

Life Makeover: Minted Edition Novel

Chapter 42

Chapter 42

Marilyn quietly avoided Kendrick's hand and looked out the window. "My parents just wanted me to get close to you. We aren't a couple yet."

After saying that, Marilyn ignored Kendrick, and her eyes were full of worries.

Marilyn pondered, "As Kendrick said, the Hoffman family would definitely go after Robert after dealing with the current situation. Could the Labelle family save Robert? Robert, what did you do to make Mr. Hoffman so angry?"

Kendrick glanced at Marilyn, who was indifferent, and Kendrick's hatred for Robert became even stronger.

"Robert had managed to establish a relationship with the Labelle family, but he had offended the Hoffman family. Based on the fact that Robert had pissed Stephen off and caused Stephen to be sent to the hospital, the Labelle family would not be able to protect Robert," Kendrick pondered.

Thinking of this, Kendrick directly picked up the phone and dialed a number. "Contact the Labelle family. I have something important to tell them!"

At the same time, Robert, who was driving back to Yrinas, received a call from Naomi.

"Robert, you were so awesome today." Naomi's delicate voice sounded from the phone. If others heard it, they would make a big deal about this.

Listening to Naomi's voice, Robert smiled helplessly. After several interactions, he probably knew what kind of person

Naomi was. Although Naomi dared to say these things, she was still conservative.

"What's wrong?"

Naomi laughed. "Today, so many people treated you like my future husband. My family also wants to see you, their future son-in-law."

Robert reached out and scratched his ears. "I'll hang up if you don't tell me."

Naomi scolded, "You're such a cold man. Can you only sweet talk at night? Are you refusing to acknowledge our relationship in the daytime? Humph! Let's get down to business. Zabinski Group has always had some business trade relations with Labelle Group. However, something has happened recently. It has something to do with Zabel Group of Acocester. Do you want to know more about it?"

"Okay, I'll go to your company and find you," Robert answered and hung up the phone.

Carlos, who was driving, did not ask any questions. He changed lanes and headed for Labelle Group.

An hour later, Robert was sitting in Naomi's office. Now, Naomi was dressed in an official business suit, which was different from what Robert usually saw. Naomi ordered her secretary to make coffee for Robert and Carlos.

"You guys can have a chat, Mr. Zabinski. I have something to deal with, so I'll go first. The other driver has been arranged." Carlos got up with a smile.

"Mr. Camidge, wait. I'll send Robert home later. Don't bother asking someone else to come here." Naomi was very courteous in front of Carlos.

Chapter 42

"Noted. Thanks for the help, Ms. Labelle." Carlos bowed slightly and walked out of the office.

When there were only Naomi and Robert left in the office, Naomi immediately showed her mischievous personality. Naomi was dignified one second ago, and then she became extremely attractive. The black figure-hugging skirt was tight and plump. Naomi bent down slightly, and the playfulness of her upper body made Robert seem to see something, but not exactly.

Naomi leaned over in front of Robert with a playful smile on her delicate face.

"Robert, there is no one else here. Why are you so reserved?"

Robert had to admit that Naomi was a stunning beauty. She could be dignified and flirtatious.

Send Gift

Comment