Chapter 29

Chapter 29

"Everyone, have a seat," said Robert. He looked extremely at ease with himself, even though it was his first time participating in such an event. It was due to him practicing all morning, trying to make himself look and sound natural. Robert was clear that he now not only represented himself, nor was he only a newly graduated college student, but he represented the whole Zabinski family. Hence, he would prepare carefully for anything. He wanted to be accepted and integrate into his current identity faster.

Everyone sat down. Only Barry was still standing there. Lucas pulled on the corners of Barry's clothes several times, and only then did Barry come to his senses and take his seat.

At this time, Barry only felt that his entire world was turned upside down in an instant.

"How is this possible?" thought Barry.
