Chapter 57

Chapter 57

Naomi saw that Robert's expression was obviously gloomy. She also knew the reason and persuaded him, "Zabinski Group is too big and has many subsidiaries. No company will guarantee that no issues will happen at all."

Robert nodded. He knew that there were still many things that he needed to do. Everlasting Trade was not an accident but a phenomenon. This phenomenon could not be eradicated, but it was always necessary to prevent big, careless mistakes. As for Gabriel, he chose to cooperate with Zabel Group, which was equivalent to giving Zabinski Group's market share to other corporations. This was not something that could be made up by embezzling some money.

While thinking, Naomi's phone suddenly rang. She picked up the phone and responded. It was unknown what the other end of the phone had said as Naomi's face immediately darkened.

More than a minute later, Naomi hung up the phone and looked at Robert. "Tonight, Kendrick will invite the heads of major enterprises to a banquet in the name of Zabel Group. He also invited me, but he didn't invite Zabinski Group and the Hoffman family. It was said that Kendrick wanted to cooperate with various corporations and asked the Labelle family to attend. It's probably that he wants to use my family as an example. After all, if it weren't for our family's relationship with you, the Labelle family's market shares would belong to Zabel Group. If so, we would have to be expelled from Yrinas. Kendrick is trying to use us as a warning to others."

"Kendrick..." Robert thought for a while. "I'll go with you."

"Haha." Naomi's eyes immediately beamed, and her arms wrapped around Robert's neck. "I knew you wouldn't let me go there alone and become a joke."

Naomi's figure swayed in front of Robert's eyes. The sight of a sexy figure and long legs in black pantyhose was killing him.

Robert coughed dryly and hurriedly got up. He knew that he was no match for Naomi in playing hooligans.

In the business district of Yrinas's central business district, Zabel Group rented an entire eleven-story building. The group had just settled in the city but had already spent a huge sum on renting a building. It could be seen how powerful Zabel Group's financial resources were. The news had long been spread to the ears of major enterprises in Yrinas.

In the meantime, at Zabel Group's general manager's office, two men and a woman were sitting down. One of them was Marilyn, and the other two were members of the Quesnell family.

Matthew Quesnell, Marilyn's younger brother, said excitedly, "Mari, Mom had agreed to your marriage with Kendrick. After she is discharged from the hospital, she will come to seek you for your engagement with Matthew!"

"Marilyn, your mother is in poor health. She has been happy all night after hearing Kendrick call and say he wants to marry you. Her condition had improved a lot." The person speaking was Marilyn's uncle, Lawrence Quesnell.

Marilyn's face was extremely gloomy. She did not know the news that her uncle and brother would come here. As for the matter of Kendrick calling her mother, she did not know anything about it. She suddenly received a call this morning, saying that her brother and uncle were coming. As soon as they came, she was told about those matters.

She would be engaged to Kendrick.

When Marilyn heard those words, she felt fear and depression.

She wondered, "Why? Why did I have to get engaged to someone I have no feelings for at all? Why didn't I even have the right to choose who I wanted to be with?"

Marilyn wanted to stand up and yell at them, rejecting the engagement. She wanted to tell them that she liked Robert, not Kendrick. However, what Lawrence had said calmed Marilyn down instead. With her mother's body condition, she could not receive any shock anymore.

Bang!

With a thud, the door of the office was opened. Kendrick walked in with a bruised face. Two of his fingers were still wrapped with gauze, and his expression looked resentful.

"Oh, Kendrick is back!" As soon as Matthew saw Kendrick, he jumped up excitedly.
