

Chapter 989

“Omi, Omi.” The Island Lord yelled in panic, but, there was no answer from Omi.

The Island Lord wondered if it could be that Omi hadn't flown up yet, and immediately flew to the edge of the crack to see, but looking down, there was no one there, and with Omi's martial arts skills, there was no way that he hadn't flown up yet.

“Oh God, don't scare me.” He seemed to have thought of something as the Islander sat on his butt.

“Why, why is it so unlucky. Omi, Omi, come out here, ah ah ah, where the hell have you been.” The Island Lord hissed, his heart filled with guilt.

After a few seconds of hesitation, the Island Lord bit his teeth and said, “Omi, I don't care if you really disappeared or not, but I'm the one who brought you here, and even if I disappear along with you, I must return to the Dungeon to look for you once.”

So the Island Lord leapt to the Dungeon and jumped, he also risked disappearing as well, because he felt guilty inside. If he had known it was really so unlucky, he wouldn't have come, he thought, such a small chance that it wasn't so unlucky, but unfortunately, again, the truth was so cruel.

The Island Lord searched for a day in the Dungeon, and although he knew that everything was charted to no avail, he had to strive for something for Omi.

Back then, his senior brother had just as suddenly disappeared, and his master had searched through the entire Dungeon, but in the end, the hairs were not found, and everything was in vain.

“Ahhhh.” The Martial Island Lord roared, only to finally fly back to the stone cave behind the waterfall in desperation.

“Omi, I’m sorry, I’m sorry for causing you harm.”The Island Lord said guiltily.

Only after a long time did the Island Lord fly out of the waterfall, and the depressed Island Lord, who was so depressed, made a sudden burst of power, and the pool below the waterfall blew up, and all the water blew up into the air, and the level was suddenly revealed at the bottom. However, there was nothing on the bottom but bouncing fish.

Omi, was truly gone, just like his older brother back then, and just like the many others who had disappeared in history, never to be seen again.

“Omi, I’m sorry.”The Wulin Island Lord had to accept the cruel reality and drag his tired body back to his Utopia-like home.

At the Island Lord’s home, Omi and the Island Lord had been away for over a month, and they were also already impatient and very anxious.

“Miss Xu, you don’t have to be anxious, my master left with Omi, they must have something out, with my master’s strength, it’s hard for Omi to get into trouble, so just wait patiently. This place is like a peach blossom garden, you guys practice well here, if there is anything you don’t understand, you can also ask us, we are all willing to help you.”

“But they didn’t say a word, and now they haven’t returned for over a month, it’s too confusing, how can I not be worried.”Xu Mei Qian said.

Jin Daoist laughed, “A month is nothing, a year is not surprising.”

“Ugh.” Xu Mei Qian, Liona, Simran, and Xiaomeng all sighed helplessly and could only continue to wait.

Just then, the Martial Island Master was suddenly seen returning.

“The Island Master is back.”

“Senior Island Master, where have you been, where’s Omi?”

Everyone immediately jumped on it, and the Martial Islander’s face was ugly, but because he had eaten the Emperor Insect, he felt red and full of life again, much like before when he was about to have his big day!

There was another strong difference.

The Island Lord looked at the three women of Omi, and for a moment, he didn’t know what to say to them.

“Island Lord, speak up, where is Omi?” Xiao Meng was busy.

Several of the Island Lord’s disciples, Jin Daofu, Lin Bai, and the old dean all saw a hint of bad foreboding on their master’s face.

A few minutes later, the Wulin Island Master said, “I’m sorry, I’m to blame.”

“What are you talking about, can you make it clearer, where did Omi go?”

The Wulin Island Lord said guiltily, "Omi he, will never appear again."

"What?"

Lin Bai was busy saying, "Master, it shouldn't, with your strength, no one in this world is your opponent anymore except for two people, it shouldn't, did you run into those two people?"

"They killed Omi?"

"No."

"Master, you're going to have to make it clearer."

"Alright, now that it's over, I have no choice but to tell you about a place that I have never told you about, in Martialwood Island, there is an underground city." The Martial Island Master told everyone about this in detail, and only then did Jindolph and the others learn that there was an underground city on Martial Island, and because underground cities would have inexplicable disappearances, that's why they never mentioned it, they weren't going to let future generations know about this underground city. Unfortunately, something happened to Omi and he had to tell them.

"No, woo." Naturally, Xu Mei Qian and the others didn't believe it and cried into tears. Omi disappeared for two years after the Forest of Ten Thousand Beasts before returning, how could he be dead again all of a sudden, never believe it.

"We're going to the Dungeon to find him."

The Martial Island Lord was busy stopping him, "No, there is something odd about that place, Omi has unfortunately disappeared, if you guys go back in, how can I face Omi if he unfortunately disappears again, no."

Xiao Meng resolutely said, "Even if it disappears, I still want to go, Island Master, tell me where the Dungeon is located."

"Xiao Meng, don't be impulsive, Omi won't appear anymore, there have been countless examples for thousands of years, why be so stubborn, maybe this is Omi's fate."

"If you don't tell me, I'll find it myself."

"Let's go too." Xu Mei Qian and the others also followed Xiao Meng.

Unfortunately, the island master had no choice but to personally accompany them and take them to the underground city to search.

After searching for ten days and nights, nothing was found.

Fortunately, this time no one disappeared again for no apparent reason.

Xiao Meng and the others were naturally heartbroken as they searched for ten days and nights without finding Omi.

"What do we do now? Tzu-Chen won't really disappear from here, will he?" Liona cried.

Simran thought that Omi had crossed over, her face went white, and she was busy saying, "Would Omi, would he have crossed over ah."

Xiaomeng said, "Sister Li, you've seen too much, where in this world is there crossing over." Regarding Omi's crossing, Xiaomeng was unaware of it, naturally thinking that it was a wild nightmare. On the other hand, Liona also knew about it, and suddenly, Liona also turned pale and also thought that it was very likely.

"Oh God, no way, oooh, no, oooh." Liona cried out, the thought that Omi had traveled back to his original world and was now with his little sister, and his brothers and sisters, broke his whole heart.

Xiaomeng saw that Liona also thought it was a crossover, and got depressed, "Are you all crazy, you can think of such absurd things, I will never believe that Brother Omi really disappeared, I, Han Xiaomeng, will wait here for him for the rest of my life, if he doesn't show up for the rest of his life, I will wait here for the rest of my life." Xiaomeng was very determined.

Perhaps, in a hundred years, someone would discover that this deep mountain was inhabited by an old woman who had never left here in her entire life, waiting for someone who would never return. Until she dies, her grave is also buried here, waiting forever. Stop, stop, this is just an example, otherwise it would be too tragic.

After that, Han Xiaomeng did indeed build a wooden house in the woods outside the waterfall, and they stayed in this wooden house.

In addition, Xu Mei Qian also returned to the Yan Huang Empire and told Samira, Yang Yijian, Qi Xue Yun, Wang Xing, and Liu Yue the news that Omi was still alive, and they also came to Martial Island to wait for Omi together.

So, where exactly did Omi go you?

Did he really cross over?

Time rewound back to that day, Omi and the Wulin Island Master finished catching the Emperor Worm and prepared to leave to watch, the Wulin Island Master was in front and Omi was behind.

Suddenly, Omi, who was flying upwards, saw a dark vortex door appear in front of him, as it suddenly appeared, and Omi was in flight, he couldn't brake his body at all, and suddenly, his entire body crashed into the dark vortex door, all but happening in a fraction of a second. When he looked back, Omi's figure was long gone.

Omi felt like he was being sucked in, then his head felt spinning, and when he opened his eyes, Omi found himself lying on a haystack.

"Hm?Where is here?"

It was then that Don realized that he wasn't even his body anymore. One second to remember to read the book

"What's going on?What the F*ck is wrong with me?"

At that moment, Omi remembered the Island Master saying that there was something odd about that Dungeon, and that his senior brother had just inexplicably disappeared, never to be seen again.

Omi was shocked, he shouldn't have been so unlucky, right?

"Disappear, I'm out there already?Suddenly sucked into this one inexplicable place?Where is here?"

Omi climbed up, and something came to his mind, the memory stone.

That's right, a memory stone.

"This is a memory stone?"

Yes, Omi was very sure that he had somehow been sucked into a mysterious memory stone.

Omi immediately climbed onto the straw pile and was even more shocked when he saw the street pattern outside, the city in this memory stone was exactly the same as the underground city that caught the emperor worm, the only difference was that one was alive and the other was dead.

"Oh my god, it's really a memory stone, I'm damned if I've been sucked into it. So, back then, the island master's senior brother was also sucked into this memory stone, Martial Island has a unique memory stone, which everyone knows, it makes sense that this odd underground city hides an unknown memory stone."

"But, even if it's a memory stone, it's not like it's gone forever."

At this moment, someone outside shouted, "Zhang San, have the horses been fed yet!

?The lady is leaving." A butler-looking man walked in.

It turned out that Omi was a 'groom'.

"Feed it well." Omi said, and Omi didn't immediately freak out and turn over his master's act.

"Well, bring out the horses then, the lady is already heading for the gate."

“Oh.” Omi led the horse out of the stables and went around the back to the front gate of a luxurious residence, Omi kept looking left and right even though he was holding the horse.

When Omi saw the ‘Purple Mansion’ written on the front door of the residence, Omi suddenly remembered that he and the Island Lord had come to this residence when they were catching the Emperor Worm, except that the ones he had seen in the Dungeon were the ones that had turned into fossils, but right now, it was a living residence. This feeling also made Omi quite emotional, and when Omi and the Island Lord were searching for the Emperor Worm in this underground city called the Purple Mansion, Omi also saw that in one of the rooms inside, there was an exquisite little poem that seemed to be written by a girl, to the effect that she missed her lover and hated to meet that lover. At that time, Omi even exclaimed, “What a great poem”, and the island master urged him to find the emperor insect.

Unexpectedly, Omi saw the living Purple Mansion, which was so prosperous back then, but after countless years, it turned into a ruined underground city.

Suddenly, Omi felt a slight touch to his soul, a feeling of traveling through thousands of years.

This slight touch made Omi’s martial realm feel loose.

The Island Master had said that after reaching the Unity Realm Grand Perfection, it was no longer effort that could be used to raise it further, it had to be a spiritual discovery.

Omi was delighted, the slightest touch just now was indeed a spiritual feeling, returning to the same as unknown centuries ago.

Just at this moment, the butler reprimanded, “Miss is out, don’t take the horse up yet.”

“Oh.” Omi took the horse up.

The steward who reprimanded him was only an Innate Realm, and if Omi wanted to beat him, one finger would suffice. However, Omi wasn't interested in that, Omi had just entered this memory stone, and there was one situation that he had yet to clarify. That was, why did the Island Lord's senior brother never return?

Omi also thought about suicide, but Omi didn't dare to do it, what if after committing suicide, his consciousness couldn't return to the outside world? For example, when the Island Master's older brother was sucked into the place, he also knew that it was a memory stone, and then immediately laughed and killed himself, thinking that he had killed himself and gone back. But as it turned out, it wasn't. So, Omi had his doubts and didn't dare to commit suicide rashly.

At that moment, the lady from the Purple Mansion had come out, and she was followed by a maid.

When Omi saw that lady, he was surprised, what a beautiful lady, this lady was about sixteen or seventeen years old, but there was an unexplainable ease on her face, making her very comfortable to look at, and her dress was also very charming.

That maid saw Omi staring at the lady, and snapped, "Stinky horseman, what are you looking at."

Omi suddenly withdrew his eyes, it wasn't like Omi had never seen a beautiful woman before, really.

That Dao: "It's not easy for Zhang San to come to our house as a groom in order to feed his family, so you should say less about him."

"Miss, this brat is staring at you, lusting after you."

"Nonsense, Zhang San is not such a person." Saying that, Miss and the maid got into the carriage.
