Chapter 43

Chapter 43

Robert touched his nose and turned his head aside. "Let's talk about work. What's wrong with the trade you mentioned?"

When Robert mentioned trade, Naomi regained her composure in a second and sat back in her seat. Her legs in black stockings were crossed as if she didn't care if Robert would see anything at all.

"The Zabel family from Acocester wanted to set up business in Navarre. Their ambition could be seen by everyone. They wanted to take over all the market shares in the northwest area, and Yrinas is their first goal. If Zabinski Group refused, they couldn't enter. Our Labelle Group always had a long-term cooperation with Everlasting Trade under Zabinski Group. But recently, Everlasting Trade gives nearly one-third of the trade channels to Zabel Group."

When Naomi said that, her face was filled with anger.

"Robert, don't say that I'm an ignorant woman. Although I know that in the business world, it's nothing but games and deception. If it's because of interests, we, Labelle Group, recognize that. While as far as I know, throughout the cooperation of Everlasting Trade and Zabel Group, most of the interests are in Zabel Group. However, throughout the cooperation of Everlasting Trade and Labelle Group, we give most of the interest to the Zabinski family. I don't accept this."

Robert listened to Naomi's words and frowned. "Haven't you talked to anyone from Everlasting Trade about this?"

"Of course; I have." Naomi nodded. "But I haven't even seen Mr. York from Everlasting Trade once. In recent days, some contracts are going to expire soon. Now, what Everlasting Trade means is that they don't want to renew the contracts with Labelle Group at all but choose Zabel Group with fewer profits."

Robert closed his eyes and thought for a while before asking, "When must the contract be renewed?"

"One whole week from today. From a business perspective, I think Labelle Group has an advantage over Zabel Group. This trade channel is within Navarre. As an external enterprise, Zabel Group is inferior to Labelle Group in terms of products and user groups," Naomi said solemnly. "So I think it's a win-win situation to continue our cooperation."

When Naomi said this, a smile suddenly appeared on her face. She stood from the chair, turned around, and walked to Robert. Naomi stretched out her arm and wrapped it around Robert's neck. Her red lips leaned close to Robert's ear, and Naomi breathed slightly, "Robert, from a personal point of view, I think you don't want your company to bring benefits to Kendrick, do you?"

Naomi's voice in Robert's ears made him feel itchy all over his body. He moved his body. "I'll give you a reply within a week about this."

"Then I'll thank you on behalf of Labelle Group. Thank you, Robert," Naomi laughed. "Let's go, Robert. I'll treat you to delicious food tonight."

Robert smiled bitterly. "Forget it. It's still too early to eat dinner."

Chapter 43

"Don't you know it would require a long time to have a dinner filled with love? Let's go! Just treat it as if we're talking about work." Naomi grabbed Robert's arm and shook it vigorously, acting cute.

"Enough. What if your secretary sees us? Let's go." Robert couldn't resist Naomi and walked out of the office with Naomi.

As soon as Robert arrived at the lower level of the office building, he saw a brand-new Ferrari parked in the parking lot ahead, which attracted many people's attention. The door was opened. Kendrick got out of the car proudly while Marilyn got out of the passenger seat.

When Marilyn got out of the car, she saw Robert and Naomi walking out of the building.

When Marilyn looked over, Robert reached out and put his arms around Naomi's shoulders, striding towards the parking lot.

Naomi smiled heartily and put her head on Robert's shoulder, looking sweet and happy.
