Chapter 943 Replica of Uchiha clan genocide

Killing the tailed beast jade that Gobi Yagura had completely transformed from the front with a head-on blow. This kind of combat power could only be achieved by Senju Hashirama and Uchiha Madara at their peak!

When Black Zetsu reported to Obito the astonishing record of Boros' head-on defeat of Goju Yagura Taijutama, even with Obito's calmness and composure, he couldn't help but show a look of shock.

"Senju Hashirama and Uchiha Madara..."

Obito murmured to himself, these two names seemed to carry the weight of history, and every time they were mentioned, people could feel a pressure from ancient times.

They are not only the legendary ninja gods and shuras of the ninja world, but also legends of that era. Now there are people who can show combat power comparable to them. How can this not make Obito feel shocked and disturbed?

The presence of Vergil was already a surprise to Obito, but he didn't expect another Boros to appear.

This level of combat power was indeed beyond his imagination. He begins to realize that the world is far more complex and dangerous than he imagined.

"We must re-examine our opponents and the distribution of power in the entire ninja world."

Obito said.

"Yes, I thought our plan was thorough enough, but I didn't expect that there is such an unknown strong person lurking in the dark. This is not only a warning to us, but also a warning to the entire ninja world - under the appearance of peace, the undercurrent surges."

Hei Jue nodded. He did not expect that strong men like Virgil and Boros would appear.

He realized that with the existing power of the Akatsuki organization, it was simply a foolish dream to gain a foothold in this unpredictable world and realize the "Eye of the Moon Project".

Therefore, alliance and strategy have become the most urgent tasks at present.

Obito pondered for a moment, and a fierce look flashed in his eyes.

"It seems that we need to adjust our strategy. Although Kirigakure Village has been severely damaged, its geographical location and strategic value cannot be ignored. We must find a new entry point as soon as possible and regain control here."

Black Zetsu nodded.

"Sanbi Isoho was killed, what should we do, Obito, do you want the Akatsuki organization to arrest the reborn Sanbi Isoho?"

Then he asked.

"Don't worry about it for the time being. It will only regenerate near Kirigakure Village. It will probably be targeted by Kirigakure Village. It is not suitable to act now."

Obito thought for a moment and then said.

"But Kirigakure Village has no power anymore, and they can't seal the Three-Tailed Isobutsu."

Black Zetsu was still a little anxious.

"Hmph, wouldn't that be better? Let them help us keep an eye on Sanwei Isofu. When it's time to take action, go directly and catch Sanwei Isofu."

Obito said with a sneer, he concluded that the Kirigakure Village would never give up on the Three-tailed Isobutsu. Even if they no longer have the ability to control the Three-tailed Isobutsu, they would definitely send people to keep an eye on them until a new Jinchuuriki is selected and a seal is formed. After class, I will definitely take action immediately.

"So, Obito, what should we do next? Should we continue to act according to the original plan, or adjust our strategy to deal with this emerging threat?"

Hei Jue asked again

"First of all, strengthen intelligence collection, especially information about the strong man who can kill the Tailed Beast Jade head-on. At the same time, we must also improve our own strength. No matter whether we are individuals or organizations, we must not slack off at all. Everyone in the Akatsuki organization Each member needs to reach the limit of their ability."

"At the same time, we must also start to contact potential allies. Whether they are for interests or common enemies, as long as they can be used by us, we can consider them. In this troubled world, there are no eternal enemies, only eternal interests."

"Then, I will make arrangements now to strengthen the intelligence network and prepare to contact possible allies. As for Kirigakure Village, I will pay close attention to their movements to ensure that everything is under control."

As Hei Jue spoke, his figure gradually blurred and finally disappeared into the air.

Obito is naturally unable to move. Since the last time he went to the Poison Ninja Village and was poisoned due to carelessness, Obito has been detoxifying.

The Bai Jue on his body was replaced one after another, and many Bai Jue were poisoned to death.

Fortunately, the situation eventually eased, and Obito's fear of the Poison Ninja Village reached its peak.

"Virgil, Poros..."

Obito murmured these two names in confusion, because these two guys had something in common. Vergil single-handedly attacked Konoha Hidden Village, and then beat the village to pieces, cutting melons and vegetables.

The same goes for Boros, who killed Goju Yagura and Three-Tailed Isobutsu head-on.

Could it be that the two of them are from the same force?

Obito couldn't move during this period of time and could only stay here to detoxify. When he was bored, he would think about various things, which really made him gradually figure out something.

At the same time, outside Kirigakure Village, the legend about Boros quickly spread throughout the ninja world.

Even if Kirigakure wanted to hide it, there were many spies in Kirigakure, so the information about Boros was naturally leaked.

In Kirigakure Village, Boros killed thousands of ninjas by himself, killed the Mizukage, and finally walked away. The name Boros shocked the ninja world.

However, because Vergil was in front of him, Boros did not seem to be very prominent. After all, Vergil was the most powerful ninja village, and the Kirigakure village that Boros fought against was not very powerful among the five major ninja villages.

If it was the Third Mizukage period, then it was the time when Kirigakure Village was the strongest. At that time, there were so many bloody ninjas that even Konoha was very afraid of Kirigakure.

Now, I am not so afraid.

Of course, this did not affect the actions of the Cloud Village and the Rock Village against Konoha. In their opinion, Boros could not be so irrational that he would attack them after dealing with the Kirigakure Village.

It is estimated that the Kirigakure Village had some grudges with him and would do so.

Konoha has been targeted badly recently, especially the Black Light Ninja threw out the bodies of the family ninjas they assassinated, and after framing them, this conflict was further stimulated.

Shimura Danzo and Sarutobi Hiruzen were both numb. They checked over and over again but could not find the internal spy. After all, who could have thought that all the important members of the other family were replaced by the Black Light Ninjas, and they killed their own people to frame them?

And with the Byakugan, it is impossible to disguise the transformation technique, even Orochimaru's Defacement Technique is no exception.

It is precisely because of this inertial thinking that the Black Light Ninja's disguise is flawless, and he is in Konoha like a fish in water.

"What should we do next?"

The Black Light Ninjas asked their superior Alex.

"Replicate the Uchiha clan's genocide and create a conflict between the Hyuga clan and Konoha."
