even I can win.Of course, the premise is that he hasn't improved in the slightest in the past two years."

Omi was a bit disgruntled inside, he was going back for revenge, but he actually said that he wasn't an opponent.

However, this old man had a point, Omi's realm was indeed a short board at the moment, strong men versus strong men, any subtlety could bring about destruction, Omi had comprehended the killing intent, likewise, the head of the King's Mercenaries had also comprehended it, and he was at the third level of the Unity Realm Great Perfection, so Omi accepted it inside despite his displeasure. Omi didn't intend to seek revenge on him so rashly, life was at stake, Omi would at least have great confidence before he would officially seek him out, before that, Omi would kill his brothers one by one.
