

Life Makeover: Minted Edition Novel

Chapter 59

Chapter 59

Naomi explained, "When you were competing with Zabel Group at the auction last time, you took advantage of it to let some people know that Zabinski Group was determined to compete with Zabel Group, and the latter's attitude was always vague. But this time, Zabel Group suddenly organized this banquet. It means that they want to show their determination. Next, everyone wants to see which side is more confident and more powerful. Zabel Group had struck first. Therefore, everyone has higher hopes for Zabel Group, so they came here."

Naomi's words made Robert instantly understand, feeling enlightened.

After opening the car door, Robert got out of the vehicle and walked towards the independent luxurious banquet hall.

Robert walked towards the banquet hall. The closer he was to the banquet hall, the more determination his expression showed. Although he had short contact with the business and seemed to be young and inexperienced to the others, he knew very well that for himself, there were some things that must be done.

In front of the banquet hall, someone was guarding the entrance. One must hold an invitation card in order to enter.

Robert followed Naomi, so there were no obstacles at all. The banquet was a buffet-style banquet. Robert had only seen it on TV and had never experienced such a thing before. He was incompatible with everything at the banquet.

As the host of the banquet, Kendrick sat on the most luxurious couch and chatted loudly with some entrepreneurs from Yrinas. From time to time, there would be a burst of laughter sounded from them. He lit a cigarette and made a few jokes. Everything seemed so natural. That day, Kendrick was the master of the place.

"Hahaha. Marilyn, look. This is the deterrent power of large enterprises. Once Kendrick called for a gathering, no enterprise in Yrinas dared not come." Lawrence stood beside Marilyn and looked at Kendrick, who was sitting in the center and chatting with others. The more Lawrence looked at the other man, the more satisfied he felt.

Matthew looked around. When he saw a beautiful lady, he would immediately brighten his eyes and think about how to obtain her contact information from her.

"Wow, what a stunning beauty!" Matthew suddenly exclaimed.

Naomi wore a black dress that night, and her short hair looked particularly charming. The hollowed-out craftsmanship on the dress perfectly showed a woman's sexiness.

Marilyn followed Matthew's gaze. When she saw Robert walking beside Naomi, she felt even more terrible in her heart. If it was not for her family, she might be able to be together with him, just like Naomi and him.

"Damn it! That woman is so stunning. I must get her!" Matthew rubbed his palms. He was also a famous playboy in Acocester.

Naomi took Robert to the corner and told him about the relationship between each enterprise. Robert listened carefully and kept it in mind.

On the couch in the middle of the banquet hall, Kendrick was still talking and laughing loudly when a figure suddenly approached him.

"Kendrick! Kendrick!"

Matthew had a thieving look on his face.

"What's the matter?" Kendrick asked.

"Kendrick, who is that?" Matthew pointed his finger at Naomi, sitting in the corner, with his eyes full of greed.

Kendrick was surprised to see Naomi. He thought Naomi would not come. After all, he had taken Labelle Group's market shares. If someone from the Labelle family attended that banquet, they would certainly become a joke to the others.

Now, it seemed that the Labelle family did not give up and wanted to plead with him.

Kendrick thought, "Haha, Naomi, do you think you can beat me with your relationship with that bastard Robert? The Labelle family must be banished!"

Kendrick was furious. He also noticed Robert sitting next to Naomi and patted Matthew on the shoulder. He said, "She's just a woman from a small family. The man next to her is Robert. He's her toy boy. He used to want to hook up with Marilyn. You should have heard about it from your family."